Comprehensive Security Analysis Report: China (March 13-20, 2026)

Executive Summary

During the period of March 13-20, 2026, China demonstrated a sustained focus on military modernization and assertive regional posture, underscored by a significant defense budget increase for 2026. Tensions in the South China Sea escalated with new island-building activities and continued maritime militia presence, alongside increased military incursions near Taiwan. Diplomatically, China sought to manage complex relations with the United States, despite a postponed leaders' summit, while reaffirming its "rock-solid" strategic partnership with Russia. Domestically, new cybersecurity legislation further tightened data controls, and a purge within the People's Liberation Army leadership continued, indicating Beijing's dual emphasis on hard power development and internal political control.

Key Security Developments

- Defense Policy and Strategic Shifts: 2026 Defense Budget Increase

China announced a 7% increase in its 2026 defense budget, bringing the nation's military expenditure to approximately 1.91 trillion yuan, or about $277 billion. This marks the 11th consecutive year of single-digit growth, though it significantly exceeds the country's projected economic growth target of roughly 4.5%-5%. The Pentagon, however, estimates China's actual defense spending could be considerably higher, potentially reaching $388-526 billion annually.

- Defense Policy and Strategic Shifts: Military Modernization and Technological Focus

The increased defense spending is explicitly linked to accelerating the modernization of the People's Liberation Army (PLA) by 2035 and achieving "advanced combat capabilities" by the PLA's centenary in 2027. China's newly adopted 15th Five-Year Plan (2026-2030) elevates quantum technology, artificial intelligence, nuclear fusion, and brain-computer interfaces to core strategic industries, aiming for technological dominance as a national security priority.

- Defense Policy and Strategic Shifts: Ongoing Military Purge

An extensive anti-corruption campaign within the PLA has resulted in the purge of 101 senior leaders since 2022, including two members of the Central Military Commission (CMC). This ongoing rectification, which saw the dismissal of high-ranking general Zhang Youxia in January 2026, is seen as an effort by President Xi Jinping to consolidate political control over the armed forces.

- Military Activities and Exercises: Taiwan Strait Incursions

On March 17, 2026, the PLA conducted a "joint combat readiness patrol" near Taiwan, involving 21 aircraft sorties that crossed the Taiwan Strait median line and intruded into Taiwan's northern, central, southwestern, and eastern airspace. These air activities were coordinated with PLA ships. Additionally, Chinese coast guard ships entered the restricted waters around Kinmen on the same day.

- Maritime and Border Security: South China Sea Island Building

New Chinese dredging and landfill activity at Antelope Reef in the Paracel Islands was reported on March 19, 2026. This marks the first significant artificial island-building effort by Beijing in the South China Sea since 2017, with Antelope Reef projected to become China's largest feature in the Paracels, potentially surpassing Mischief Reef in size.

- Maritime and Border Security: Maritime Militia Expansion and Philippines Disputes

China's maritime militia significantly increased its presence in the South China Sea in 2025, reaching a record daily average of 241 vessels, particularly around Mischief and Whitsun reefs. On March 18-20, 2026, a Chinese defense spokesperson reiterated China's "indisputable sovereignty" over the South China Sea, including Huangyan Dao (Scarborough Shoal), and criticized the Philippines' "self-directed farce" regarding its patrol missions. The Philippines, in turn, rejected Beijing's assertion of sovereignty, citing a 2016 international arbitration ruling.

- Maritime and Border Security: India-China Border Dynamics

As of March 15, 2026, the situation along the Line of Actual Control (LAC) between India and China remains cautiously stable but strategically competitive. Both nations are engaged in an infrastructure race, with India constructing the 1,840-kilometer Arunachal Frontier Highway and China expanding military infrastructure on the Tibetan Plateau. Border trade through Uttarakhand's Lipulekh Pass is set to resume in 2026.

- Diplomatic Relations: China-US Engagement and Postponement

China's Foreign Minister Wang Yi expressed hope on March 8, 2026, for 2026 to be a "landmark year" for relations with the United States, anticipating a summit between President Xi Jinping and President Donald Trump. However, the highly anticipated US presidential visit to Beijing, initially scheduled for late March, was postponed due to the ongoing war in Iran, complicating US domestic and foreign policy.

- Diplomatic Relations: China-Russia Strategic Alignment

Chinese Foreign Minister Wang Yi stated on March 8, 2026, that the China-Russia relationship has "stood rock-solid against all odds," emphasizing a strategic partnership based on equality, respect, and mutual benefit. This alignment is viewed as providing Russia with strategic endurance against Western pressure and offering China strategic leverage against the United States.

- Cybersecurity: Enhanced Legal Frameworks

Amendments to China's Cybersecurity Law, which came into effect in January 2026, and a new Draft Law on Cybercrime Prevention and Control (published January 31, 2026, and discussed on March 17, 2026) significantly bolster China's data sovereignty. These laws expand extraterritorial reach, increase financial penalties for violations, and consolidate regulatory practices, raising concerns about privacy and freedom of expression.

- Cybersecurity: Southeast Asian Military Espionage

Palo Alto Networks Unit 42 reported on March 13, 2026, a suspected China-based cyber espionage operation, tracked as CL-STA-1087, targeting Southeast Asian military organizations since at least 2020. The operation utilizes malware like AppleChris and MemFun to collect intelligence on military organizational structures, strategy, and operational capabilities.

- Counter-terrorism: UN Stance and Regional Monitoring

On March 5, 2026, China's permanent representative to the United Nations, Fu Cong, advocated for rejecting selective approaches and double standards in counter-terrorism efforts. He called for the UN Security Council to list the Balochistan Liberation Army and its Majeed Brigade on the 1267 Sanctions List. Chinese intelligence is also closely monitoring developments in Sudan following the US designation of the Muslim Brotherhood within the Sudanese army as a terrorist organization, viewing it as a move to contain China's influence.

Geopolitical Impact and Regional Dynamics

China's security developments during this period significantly impact regional stability and its relations with major global powers. The continued assertive posture in the South China Sea, marked by new island construction at Antelope Reef and the sustained, record-high presence of its maritime militia, exacerbates tensions with littoral states like the Philippines. This expansion of physical and operational control challenges international law and freedom of navigation, drawing increased scrutiny from the United States and its allies. The Taiwan Strait remains a critical flashpoint, with the PLA's "joint combat readiness patrol" on March 17 demonstrating Beijing's readiness to exert military pressure, despite a US intelligence assessment suggesting China is unlikely to invade Taiwan by 2027. This ongoing pressure aims to deter Taiwanese independence and shape cross-strait dynamics.

Relations with the United States remain complex and competitive. While China expressed a desire for a "landmark year" in bilateral ties and anticipated a leaders' summit, the postponement of President Trump's visit due to the war in Iran highlights the fragility of engagement and the impact of broader geopolitical events. The US-China rivalry continues across trade, technology, and regional influence, with both sides seeking leverage. Conversely, China's strategic alignment with Russia has been reaffirmed as "rock-solid," providing Moscow with crucial support against Western pressure and enhancing China's geopolitical leverage. This partnership challenges the existing international order and complicates Western efforts to isolate Russia.

The India-China border remains a zone of cautious stability but intense strategic competition. The ongoing infrastructure race, with both nations rapidly developing military and logistical capabilities along the Line of Actual Control, underscores a fragile peace. While diplomatic channels are open, the underlying territorial disputes persist. Relations with the European Union are strained by trade disputes and cybersecurity concerns, leading to EU sanctions on China-based tech firms. Despite these frictions, China's Ambassador to the EU highlighted opportunities for cooperation, particularly in green development and AI, reflecting a desire to maintain economic ties amidst strategic divergence.

Military and Defense Analysis

China's military and defense posture is characterized by a relentless drive towards modernization and enhanced combat capabilities, underpinned by a consistently increasing defense budget. The 7% rise in the 2026 defense budget to approximately $277 billion, while officially stated as modest, is widely believed by external observers, including the Pentagon, to be significantly higher in reality, potentially reaching up to $526 billion. This substantial investment reflects Beijing's strategic priority on national security and technological competition, even amidst slowing economic growth.

The People's Liberation Army (PLA) is on an accelerated trajectory to become a fully modern force by 2035, with key modernization targets set for its centenary in 2027. This includes strengthening political guidance, increasing the supply of advanced combat capabilities, and enhancing military governance. China's defense investments are increasingly tied to advanced technology sectors, such as aerospace, artificial intelligence, quantum technology, and robotics, which are seen as crucial for developing "new quality productive forces" and future combat advantages. In terms of force posture, the PLA Air Force (PLAAF) has demonstrated its capability for sustained presence and incursions in sensitive areas like the Taiwan Strait, although activity had temporarily decreased before resuming on March 17. The expansion of China's maritime militia to a record 241 daily vessels in the South China Sea further augments its naval and coast guard capabilities, enabling persistent presence and gray-zone operations. The ongoing purge of senior PLA leaders, while potentially disruptive in the short term, ultimately aims to consolidate President Xi Jinping's absolute control over the armed forces, ensuring political loyalty and streamlining the modernization agenda. China's fighter production capacity is also expanding rapidly, with analysts estimating the ability to produce up to 300 fighters annually by 2028, potentially surpassing the United States in combat aircraft size and modernization by the end of the decade.

Outlook and Forecast

Short-term trends (1-3 months): In the immediate future, China is expected to continue its robust military modernization efforts, with a strong emphasis on integrating advanced technologies like AI and quantum computing into its defense capabilities. Assertive actions in the South China Sea, including further development of reclaimed features and continued presence of the maritime militia, are highly probable, leading to sustained friction with regional claimants and the United States. Pressure on Taiwan is likely to persist through military demonstrations and diplomatic rhetoric, though a direct invasion by 2027 is assessed as unlikely by US intelligence. Diplomatic engagements with the US will likely focus on managing competition and preventing escalation, particularly in the aftermath of the postponed leaders' summit. The strong strategic alignment with Russia is set to deepen, with both nations continuing to challenge Western dominance and coordinate on international affairs.

Critical flashpoints and risk areas: The Taiwan Strait remains the most critical flashpoint, with any miscalculation during PLA exercises or incursions carrying a high risk of escalation. The South China Sea is another significant risk area, where China's continued territorial assertions and the actions of its maritime militia could lead to direct confrontations with Philippine vessels or other regional navies. The India-China border, despite a cautious stability, presents a risk of localized skirmishes due to the ongoing infrastructure race and unresolved territorial disputes. Cybersecurity is an increasingly critical domain, with China's expanded legal framework potentially impacting foreign businesses and increasing the risk of state-sponsored cyber espionage against regional militaries and critical infrastructure.

Indicators to monitor: Key indicators to monitor include the frequency and scale of PLA military exercises and incursions around Taiwan and in the South China Sea. Any further significant island-building activities or changes in the deployment of naval and air assets would be crucial. Developments in US-China high-level diplomatic engagements, particularly the rescheduling and outcomes of the presidential summit, will signal the trajectory of bilateral relations. The nature and extent of China's support for Russia, including any new military or economic cooperation agreements, will be important for understanding the evolving geopolitical landscape. Domestically, further details on the PLA leadership purges and the implementation of the 15th Five-Year Plan's technological goals will shed light on China's internal stability and long-term strategic direction.

Strategic recommendations: For international actors, maintaining a robust and unified stance on international law in the South China Sea is essential to counter China's assertive claims. Strengthening defense cooperation and intelligence sharing with regional partners, particularly Taiwan and the Philippines, can enhance deterrence and response capabilities. Diplomatic channels with Beijing should be kept open to manage crises and address areas of mutual concern, while simultaneously challenging actions that undermine regional stability or international norms. Investing in cybersecurity defenses and developing collective response mechanisms to state-sponsored cyber threats from China is paramount. Finally, closely monitoring China's military modernization, particularly its advancements in AI and quantum technologies, is crucial for understanding future power dynamics and developing appropriate counter-strategies.

As other Asian economies race to conserve energy, China has huge reserves of oil and gas as well as alternative energy sources like wind and solar. Middle East crisis – live updates. Xi Jinping has been preparing for a crisis like this for years. China must secure its energy supply “in its own hands”, its president was reported to have said during a visit to one of its vast oilfields in 2021. The US-Israel war on Iran plunged the Middle East into a deep conflict, with the strait of Hormuz – one of the most important waterways in global trade – all but closed and key energy facilities across the region under attack. - Inside China's robotics revolution (2026-03-19 05:01)

How close are we to the sci-fi vision of autonomous humanoid robots? I visited 11 companies in five Chinese cities to find out. Chen Liang, the founder of Guchi Robotics, an automation company headquartered in Shanghai, is a tall, heavy-set man in his mid-40s with square-rimmed glasses. His everyday manner is calm and understated, but when he is in his element – up close with the technology he builds, or in business meetings discussing the imminent replacement of human workers by robots – he wears an exuberant smile that brings to mind an intern on his first day at his dream job. Guchi makes the machines that install wheels, dashboards and windows for many of the top Chinese car brands, including BYD and Nio. He took the name from the Chinese word guzhi, “steadfast intelligence”, though the fact that it sounded like an Italian luxury brand was not entirely unwelcome. For the better part of two decades, Chen has tried to solve what, to him, is an engineering problem: how to eliminate – or, in his view, liberate – as many workers in car factories as technologically possible. Late last year, I visited him at Guchi headquarters on the western outskirts of Shanghai. Next to the head office are several warehouses where Guchi's engineers tinker with robots to fit the specifications of their customers. Chen, an engineer by training, founded Guchi in 2019 with the aim of tackling the hardest automation task in the car factory: "final assembly", the last leg of production, when all the composite pieces – the dashboard, windows, wheels and seat cushions – come together. At present, his robots can mount wheels, dashboards and windows on to a car without any human intervention, but 80% of the final assembly, he estimates, has yet to be automated. That is what Chen has set his sights on. Continue reading...

Beijing seeks to decipher effect of Iran war on US midterms and best way to apply pressure when Trump meets XiThe White House said on Wednesday that China had agreed to postpone Donald Trump's visit to Beijing, as war in the Middle East rages on, complicating the US president's position at home and abroad.China has not yet commented on the delay to the highly anticipated trip, in which Trump and the Chinese president, Xi Jinping, will meet in person for the first time since October. Trump previously said he hoped to delay the trip, originally scheduled to run from 31 March to 2 April, for "five or six weeks". Continue reading...

Last year it was China's answer to tariffs, now it's Iran's retaliation to airstrikes – 'America First' keeps foundering on global economicsDonald Trump is teaching the world a lesson, but not the one he thinks. The attack on Iran was meant to be a dazzling display of military supremacy. It has instead illuminated chinks in the US's armour.The US president's formidable arsenal cannot summon up an insurrection from Iran's tyrannised and leaderless opposition. It cannot force merchant ships to run a gauntlet of missile and drone attacks in the strait of Hormuz. The government in Tehran and the facts of geography that give it leverage over global trade are unchanged. Trump's exasperation is showing. He urges tanker crews to "show some guts" by sailing into harm's way. He calls on Nato members to provide naval chaperones and accuses them of cowardice and ingratitude for refusing. He comes across as peevish and flustered. Impotence is not a good look in a potentate. Continue reading...

White House seems to have failed to anticipate that Tehran would fight back by trying to impose costs on the west Middle East crisis – live updates If there was a moment when the absence of a US strategy on Iran was exposed, then this was it. Donald Trump demanded on Saturday that the UK, China, France, Japan and others participate in a naval escort for oil tankers through the strait of Hormuz. Despite launching the attack on Iran, with Israel, the White House does not seem to have fully anticipated what was likely to follow. Iran had few good military options for fighting back, but attacking US bases, US allies and merchant shipping in the Gulf was the most obvious response – to try to impose costs on the west. - Iran’s Hormuz blockade is its most powerful card against Trump and Israel. It won’t back down easily | Jack Watling (2026-03-16 15:49)

By imposing massive costs on the global economy, the Iranian government hopes to cause the US to back down The US and Israeli decision to attack Iran has sent economic shockwaves around the world. About 20% of global oil supplies have been effectively blocked from transiting the strait of Hormuz since Iran began attacking ships, resulting in a huge jump in oil prices. Militarily, while the United States has the firepower to significantly reduce Iran’s capacity to strike ships in the strait, it is unlikely to be able to eliminate the threat entirely. Reopening the strait, therefore, is not only a question of military capabilities but of diplomacy, and to negotiate it is necessary to understand what each party to the conflict is trying to achieve. In China, one social media trend hangs on the idea that a life in the US is always one step from disaster, while another in the US has gen Z revelling in Chinese lifestyle hacks. Across two online worlds that are normally splintered, over the last few months there has been a mirroring of sorts. On TikTok and Instagram, young people are diving into the joys of Chinese culture – from drinking hot water to playing mahjong – all under the banner of “Chinamaxxing”. On the Chinese internet, however, the US is losing its decades-long grip on soft power, and is instead being replaced by a darker trend: the kill line. The kill line is a dangerous place to be. In gaming, the term refers to the point at which a player’s strength is so depleted that one more blow could lead to total wipeout. In China, the term refers to the risks that come with daily life in the US. Continue reading...

Belarusian President Alexander Lukashenko freed 250 prisoners on Thursday - the biggest batch to be released so far - in return for a further easing of US sanctions, the US embassy in neighbouring Lithuania said. The releases were part of a bargaining process in which Lukashenko was seeking a normalisation of ties with Washington after years of isolation and sanctions, in exchange for easing repression in the former Soviet state he has led since 1994. Belarusian human rights group Viasna said...

- EU leaders clash with Hungary' s Orban for blocking Ukraine loan (2026-03-20 02:27)

European Union leaders failed to convince Hungarian Prime Minister Viktor Orban on Thursday to lift his blockade on a €90 billion (US$103 billion) EU loan to help Ukraine keep up its fight against Russia' s invasion. After a summit in Brussels, several leaders voiced deep frustration with Orban, who has cited a dispute over a war-damaged pipeline to justify blocking the implementation of the loan agreed back in December. German Chancellor Friedrich Merz accused Orban - who maintains cordial ties...

A US intelligence assessment warning of a potential threat from Pakistan' s prospective intercontinental ballistic missiles (ICBMs) has been challenged by nuclear non-proliferation experts, who say Islamabad' s defence programme is focused on regional deterrence rather than targeting the American "homeland" . Director of National Intelligence Tulsi Gabbard told the US Senate on Wednesday that Pakistan - along with China, Iran, North Korea and Russia - has been "researching and developing an array...

- US federal debt becoming 'alarmingly unsustainable' as Iran war fuels spending: analysts (2026-03-20 02:00)

The United States' rapidly mounting sovereign debt pile – which reached an unprecedented US$39 trillion on Wednesday – is becoming “alarmingly unsustainable” and a potential threat to the global economy, with spending likely to spiral even further amid the Iran war, analysts said. It remains unclear whether US President Donald Trump has the political will to rein in borrowing, despite promising to eliminate the national debt while campaigning for office in 2016, and other countries including...

A Chinese woman who was abandoned in a toilet as a newborn by her grandfather has reunited with her biological parents 28 years after being adopted by a Dutch couple. Hong Yangli, 28, was born into a rural family in Nanchang, Jiangxi province, central China, as the third child, the mainland media outlet Daxiang News reported. Her mother, Yang Xiaoying, said that a day after giving birth, her father-in-law offered to take the baby home and look after her. Still weak after childbirth and with her...

- Office vacancy rate in Hong Kong' s Central falls to single digits after 2 years (2026-03-20 00:30)

Prime office vacancy rates in Hong Kong' s main business district dropped to single digits for the first time in 26 months, lifting overall rents in the city' s struggling office property market, according to JLL. The vacancy rate in Central for premium offices fell to 9.9 per cent in February from 10.1 per cent the previous month, the property consultancy said. The last time a single-digit rate was recorded for grade A offices in the district was in December 2023, when it also hit 9.9 per cent,...

- 'Too slow' : Hong Kong' s new university town faces questions over plans (2026-03-20 00:30)

Hong Kong' s Baptist University placed a big bet when it told the government in 2023 that it was interested in moving its campus from the upmarket Kowloon Tong residential area to a proposed new academic town near the mainland Chinese border. The 70-year-old university' s move to the Northern Metropolis megaproject will mean giving up a prime site for a spot where most of the land has yet to be prepared for construction, although its proximity to mainland tech hub Shenzhen and the Lok Ma Chau...

- South Korea risks US rift over Iran' s Hormuz Strait squeeze (2026-03-20 00:00)

South Korea finds itself boxed in as Tehran moves to turn the Strait of Hormuz into a bargaining chip amid the US-Israeli war on Iran, leaving Seoul caught between its dependence on Middle East oil and its unwillingness to antagonise Washington. Economists note that South Korea relies on Washington' s security umbrella to deter threats from nuclear-armed North Korea and that its oil trade is settled in US dollars – two realities that sit awkwardly alongside Iran' s push for yuan-based energy...

- How long will US-Israel war on Iran last? Chinese analysts offer clues (2026-03-19 22:00)

Iran' s missile and drone stockpiles will last another two or three months as US-Israeli strikes continue, while the US military is also depleting its interceptors, Chinese analysts have noted. However, how long the war lasts would depend less on stockpiles alone than on the effectiveness of new US deployments and President Donald Trump' s political calculus, one of them cautioned. Iran has continued its attacks on Israel and on US assets across the Middle East since the conflict was triggered on...

A federal arts panel comprised of members appointed by Donald Trump unanimously approved a commemorative gold coin featuring his image on Thursday, in the latest effort by the administration to celebrate the US president. Critics, including Democrats and members of another federal arts committee, said minting a coin with a sitting president’s image went against American values, especially as the nation celebrates its 250th birthday this year and the end of British monarchical rule. During a...

US crypto advocates have increasingly pointed to competition with China's new interest-bearing e-CNY to demand legislative clarity on stablecoin yields, but China is charting a completely different course for the future of digital money, experts said. "The world's two largest economies are not so much competing in digital assets as they are pursuing very different strategies," said Andrew Fei, a partner at law firm King & Wood Mallesons in Hong Kong. Winston Ma, adjunct professor and executive...

- Trump talks with Japanese Prime Minister Sanae Takaichi off to positive start (2026-03-19 17:21)

A high-stakes summit between US President Donald Trump and Japanese Prime Minister Sanae Takaichi on Thursday appeared to get off to a good start as the two touted the bilateral relationship and pledged to work cooperatively on trade, stabilising the global energy market and regional security. Takaichi was the first US ally to meet face to face with the mercurial president, amid concern that he would take out his anger on her for the large number of security partners who have declined to help...

A US F-35 fighter aircraft was hit by suspected Iranian fire and had to make an emergency landing on Thursday. This would be the first time Iran has hit one of the US$100 million planes since the US and Israel launched their attack on the country on February 28, according to CNN, which first reported the incident. The F-35 was "flying a combat mission over Iran", a spokesman for US Central Command said. "The aircraft landed safely, and the pilot is in stable condition," Captain Tim Hawkins said....

US Defence Secretary Pete Hegseth said Thursday there was no "time frame" for ending the US-Israeli war against Iran, which was launched three weeks ago. "We wouldn't want to set a definitive time frame," Hegseth told a news conference, adding that "we're very much on track" and that President Donald Trump would be the one to decide when to stop. "It will be at the president's choosing, ultimately, where we say, 'Hey, we've achieved what we need to.' " American objectives in the war had not...

A firefighter killed in Hong Kong' s deadliest blaze in decades may have entered the wrong building amid the initial chaos at the scene and fallen from a height, the first day of a public hearing into the inferno has heard. More details surrounding the death of 37-year-old Ho Wai-ho, among the first batch of firefighters sent to tackle the blaze, emerged as the independent committee set up by the government to investigate the fire at the Wang Fuk Court residential complex in Tai Po held its first...

- CK Hutchison vows to pursue ‘all legal remedies’ over seized Panama ports (2026-03-19 14:02)

Hong Kong conglomerate CK Hutchison has said it will pursue “all available legal remedies” through both national and international proceedings to resolve a dispute over its two Panama Canal ports seized by authorities in February. Amid the widening conflict in the Middle East which could further complicate its multibillion-dollar global ports sale, the company downplayed the possible impact of a Strait of Hormuz blockade on its business, saying its diversified network could even benefit from...

- ‘Severely damaged’ : how the US-Israel war on Iran is decoupling Gulf security (2026-03-19 14:00)

For decades, the US security umbrella was the bedrock underpinning the Gulf states’ prosperity and stability. Today, Iranian missiles and drones have paralysed the Strait of Hormuz and hit civilian airports, ports, hotels and refineries across every Gulf country, despite thousands of American troops and advanced interceptors on the ground. The armed conflict has forced the region to confront a stark new reality. A Chinese scholar argued that the US-Israel war on Iran and ensuing Hormuz crisis...

- 2 men charged with spying for Iran on UK Jewish targets (2026-03-19 13:52)

Two men appeared in a London court on Thursday accused of being tasked by Iran to carry out hostile surveillance on the Israeli embassy, Britain’ s oldest synagogue and other Jewish targets. Nematollah Shahsavani, 40, a dual Iranian-British national, and Alireza Farasati, an Iranian national, 22, are accused of being involved in gathering information and undertaking reconnaissance of targets given to them by Iranian spy services over five weeks last summer. As such, the alleged activities...

Hong Kong customs officers have arrested five people and seized 2,500 pairs of suspected counterfeit eyewear worth about HK$2.2 million (US$280,680) in a citywide operation. Officers from the Customs and Excise Department carried out the special enforcement action on Tuesday and Wednesday, targeting the sale of counterfeit goods. Officers raided five retail shops in Cheung Sha Wan, Kwai Shing, Tsuen Wan and Fanling, as well as a supplier in Kwun Tong, seizing the items with the assistance of...

- China’ s central bank pledges stability in capital markets amid global sell-off (2026-03-19 13:30)

China’ s central bank named the continued stability of the country’ s capital markets as a priority for 2026, a goal taking on greater significance as global markets are tested by the reverberations of the escalating US-Israel war on Iran. The People’ s Bank of China designated the stability of stock, bond and foreign exchange markets as one of its “major tasks” for the year, according to a readout from a high-level meeting hosted by bank governor Pan Gongsheng on Wednesday. The bank also vowed to...

- Liu Guozhi, former top PLA scientist and nuclear test commander, delisted from CAS website (2026-03-19 12:58)

A former top-ranking scientist in the Chinese military and one-time nuclear test site commander, Liu Guozhi, has been removed from the website of the country's top national research institute. In 2016, Liu was named head of the science and technology commission of the Central Military Commission – China's top military decision-making and command body – a position he is believed to have held until the early 2020s. Liu, 65, was elected to the Chinese Academy of Sciences (CAS) in 2009. Some Chinese...

- As war in Iran roils energy markets, Europe pays price of 'dependency' (2026-03-19 12:30)

Europe woke on Thursday to another energy shock, as military attacks on critical infrastructure in Qatar and Iran sent oil and gas prices across the continent soaring to levels unseen since Russia's invasion of Ukraine in 2022. The continent's benchmark natural gas price, the Dutch TTF, climbed above €70 (US$80) per megawatt hour in Thursday morning trading – its highest level since December 2022, though still well below the more than €300 peak reached in the summer of 2022. Brent crude surged...

- US war on Iran presents a complex strategic challenge for China (2026-03-19 12:30)

The US military strike against Iran is, by most accounts, a war of choice. Most policy analysts believe Iran poses no imminent threat to the United States. President Donald Trump's decision appears partly intended to offset the political fallout from setbacks in his tariff policies and reinforce his image as a strongman president. Trump is believed to have been encouraged by Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu to wage war. US military preparations for the operation appear limited and there...

- China offers to help Southeast Asia counter impact of Middle East war on energy supplies (2026-03-19 12:25)

China has pledged to work with Southeast Asian countries on energy security as the war in the Middle East continued to take its toll on global oil and gas supplies. "China stands ready to strengthen cooperation and coordination with Southeast Asian countries and jointly address energy security issues," Chinese foreign ministry spokesman Lin Jian told a regular press conference on Thursday. Lin also called for an end to the conflict, saying: "Relevant countries need to stop military operations at..."

- India's weight-loss price war begins as semaglutide patent expires (2026-03-19 12:19)

Namita Joshi made a New Year's resolution in January to tackle one of her long-standing problems: being overweight. A key part of her slimming journey is her weekly weight-loss injections. While the 29-year-old interior designer has made changes to her diet and increased her workouts, she said the medication has helped her lose up to 6kg (13 pounds) in the past two months. With her weight at 85kg before her treatment and height at 1.65 metres (5.4 feet), Joshiwas considered obese. “My mental...

- Paralegals among 16 people arrested over ‘crash-for-cash’ scams in Hong Kong (2026-03-19 12:15)

Hong Kong police have arrested 16 more people, including paralegals, over traffic accident compensation claims worth more than HK$3.6 million (US$459,290) tied to a wave of “crash-for-cash” scams. The suspects, 11 men and five women aged 28 to 65, included three paralegals at a law firm in Mong Kok that was raided last month, the force said on Thursday. The other suspects were the claimants and worked in a variety of jobs, including IT technician, beautician, logistics worker, tutor, property...

- US rapper Afroman celebrates after court protects his right to mock police (2026-03-19 12:04)

Grammy-nominated rapper Afroman won a defamation lawsuit filed by seven Ohio sheriff’s deputies who sued him over music videos in which he used home security footage to mock their raid of his home. “We did it, America! Yeah, we did it! Freedom of speech! Right on! Right on!” the 51-year-old rapper, born Joseph Foreman, shouted outside the courthouse after the Wednesday evening verdict. He later posted the clip to social media. The case tested the limits of parody and the license artists can take...

- ‘Uncompromising’ : Takaichi’s meeting with Trump seen as key to China-Japan ties (2026-03-19 12:00)

China and Japan’s long-standing rivalry has deep historic roots, and relations between the two have taken a significant turn for the worse in recent months. This article, the third in a three-part series, looks at how US President Donald Trump, Taiwan and war in the Middle East factor into their relationship. Read the second part here. As Chinese President Xi Jinping is set to host regional leaders for the Apec summit later this year, observers are closely watching whether the summit could...

- If the Iran war takes oil above US\$120 a barrel, how bad could the shock get? (2026-03-19 12:00)

With the US-Israel war on Iran entering its third week, the world faces the risk of a more severe oil shock as military strikes expand to major energy infrastructure, heightening fears of a prolonged conflict. In this explainer, the South China Morning Post examines the latest developments and factors driving oil price volatility and assesses the potential impact on the global economy. Energy infrastructure: what is the latest? An Israeli air strike hit energy facilities on Wednesday at Iran’s s...

- Recession fears grip markets as energy facilities come under fire in Middle East (2026-03-19 11:30)

A recession mindset took hold among global investors after strikes on energy infrastructure in the Middle East heightened fears that disruption to production and distribution would keep oil prices elevated for longer, darkening the global economic outlook. Crude prices staged a comeback on Thursday after Iran attacked a liquefied petroleum gas site in Qatar in retaliation for Israel's strikes on its South Pars gas field. Brent futures surged 5.5 per cent to US$113.53 a barrel in London, and...

- Filipino jeepney drivers struggle as oil prices surge: 'what we earn goes to diesel' (2026-03-19 11:24)

The ripple effects of the war in the Middle East are hitting home hard for Filipino jeepney driver Toni Prado, whose daily earnings have been gutted by soaring fuel prices. He was one of thousands of jeepney drivers who took to the streets across the country on Thursday to protest a more than doubling of local diesel prices after global oil prices surged because of the US-Israel war on Iran. "We are losing our income. What we earn just goes to paying for diesel," said Prado. "Before I could..."

- SFC prepares to inspect Hong Kong IPO listing sponsors amid quality concerns (2026-03-19 11:00)

Hong Kong's market regulator will soon begin inspection of investment banks to assess their roles as sponsors of listing candidates, in its latest effort to uphold the quality of new listings amid a booming market. The Securities and Futures Commission (SFC) said the inspection would focus on whether banks had complied with its January circular, which outlined expectations on staffing and quality controls when handling initial public offerings (IPOs) in Hong Kong. For example, the SFC expected...

- Gen Z Filipinos lead collapse in support for Duterte ICC case (2026-03-19 10:30)

Growing disinformation in the Philippines and distrust in authorities could have led to a sharp drop in public support, particularly among Gen Z Filipinos, for the International Criminal Court's (ICC) proceedings against former president Rodrigo Duterte and his deadly war on drugs. Only 32 per cent of Filipino respondents of different age groups approved the ICC's move to prosecute Duterte in April last year, a month after he was arrested and flown to The Hague, according to a survey by WR...

- Shanghai certifies 30 overseas offices amid China's investment sales pitch (2026-03-19 10:30)

Shanghai certified 30 new regional headquarters of multinational corporations and 15 research and development centres funded by overseas entities on Wednesday – a sign of continued interest in the Chinese financial hub despite an overall decline in the country's foreign direct investment (FDI). Of the companies whose headquarters and R&D centres were certified this week in a ceremony hosted by the city's mayor, Gong Zheng, eight are on the Fortune 500 list, according to a statement from the...

- EU inspects Druzhba pipeline in bid to unclog Hungary's block on Ukraine aid (2026-03-19 10:26)

European Union experts have arrived in Ukraine to assess the condition of the Druzhba oil pipeline, state energy firm Naftogaz said, after its closure in January caused a row with Hungary that is blocking an EU loan to Kyiv. The EU last week proposed sending a mission to inspect the pipeline. Ukraine later said it had accepted the EU offer of technical support and funding to restore oil flows through the damaged pipeline. Hungary and Slovakia have been cut off from Russian oil deliveries via...

- A troubled US aircraft carrier is moving away from Iran. Does it reflect bigger problems? (2026-03-19 10:00)

Recent mishaps involving the USS Gerald R. Ford suggest America's military is overstretched and its industrial base has been weakened, according to Chinese analysts. The warship – the world's most advanced nuclear-powered aircraft carrier – has been supporting the US operation against Iran in the Red Sea. But US media reported this week that it would head to Greece for repairs after a 30-hour fire last Thursday destroyed more than 600 sailors' berths. That followed reports in January of plumbing...

- Swallowing pieces of silk, eating cacti or just 1 meal a day – all in pursuit of thinness in ancient China (2026-03-19 10:00)

Long before calorie counting and healthy diets, women in ancient China were already under intense pressure to stay slim, even swallowing cacti or silk in pursuit of what was perceived as perfection. Many assume ancient Chinese women prized fuller figures, but the reality was more nuanced. The Tang dynasty (618–907) is often cited as the classic example, thanks in part to figures such as the female sovereign Wu Zetian and the consort Yang Yuhuan. Yet plumpness was never the sole ideal. In most...

- Tribute to towering jurist: how the late Sir Anthony Mason shaped Hong Kong courts (2026-03-19 09:49)

Sir Anthony Mason, one of Hong Kong's first and greatest justices to sit on our Court of Final Appeal, passed away on Tuesday at the age of 100. Not only was he a towering jurist in the common law world, but his contribution to Hong Kong's legal system, particularly in its formative post-1997 years, was both profound and enduring. Sir Anthony served on the High Court of Australia for 23 years, with the final eight years (1987 to 1995) as its chief justice. He was perhaps best known to the Hong...

- Blooming marvellous: Tokyo's cherry blossom season officially begins (2026-03-19 09:46)

Tokyo's meteorologists declared the start of the much-loved cherry blossom season in the Japanese capital on Thursday, as residents prepare to host outdoor picnics under dazzling floral displays. The cherry season for Tokyo starts when the official sample tree at Yasukuni Shrine opens at least five flowers. “Today, the blooming of the Somei Yoshino cherry blossoms was observed,” the Tokyo Regional Headquarters of the Japan Meteorological Agency (JMA) said in an eagerly awaited statement,...

- Hong Kong’s CK Hutchison reports 7% gain in underlying profit amid ‘unforeseen challenges’ (2026-03-19 09:32)

CK Hutchison Holdings, one of the flagship companies owned by Hong Kong billionaire Li Ka-shing’s family, reported a 7 per cent increase in underlying profit for 2025, as the company predicted its businesses would face “new and perhaps unforeseen challenges” in 2026. The ports-to-telecoms conglomerate said on Thursday that underlying profit reached HK$22.3 billion (US$2.85 billion) last year, compared with HK$20.8 billion a year earlier. Including a one-time accounting loss, net profit fell...

- Iran war prompts global energy rethink that favours China (2026-03-19 09:19)

Oil prices surged about 10 per cent and Chinese stocks fell on Thursday as widening conflict in the Middle East created new concerns about global energy supplies. Brent crude, the global benchmark, touched US$117 a barrel, having risen 60 per cent since the US and Israel first attacked Iran on February 28. Hong Kong’s Hang Seng Index and the mainland CSI 300 both fell about 2 per cent. Prices of crude oil and gas jumped after Israel bombed Iran’s huge South Pars gas field and Iran responded by...

- Taiwan leader William Lai ‘glorifying Japanese colonial rule’, Beijing says (2026-03-19 09:17)

Beijing has accused Taiwanese leader William Lai Ching-te of “glorifying Japanese colonial rule” in a recent speech. The People’s Liberation Army also stepped up the number of sorties by aircraft around the island after Lai made the comments on Saturday at an event to mark the 30th anniversary of Taiwan’s first direct elections. Lai, from the independence-leaning Democratic Progressive Party, told the event that the early days of Kuomintang (KMT) rule over Taiwan under Chiang Kai-shek were...

- Philippines urged to ‘seriously’ address defence gaps to counter aerial threats (2026-03-19 09:17)

As war rages in the Middle East thousands of miles from the Philippines, a senior military official has urged Manila to reflect on its own vulnerabilities, stressing that military modernisation should not be mere “lip service”. Defence Secretary Gilberto Teodoro Jrn earlier this week called on the country to strengthen its air defences, particularly systems capable of intercepting missiles from hostile states, stressing that Manila should ensure its security suppliers meet demand in the...

- Operator killed as tower crane collapses at Hong Kong construction site (2026-03-19 09:15)

A tower crane collapsed at a construction site for a public housing project in Hong Kong's Kwai Chung on Thursday afternoon, killing the operator and damaging a truck. The contractor involved, Woon Lee Construction, was previously fined by authorities over two fatal incidents at its sites in 2009 and 2011. The accident occurred at 4.27pm at the construction site for the public housing project Tai Wo Hau Road phases 1 and 2 near Pik Kwai House at Kwai Chung Estate. The 62-year-old male operator,...

- Singapore-headquartered GLP eyes 50% rent surge as China demand fuels logistics growth (2026-03-19 09:00)

GLP, a global operator and investor in logistics, digital infrastructure, renewable energy and finance, is deepening its commitment to China's growth, projecting as much as a 50 per cent rise in logistics rental rates, supported by stronger domestic consumption and wider adoption of alternative energies. Angela Zhao, CEO of GLP China, said the country's 15th five-year development plan for 2026 to 2030 would further cement the company's role as a global thematic investor in "new economy" ...

- China is weathering the Iran war oil shock better than others in Asia (2026-03-19 08:30)

As the war in Iran rages and the consequences of the shock to commodity markets become clearer, the vulnerability of Asia's economies tops the list of concerns in the research reports of investment banks. The region's reliance on energy imports from the Gulf has come under scrutiny. The facts speak for themselves. Three-quarters of the oil supplies that passed through the Strait of Hormuz before Iran effectively closed the waterway were destined for China, India, Japan and South Korea. While...

- Kremlin says Ukraine peace talks on 'situational pause' amid Iran war (2026-03-19 08:27)

Peace talks between the United States, Russia and Ukraine on ending the Ukraine war, the deadliest European conflict since World War II, were on a "situational pause", the Kremlin said on Thursday. Moscow's statement followed a report by Russia's Izvestia newspaper that the Iran war had temporarily halted negotiations between Moscow, Washington and Kyiv. Kremlin spokesman Dmitry Peskov said Russia hoped the pause would end and another round of negotiations can be held. US President...

- China's youth unemployment falls for sixth consecutive month in February (2026-03-19 07:57)

China's urban youth unemployment rate fell in February for the sixth consecutive month, though the marginal improvement provides little reprieve for jobseekers in a challenging post-holiday labour market. The jobless rate for the 16-to-24 age group, excluding students, edged down to 16.1 per cent in February from 16.3 per cent in January, according to data released by the National Bureau of Statistics on Thursday. The figure has been gradually declining since August, when a record 12.2 million...

- China presses EV makers to end price war and focus on innovation as demand cools (2026-03-19 07:50)

Chinese authorities have renewed their push for stricter oversight of the electric vehicle (EV) market, urging carmakers to move away from aggressive discounting and focus instead on technological innovation. The directive comes as domestic manufacturers struggle with cooling demand and the phasing out of long-standing government subsidies. At a high-level meeting on March 17, the Ministry of Industry and Information Technology, the National Development and Reform Commission and the State...

- Hongkongers on BN\(O\) pathway won't face tougher English test, UK confirms (2026-03-19 07:21)

The UK government has confirmed that stricter English language requirements for immigrants announced earlier this month will not apply to Hongkongers using the British National (Overseas) visa pathway. The clarification from Minister for Migration and Citizenship Mike Tapp came after more than 30 members of parliament sent a letter to the Home Office last month urging it to maintain the existing English threshold for BN(O) applicants. “The increase in the English language requirement in the...

- Hundreds die crossing Mediterranean as 2026 already smashes records (2026-03-19 07:07)

The first two months of 2026 saw a record number of migrant deaths in the Mediterranean, despite fewer crossing attempts towards Europe, according to data from the International Organization for Migration (IOM). At least 655 people died or went missing in January and February - more than double the 287 recorded for the same period last year. NGOs and researchers said the reasons were multiple: storms, complications for rescue operations and border closures. Frontex, the EU's border control...

- PM Anutin takes charge in Thailand as Mideast chaos pressures economy (2026-03-19 06:16)

Anutin Charnvirakul sailed through a lower house vote on Thursday to become Thailand's new prime minister, as the conservative establishment emerges on top after years of bitter struggle with pro-democrats. But Anutin's vow to reset from years of slumping growth and political crisis has been complicated by the US-Israeli war on Iran, which is costing Thailand tens of millions of dollars each day to prop up fuel prices, with ominous queues forming at petrol stations. Addressing lawmakers before...

- Funeral urns stolen for ransom in Malaysia trigger police hunt for cross-border gang (2026-03-19 06:10)

Malaysian police are on a hunt for thieves who stole 30 urns from a funeral home in the southern state of Negeri Sembilan, in a bizarre case with possible links to a cross-border criminal group holding the ashes of deceased for ransom. The Xiao En memorial park reported the incident in late February, when it discovered that at least 15 urns had gone missing from a columbarium. Police later revised the figure to 30. The cemetery groundsmen received a WhatsApp call from a foreign-registered number...

- South Korean cafe's US\$1.35 'toilet without ordering' menu flush with criticism (2026-03-19 06:00)

A social media post showing a cafe charging 2,000 won (US$1.35) for restroom use without a purchase has sparked heated debate online in South Korea. The image featured a screenshot of a self-order kiosk displaying a menu item reading "restroom use without ordering", priced at 2,000 won per person per visit. The post also drew mixed reactions in an online community for small business owners. One user said the fee was understandable, writing that many people come in just to use the restroom...

- Leading Chinese remote-sensing scientist Zhang Jinshui dies at 47 (2026-03-19 06:00)

Zhang Jinshui, a pioneering scientist in remote sensing who led major R&D programmes in China and was instrumental in enhancing the country's food security with satellite technologies, has died at the age of 47. Zhang, a professor and doctoral supervisor in the faculty of geographical science at Beijing Normal University, died in Beijing on March 9 following "unsuccessful medical treatment", according to multiple mainland media reports. Last Wednesday the research institute where he had been...

- China café offers coffee made with eggs brewed in child urine; considered nutritious delicacy (2026-03-19 06:00)

A coffee shop in China is offering a new type of Americano which includes eggs brewed in child urine, a drink believed to be of nutritional value. The shop in Dongyang city in eastern China's Zhejiang province recently began to offer the special brew, claiming it was popular. Costing 28 yuan (US$4) per cup, the outlet sold more than 100 cups a day at weekends. Eggs brewed in child urine are a speciality in Dongyang. Locals believe that child urine, or urine from boys under the age of 10, can...

- Prolonged Iran war could have 'serious' impact on food prices, says UN's FAO (2026-03-19 06:00)

The United Nations has warned the conflict in the Middle East is sending shock waves from the fertiliser industry to food prices, as countries across the northern hemisphere – including China – enter their spring planting seasons. If the conflict lasts longer than three months, the impact would become “significantly more serious”, affecting input costs in agriculture and disrupting the next planting season with longer-term consequences, chief economist of the Food and Agriculture Organization of...

- Cambodia boosts fuel imports from Singapore, Malaysia amid petrol station closures (2026-03-19 04:55)

Cambodia is importing more fuel from suppliers in Singapore and Malaysia to make up for supply shortfalls from Vietnam and China, its energy minister said on Wednesday, as the US-Israeli war on Iran squeezes fuel availability globally. About a third of the 6,300 petrol stations in the country of nearly 18 million people closed last week due to uncertainty over the impact of the conflict on fuel prices, but only 5.77 per cent are closed currently, Energy Minister Keo Rottanak said. Vietnam and...

- Hong Kong businessman Jason Poon, 5 others arrested in HK\$6 million fraud case (2026-03-19 04:28)

Hong Kong businessman Jason Poon Cheuk-hung, his wife and four others have been arrested on suspicion of defrauding an enterprise financing scheme out of HK$6 million (US$765,500) during the Covid-19 pandemic, the South China Morning Post has learned. A source confirmed to the SCMP on Thursday that construction businessman Poon, 56, and his 54-year-old wife were among six people arrested the day before for conspiracy to defraud. Police intelligence suggested a surgical mask manufacturer had...

- Philippine police thwart Roblox-linked school shooting plot by 7 teens (2026-03-19 04:22)

Philippine police have foiled a school shooting and rescued seven students radicalised by “foreigners” online to stage an attack in Laguna province near Manila, as calls grow to enhance parental safeguards against digital threats. Officers rounded up the suspects – five boys and two girls, aged 12 to 17 – on February 2 after receiving a tip-off about the alleged plot they intended to carry out a fortnight later, the Philippine Star reported. The teens, who were turned over to social workers,...

- Why tiny atomic clocks may hold the key to China mass-producing cheap swarm drones (2026-03-19 04:00)

Timing is everything in modern warfare, where even a nanosecond’s delay can make the difference between hitting or missing a target in a coordinated drone or missile attack. China may now have taken a major step forward in this field with the mass production of the world’s smallest atomic clock – something the researchers behind it say could transform drone warfare, underwater navigation and battlefield communication. Developed by a research team led by Professor Chen Jiehua from Wuhan...

- AI version of late actor Val Kilmer to co-star in new movie (2026-03-19 03:30)

Actor Val Kilmer will posthumously appear in what First Line Films calls a first-ever performance enabled by generative artificial intelligence in the upcoming film As Deep as the Grave, the production company announced on Wednesday. Kilmer, best known for roles in Top Gun, The Doors and Batman Forever, had originally been cast as Father Fintan - a Catholic priest and Native American spiritualist - but was unable to work on set due to complications stemming from throat cancer. He was 65 when...

- FBI ‘investigating’ top US security official who resigned over Iran war (2026-03-19 03:04)

The FBI is investigating whether Joe Kent, who resigned his position as a top counterterrorism official this week in protest of the Iran war, improperly shared classified information, a person familiar with the matter said Wednesday. The investigation precedes Kent’s resignation Tuesday from his role as director of the US government’s National Counterterrorism Centre, said the person, who spoke on condition of anonymity to discuss an ongoing FBI inquiry. But it comes as the Justice Department...

- Japan gets tough against teachers’ sexual misconduct, voyeurism after arrests (2026-03-19 03:00)

Japan’s education ministry has launched a campaign to fight sexual misconduct involving teachers and revised regulations against voyeurism in the wake of seven male educators arrested last year for taking inappropriate videos of students and sharing them on social media. A law aimed at preventing sexual misconduct in the nation’s schools went into effect in 2022, but revisions were introduced as a result of the offences. The ministry intends to update teachers on the rules, including dismissal...

- ‘Unprecedented in spread’ : UK races to contain deadly meningitis outbreak (2026-03-19 02:38)

Britain will roll out meningitis vaccines to students at a university in southeast England after an “unprecedented” outbreak of the disease killed two people while the number of new cases jumped to 20. The UK Health Security Agency said all those affected were young people. A 21-year-old student at the University of Kent and a teenage student at a school in the town of Faversham have died. Six of the nine confirmed cases are group B (MenB), the agency added. It was also aware of a baby with a...

- World’s ‘happiest’ places revealed as social media weighs on us (2026-03-19 02:17)

Heavy social media use contributes to a stark decline in well-being among young people, with the effects particularly worrying in teenage girls in English-speaking countries and western Europe according to the World Happiness Report 2026 published on Thursday. The annual report, published by the Wellbeing Research Centre at the University of Oxford, also found that Finland is the happiest land in the world for the ninth year in a row, with other Nordic countries such as Iceland, Denmark, Sweden...

- How China opened the door to creating a direct rival to US payment systems (2026-03-19 02:00)

China's recent changes to the rules governing its global payment system could pave the way for turning it into a genuine alternative to Western networks, according to a new report. Beijing now appears to be moving towards building the Cross-border Interbank Payment System (CIPS) into a global platform compliant with multicurrency settlements and other foreign payment channels, said the study led by Ju Jiandong, a chair professor at Tsinghua University's PBC School of Finance. Beijing recently...

- Middle East banks eye Hong Kong as 'safe haven' amid Iran threats, InvestHK head says (2026-03-19 01:30)

Middle East banks and wealthy investors are poised to increase their investments in Hong Kong amid geopolitical tensions to diversify their risk and capture growing opportunities in Asia, according to the head of InvestHK, the government agency tasked with attracting foreign investment. A couple of Middle East banks were in the process of setting up offices in Hong Kong with the help of InvestHK, said Alpha Lau Hai-suen, its director general. These additions would strengthen the city's ties with...

- Why North Korea's Kim expects the US to come 'cap in hand' for Trump talks (2026-03-19 01:30)

North Korea fired a volley of ballistic missiles on Saturday, just as US officials were in Seoul exploring ways to reopen talks with the regime that launched them. But Kim Jong-un is not waiting by the phone. Instead, analysts say North Korea's supreme leader has set terms that leave little room for negotiation, with a calendar that leaves even less room for a summit. US Assistant Secretary of State for East Asian and Pacific Affairs Michael DeSombre touched down in Seoul last week and met Jeong...

- Here's what an executive-led government really means in Hong Kong (2026-03-19 01:30)

In my experience, most people misunderstand the concept of "separation of powers", and so I would not be at all surprised if most people also misunderstand the term "executive-led government". In the case of separation of powers, the confusion usually arises from the use of the word "separation". It connotes a meaning of absolute independence or alienation. A better word would have been "division". The concept of separation of powers focuses on the division of power in a government and how that...

(2026-03-19 01:00)

A man in China who had a 12cm-long metal chopstick lodged in his throat for eight years recently had surgery to remove the object. The man, surnamed Wang, underwent the surgery at Dalian Municipal Central Hospital in northeastern Liaoning province in early March. His experience has shocked internet users, the Daxiang News reported. Eight years ago, Wang swallowed the chopstick by accident while eating and drinking alcohol. At the time he felt pain but did not have any breathing problems. When...

- Call for review over how Hong Kong manages wild boars and buffaloes (2026-03-19 00:30)

Animal rights groups have urged Hong Kong authorities to review their culling strategy for wild boars and to install animal bridges and other measures to reduce human-wildlife conflict in urban areas after incidents involving wild boars and a buffalo. They warned that as urban expansion, particularly the Northern Metropolis project, cleared large tracts of land and further eroded wildlife habitat, poor city planning would worsen the situation, endangering more animals. On Tuesday, authorities...

- Russian hypersonic jets buzz Japan's coast in 'thinly veiled threat' (2026-03-19 00:00)

Russia's defence ministry has released footage of its fighter jets carrying Kinzhal hypersonic missiles conducting exercises over the Sea of Japan, or East Sea, with the move interpreted as a message to Japanese Prime Minister Sanae Takaichi ahead of her talks with US President Donald Trump in Washington. The video shows a MiG-31 with a Kinzhal missile slung beneath its fuselage, with the ministry saying the aircraft was one of several that carried out manoeuvres off Japan's northern coast....

- Pop Mart's Labubu headed to big screen in collaboration with Sony Pictures (2026-03-19 00:00)

Chinese toymaker Pop Mart and Sony Pictures Entertainment announced on Thursday a feature film starring Labubu, the company's most popular character. Analysts said the film was a strategic move to extend Labubu's intellectual property (IP) value and support medium-term growth, following the trajectory of global icons like Barbie and Hello Kitty. The film, still in early development, would be a mix of live action and computer-generated imagery, Pop Mart said in a statement. Lung Ka-sing, the...

- Mexico invites Spain's king to World Cup in sign of thaw (2026-03-18 23:34)

Spain's King Felipe VI has been invited to the 2026 World Cup in Mexico by President Claudia Sheinbaum, the royal palace said on Wednesday, signalling a thaw in relations between the two countries. Diplomatic relations have been strained since 2019, when the Mexican government demanded that the Spanish crown apologise for the abuses committed during the conquest and subsequent colonisation of the Americas in the 16th century. Sheinbaum excluded the king from her inauguration in October 2024...

- Hong Kong follows Federal Reserve to keep base rate unchanged amid Middle East war (2026-03-18 23:16)

Hong Kong's monetary authority kept its base rate unchanged after a similar move by the US Federal Reserve, as analysts said that the Middle East conflict has added to the uncertainty over the pace of rate cuts this year. The Hong Kong Monetary Authority (HKMA) maintained the city's base rate at 4 per cent on Thursday. Hours earlier, the Fed also kept its target rate in the range of 3.5 per cent to 3.75 per cent, after the second meeting of the Federal Open Market Committee (FOMC) this...

- Why Beijing has struggled to rally Asia against Japan over Takaichi's Taiwan remarks (2026-03-18 22:00)

China and Japan's long-standing rivalry has deep historic roots, and relations between the two have taken a significant turn for the worse in recent months. This, the second in a three-part series, looks at whether Beijing overplayed its hand on the Taiwan issue in the face of what is a 'strategic reality' for Japan and how it may leverage its history of Japanese aggression. Find the first part here. More than four months into the bitter chill that has settled over China-Japan relations, the...

- Fears grow over US drug supply's rising dependence on Chinese ingredients (2026-03-18 21:33)

Beijing's global pharmaceutical push is following a playbook seen in rare earths, semiconductors and electric vehicles, US lawmakers said on Wednesday, as concerns grow over the United States' reliance on Chinese drug ingredients. "China is cornering the market on our medicines – from the supply of generic drugs that Americans depend on every day, to the cutting-edge biotech pipeline that will determine who leads medicine in the years and decades ahead," said John Moolenaar, the chair of the...

- Europe says no to Trump's Iran demands: 'not our war' (2026-03-18 20:12)

When US President Donald Trump asked countries to join a global effort against Iran and deploy ships to prise open the Strait of Hormuz, whose near closure has held the global economy in a vice, he was rebuffed by some of America's closest allies. Using unusually blunt language, German Chancellor Friedrich Merz told his country's lawmakers on Wednesday that he agreed Iran must not be allowed to pose a threat to its neighbours but expressed doubts about the rationale behind the US-Israeli...

- Iran can still attack US interests, government appears intact, spy chief Gabbard says (2026-03-18 19:34)

Iran's government has been degraded since the war began on February 28, but it appears to be intact and Tehran and its proxies remain capable of attacking US and allies' interests in the Middle East, US Director of National Intelligence Tulsi Gabbard said on Wednesday. "The regime in Iran appears to be intact but largely degraded by Operation Epic Fury," Gabbard said, referring to the US-Israel military campaign against Iran, in her opening statement to the Senate Intelligence Committee's...

- US Fed defies Trump to keep interest rates unchanged amid Iran war concerns (2026-03-18 18:52)

The US Federal Reserve kept interest rates unchanged on Wednesday as expected, in defiance of President Donald Trump as the world's largest economy battles stubborn inflation, weak labour demand and an "uncertain" outlook due to the war in Iran. The Fed's 11-1 vote kept rates steady at a range between 3.50 per cent and 3.75 per cent, with officials flagging one expected rate cut by the end of the year. "The implications of developments in the Middle East for the US economy are uncertain," the...

- US says mainland China not planning to attack Taiwan in 2027 after threat assessment (2026-03-18 18:12)

Beijing is unlikely to attack Taiwan next year, given security and economic deterrents, including its belief that an amphibious assault could fail and that the technological, supply chain and investor costs would be huge, according to a US threat assessment released on Wednesday. The intelligence overview appeared to walk back a projection by the Pentagon last year that Beijing wanted to take the self-governing island by force as early as 2027 and comes as US President Donald Trump takes a more...

- Iran threatens Gulf energy targets after Pars gas field struck, sending oil prices higher
(2026-03-18 17:03)

Iran's huge Pars gas field was hit on Wednesday in the first reported strikes on Iran's Gulf energy infrastructure of the US-Israeli war, prompting Tehran to announce it would respond with attacks on oil and gas targets throughout the Gulf. Oil prices shot up after the attack, a major escalation in a war that has already halted shipping from the world's most important energy-producing region and could now bring lasting damage to its infrastructure. Benchmark Brent crude prices rose around 5...

- Trump allows foreign ships between domestic ports to stabilise petrol costs amid Iran war
(2026-03-18 16:25)

US President Donald Trump has announced a temporary 60-day suspension of the Jones Act, the century-old law that mandates cargo moving between domestic ports be transported on vessels built, operated and staffed by American citizens or permanent residents. The move comes in response to the blockade of the Strait of Hormuz – a key chokepoint – amid the escalating US-Israeli war against Iran, which has triggered the most severe global oil supply disruption in recent history. The waiver allows...

- Pakistan to pause Afghan strikes for Eid at request of Saudi Arabia, Qatar, Turkey
(2026-03-18 15:39)

Pakistan announced on Wednesday a pause in strikes against Afghanistan, saying the decision was made ahead of the Muslim holiday of Eid al-Fitr at the request of Saudi Arabia, Qatar and Turkey. In a statement, Pakistan's information minister Attaullah Tarar said the pause in strikes on "terrorists and their support infrastructure in Afghanistan" would take effect at midnight on Wednesday and remain in place until midnight on Monday. "Pakistan offers this gesture in good faith and in keeping with...

- 2 Hongkongers held after raids on 3 illegal fuel stations amid oil price spike (2026-03-18 15:19)

Hong Kong authorities have raided three illegal fuelling stations and arrested two men, seizing more than 1,800 litres (475.5 gallons) of petrol with an estimated market value of HK$54,000 (US$6,891) as oil prices continue to spike amid the widening conflict in the Middle East. The joint crackdown by the Fire Services Department and the Customs and Excise Department in the past week also led to the detention of three vehicles and the arrest of a suspected station operator and...

- Chaos over Donald Trump's China trip likely to further test Beijing's patience with US
(2026-03-18 15:00)

Visits to China by foreign leaders are tightly choreographed and meticulously planned affairs, even by the usual standards of international diplomacy. But the chaotic nature of Donald Trump's White House and his request to delay a planned visit to China in the wake of his decision to attack Iran are widely believed to be causing increasing frustration in Beijing. The South China Morning Post has previously reported that preparations for the visit had been dogged by problems, with the Chinese...

- Hong Kong securities watchdog urges stock exchange to tighten listing, compliance rules (2026-03-18 14:50)

Hong Kong's securities regulator on Wednesday recommended strengthening the stock exchange's regulations to better protect investors following a review of 2024 compliance and enforcement cases. The Securities and Futures Commission (SFC) submitted its findings after vetting listed companies' internal control reviews, their handling of late auditor resignations and the processes of the Hong Kong stock exchange's listing division. The regulator noted that while the stock exchange "had taken steps...

- Zelensky urges EU to bypass Hungary's 'blackmail' veto on vital US\$103 billion loan (2026-03-18 14:35)

Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky on Wednesday urged the European Union to overcome a veto by Hungary on a €90 billion (US$103 billion) loan vital for his country. Zelensky, during a visit to Madrid to meet Spanish Prime Minister Pedro Sanchez, said he considered that the "main issue" of an EU summit to be held Thursday and Friday in Brussels. "We are really counting on the countries and the EU to find ways to resolve this issue," he said. Hungary's Prime Minister Viktor Orban – Russian...

- Why tariffs aren't the biggest factor holding back US-Asean trade (2026-03-18 14:30)

When the Trump administration rolled out sweeping tariffs on "Liberation Day" in April 2025, the reaction across Southeast Asia was swift: markets dipped, supply chains scrambled and governments went into damage control. Governments had a choice: retaliate or negotiate. They negotiated. Southeast Asian countries including Indonesia, Malaysia and Cambodia have signed Agreements on Reciprocal Trade with the United States. Those deals lowered tariffs from their peak levels and opened market access...

- Red Sea fix? China-bound oil tankers tap Saudi plan to bypass Strait of Hormuz (2026-03-18 14:00)

Saudi Arabia is activating its Red Sea "Plan B" to divert crude via the port of Yanbu, allowing tankers – including Chinese very large crude carriers (VLCCs) – to bypass the Strait of Hormuz, though analysts warn the route has limited capacity. The move comes after Iran effectively closed the strait in response to United States and Israeli military strikes, a conflict now in its third week that has rattled global energy markets. New Vista, a VLCC owned by China Merchants Energy Shipping, had...

- Iranian women footballers return home after withdrawing Australia asylum bids

The Iranian women's soccer team crossed the Turkish border into Iran on Wednesday to complete a fraught return journey from Australia, after five members withdrew asylum claims they had lodged there. Australia had granted humanitarian visas to six players and one support staff member after they sought asylum, saying they feared possible persecution if they returned to Iran. Concerns over their safety surfaced when several players failed to sing the national anthem at a women's Asian Cup match...

- Chinese experts assess military decapitation in Iran, Venezuela for lessons closer to home

(2026-03-18 13:37)

Iran's power structure, succession mechanism and geographic conditions are all factors in its military resilience, despite the decapitation of its leadership by the US and Israel, according to Chinese experts. They also said the United States was unlikely to achieve regime change in Iran without deploying ground forces, a lesson one expert argued Beijing would take into account for any operation on Taiwan. Beginning on February 28, the US and Israel have killed a string of senior Iranian...

- Hong Kong campsite operator who murdered 'alien' girlfriend jailed for life

(2026-03-18 13:20)

A Hong Kong campsite operator has been convicted of murdering his live-in girlfriend and sentenced to life imprisonment after telling police he believed she was an alien, with the judge describing the killing as a "vicious, brutal and savage attack and murder". A High Court jury of four men and three women on Wednesday unanimously found Tang Lung-fai, 56, guilty of causing the death of Fok Sin-yee, 38, who was also known as Maggie, on or about April 14, 2022. Madam Justice Susana D'Almada...

- Hong Kong to establish global version of university entrance exam on pilot basis

Hong Kong's education authorities plan to establish an "internationally benchmarked" version of the city's university entrance exam on a pilot basis to allow foreign students to apply for admission to higher education institutions both locally and in mainland China. They revealed that technical explorations and studies with relevant bodies on developing the international version of the Diploma of Secondary Education (DSE) exam were under way. Secretary for Education Christine Choi Yuk-lin said...

- Pakistan's fuel smugglers squeezed by rising costs as Iran war hits supply (2026-03-18 12:45)

In Pakistan's southwestern mountains, pickup trucks loaded with plastic cans of fuel smuggled from Iran line dusty roads as youngsters unload the containers, fill smaller cans and strap them onto motorbikes to supply nearby markets. The illicit trade has long thrived in the region but is feeling the knock-on effects of the war which has engulfed the Middle East following US-Israeli strikes on Iran. Supplies coming across the 900km (560-mile) border between Pakistan and Iran have dropped by...

- China-based Cosco Shipping Ports expects ‘limited’ impact from Iran conflict (2026-03-18 12:31)

Cosco Shipping Ports, a unit of state-owned giant Cosco Shipping, reported modest earnings growth for 2025, as management expects to expand in emerging markets amid rising geopolitical risks to global trade. Net profit rose 1.1 per cent to US$312.1 million, and revenue increased 11 per cent to US$1.67 billion, according to its 2025 results. Total container throughput climbed 6.2 per cent to 153 million twenty-foot equivalent units (TEUs). The company’s overseas terminals saw strong growth, with...

- US hawks are wrong: China’s rise in science benefits America too (2026-03-18 12:30)

As Chinese science makes great strides, some US China hawks have been sounding the alarm. In their view, Chinese scientific progress is a significant national security threat to the United States, as it signals the relative decline of US scientific dominance and potentially creates dependence on China. In one extreme case of this view, Leland Miller, a senior consultant for the US-China Economic and Security Review Commission, declared in a recent interview that China discovering a cure for...

- Hong Kong more attractive to talent amid Middle East tensions, labour chief says (2026-03-18 12:24)

Hong Kong’s labour chief has said geopolitical tensions in the Middle East have made the city, with its relative security and stability, “a more attractive place” for global talent, including those from Gulf countries. Secretary for Labour and Welfare Chris Sun Yuk-han also highlighted the government’s efforts in recent years to attract talent, dismissing concerns that most successful applicants under its schemes were from mainland China. He said that about a fourth of imported workers from...

- Chinese military set for EU and Nato talks as Iran war reshapes global security picture (2026-03-18 12:22)

A delegation from China’s People’s Liberation Army will travel to Brussels next week for talks with the European Union and Nato amid heightened concerns over global security caused by the war in Iran. The EU-China Security and Defence Consultations will take place next Tuesday, official sources confirmed, with the talks between Nato and the PLA’s Office for International Military Cooperation scheduled for the same week. On the EU side, the talks will be chaired by Benedikta von Seherr-Thoss,...

- Former Hong Kong lawmaker denies abetting criminal activity in mainland China (2026-03-18 12:00)

A former Hong Kong lawmaker on trial for allegedly inciting subversion has denied abetting criminal activity by supporting mainland Chinese dissidents, accusing Beijing of levelling false charges against them. Prosecutors on Wednesday challenged Lee Cheuk-yan's claim that he had no intention to incite others to overthrow the mainland's communist rule when he called for an end to "one-party dictatorship" as former chairman of the now-disbanded Hong Kong Alliance in Support of Patriotic Democratic...

- As Trump ramps up pressure on Cuba, China has 'very limited options' (2026-03-18 12:00)

As Washington steps up rhetoric and pressure on Cuba after its campaign in Iran, Beijing finds itself torn between geopolitical reality and ideological affinity. According to analysts, Beijing has few good options to counter US hegemony in Washington's own backyard, and its response is likely to be constrained to diplomatic opposition and modest humanitarian aid. They said any disruption to global stability ultimately harmed Beijing's interests and did not see prolonged US military action...

- Hong Kong customs seizes nearly 1,000 smuggled turtles worth HK\$1 million (2026-03-18 11:45)

Hong Kong customs officers have seized 986 smuggled live turtles worth about HK$1 million (US$127,620) from a private car attempting to leave the city, arresting the driver and a passenger. Officers discovered the turtles hidden in seven black plastic bags in the vehicle's boot at the Hong Kong-Zhuhai-Macau Bridge control point on Tuesday. A 42-year-old driver and a 50-year-old passenger were arrested, a spokesman of Hong Kong Customs and Excise Department said on Wednesday. Both men were...

- Hong Kong's Airport Authority to develop HK\$300 million art storage facility (2026-03-18 11:39)

Hong Kong's Airport Authority is partnering with a private company to develop a HK$300 million (US$38.28 million) art storage facility set to open next year, as the city looks to cement its position as a global hub for trading valuable works. Speaking at a contract signing ceremony on Wednesday, authority CEO Vivian Cheung Kar-fay said Hong Kong was the world's second-largest primary art trading market and a leading gateway connecting mainland China with the rest of the world. "By leveraging...

- China to help Cuba with solar energy amid US oil blockade and total power outage (2026-03-18 11:30)

China is offering solar energy to Cuba, an old ally left without power amid the US oil embargo, in a show of strength for Chinese renewable-energy credentials and a sign of Beijing's economic footprint in Latin America. Beijing's ambassador to Cuba, Hua Xin, on Monday outlined joint energy projects in progress as part of an effort to ease a "complex power situation" in the Caribbean nation, the Cuban Ministry of Foreign Affairs said. "China has always maintained that Latin America and the...

- Hong Kong Tourism Board to woo overnight big spenders, diversify visitor mix (2026-03-18 11:08)

The Hong Kong Tourism Board will allocate three-quarters of its resources to overseas markets this year in a strategic shift aimed at diversifying visitor demographics and attracting more overnight high spenders to the city. The board also revealed on Wednesday that it would launch a new global campaign by the end of April to promote Hong Kong as a unique world city through social media, advertisements on regional broadcasters and billboards in selected countries. “It is not an easy task to...

- Iranian intelligence minister Esmail Khatib ‘eliminated’ : Israel’ s Katz (2026-03-18 10:50)

Israeli Defence Minister Israel Katz said on Wednesday that the country’ s forces had killed Iran’ s intelligence minister Esmail Khatib, adding that the military was authorised to kill any high-ranking Iranian official in its sights without seeking further approval. “Last night, Iran’ s Intelligence Minister Khatib was also eliminated,” Katz said in a statement. The killing of Khatib comes soon after Israel killed Iran’ s security chief Ali Larijani, and another powerful figure, Gholam Reza...

- Hong Kong’ s jobless rate falls by 0.1 percentage point (2026-03-18 10:34)

Hong Kong’ s jobless rate dipped by 0.1 percentage point over the past three months to 3.8 per cent, with unemployment dropping in the retail, accommodation, and foundation and superstructure sectors. “The sustained growth momentum of the Hong Kong economy should continue to support the overall labour market, though employment situations in some local sectors may still face challenges due to their business performances,” Secretary for Labour and Welfare Chris Sun Yuk-han said on Wednesday. The...

- Global EV uptake expected to accelerate as Iran war causes worldwide petrol price hikes (2026-03-18 10:31)

Turbulence in the global oil market caused by the war in Iran revealed a quiet shift that could reshape global energy security: the rapid rise of electric vehicles. Global uptake of electric vehicle fleets has led to avoided oil consumption rising to the equivalent of 70 per cent of Iran’ s exports in 2025, according to a new report. Last year, EVs worldwide saved 1.7 million barrels of oil consumption per day. During the same timeframe, Iran exported 2.4 million barrels of oil through the Strait...

- US trade probes risk alienating Asean, casting doubt on future of deals (2026-03-18 10:28)

The United States’ inclusion of Southeast Asian countries among economic partners it intends to investigate for unfair trade practices is expected to push the region further from Washington’ s orbit. The probes, announced last week, could lead to new levies imposed on countries, based on allegations of forced labour and trade surpluses, even as the Donald Trump administration rails against a Supreme Court ruling that shot down sweeping tariffs imposed earlier. Seven countries from the Association...

- Iran announces first spy execution since war with Israel, US began (2026-03-18 10:16)

Iranian authorities executed a man convicted of spying for Israel, the judiciary said on Wednesday, in the first such execution announced since the war with Israel and the United States broke out. “The death sentence of a spy for the Zionist regime, who had been providing images and information about the country’s sensitive locations to Mossad officers, was carried out this morning,” the judiciary’s Mizan Online website said. Mizan identified the man as Kouroush Keyvani and said he was arrested...

- Malaysian medical tourism set to benefit from Iran war’s impact (2026-03-18 10:13)

Malaysia’s medical tourism sector could receive a boost amid the widening conflict in the Middle East as potential patients look for safer alternatives in Asia, according to a private healthcare company. Dubai, the main medical hub in the region, has been under Iranian missile and drone retaliatory attacks since the US and Israel began air strikes on the Islamic Republic on February 28. This could prompt Middle Easterners who are seeking medical treatment to travel to Southeast Asian countries...

- Ancient Chinese people sentenced to flogging could hire substitutes to endure punishment for a fee (2026-03-18 10:00)

In ancient China there was a unique and quirky profession: if someone committed a crime and was sentenced to flogging, they could hire another person to take the punishment on their behalf. During the Ming dynasty (1368–1644), flogging was a form of punishment in which court officials were publicly beaten with heavy rods. The striking end of the rod was carved into a hammer-like shape and wrapped in iron and sometimes even fitted with barbs, making the punishment extremely brutal. There were...

- Mystery projectile hits Iran nuclear power complex, highlighting war risks (2026-03-18 09:34)

The UN nuclear watchdog said on Wednesday that Iranian authorities had reported projectile impact on the grounds of the country’s only operational nuclear power plant that caused no damage. The International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) “has been informed by Iran that a projectile hit the premises of the Bushehr NPP on Tuesday evening”, the Vienna-based agency posted on social media using an acronym for nuclear power plant. “No damage to the plant or injuries to staff reported”. Agency head...

Singapore sits just one degree north of the equator, where the air rarely drops below 25 degrees Celsius (77 degrees Fahrenheit) and humidity clings year round. It is, by most measures, one of the worst places on Earth to cool a data centre. Yet the city state crams more into its small footprint than almost anywhere else. Home to more than 70 facilities and over 1.4 gigawatts of capacity, Singapore has one of the highest densities of data-centre infrastructure per capita on the planet – a...

- J-20 fighter jet designer scrubbed from Chinese Academy of Sciences website (2026-03-18 09:00)

The chief designer on the J-20 stealth fighter jet has been removed from the website of China's national research institute, amid a sweeping campaign to stamp out corruption in the defence sector. Yang Wei, 62, had been listed as a member of the Chinese Academy of Sciences, the top academic body for science and technology. But as of Monday, his name was no longer on the site, according to a snapshot from Internet Archive, which seeks to preserve online content. Yang has not appeared in public...

- Hong Kong to test new campsite booking system amid overcrowding, litter concerns (2026-03-18 08:54)

Hong Kong could introduce pilot schemes for booking campsites in the city before the National Day holiday in October, as authorities revealed that 32 people were prosecuted for offences in Sai Kung's country parks over the Chinese New Year holiday. Secretary for Environment and Ecology Tse Chin-wan told the Legislative Council on Wednesday that most of those prosecuted were non-locals charged with littering. Authorities had earlier said they were looking at implementing a booking system and...

Tencent Holdings pledged to double its investment in artificial intelligence products and models in 2026, a bigger bet from the tech giant as it gains greater confidence in the technology's capability to drive future growth across its businesses. The Shenzhen-based company dedicated 18 billion yuan (US$2.6 billion) to the development of new AI products in 2025, including 7 billion yuan in the fourth quarter alone, said Tencent president Martin Lau Chi-ping at a media briefing on Wednesday. "We...

- Australian police officer's 'perverts' remark against Indian driver sparks outrage (2026-03-18 08:50)

Distrust in Australian police among Queensland's Indian diaspora is set to deepen after an officer was caught on body camera hurling expletives at an Uber driver, leading the victim to sue the force in federal court. The officer said, "fg Indians, mate, they are a bunch of fg perverts" to a colleague in 2023, before they charged the man with committing an indecent act for allegedly masturbating in public, court records showed. A court later quashed the charges because two witnesses...

- Mainland China says Taiwan can ease Iran energy supply anxiety with peaceful reunification (2026-03-18 08:34)

Authorities in Beijing say peaceful reunification will solve Taiwan's energy supply fears sparked by the hostilities in the Middle East, emphasising that "the removal of barriers between the two sides of the [Taiwan] strait will ensure the smooth flow of resources". Chen Binhua, spokesman for Beijing's Taiwan Affairs Office, said on Wednesday that peaceful reunification would create enormous opportunities for the island's economic and social development and bring tangible benefits to the people...

- India's reopening to Chinese investment reflects strategic pragmatism (2026-03-18 08:30)

In April 2020, as the world struggled with the Covid-19 pandemic and soldiers from India and China moved towards a large-scale border stand-off, New Delhi amended its foreign direct investment (FDI) policy to require prior government approval for all investments from countries sharing a land border with India – a measure directed at China. Nearly six years on, India has changed its FDI policy again. It is a significant move for India-China relations. During the pandemic, the FDI regulation...

Former Australian chief justice Anthony Mason, who was one of the first non-permanent judges to join the Hong Kong Court of Final Appeal and oversaw many of its early key constitutional cases, has died at the age of 100. Tributes from current and former city officials poured in for the late jurist on Wednesday, just a day after he died. Mason is widely considered to have been pivotal in establishing the court's role under Hong Kong's new constitutional order following the city's return to...

- Investors eye Xi-Trump summit for direction as Hong Kong, China stocks shaken by conflict (2026-03-18 06:59)

The prospect of a meeting between President Xi Jinping and US counterpart Donald Trump has become a focal point for investors seeking some reassurance on growth and stability as the conflict in the Middle East dampens appetite for risk. Investors are awaiting clarity on the summit, viewing it as a potential sign of cooperation that could steady mainland China and Hong Kong equities. The meeting had been scheduled for the end of the month, but the White House said it would be postponed by five or...

Chinese scientists have engineered E coli bacteria into a novel cancer therapy that colonises tumours, produces an existing drug on-site and delivers it directly – reducing the toxic side effects of traditional chemotherapy. The research, performed on mice with breast cancer, paves the way for targeted cancer treatments in future, according to the scientists from Shandong University in Qingdao, eastern China. Escherichia coli (E coli) is a group of bacteria commonly found in the gut. While most...

- Jar burials: a glimpse into ancient China's compassion, funeral practices for infant deaths (2026-03-18 06:00)

One of the profound tragedies in life is the burial of the youngest among us. In Neolithic China (9,000–1,500 BC), urn burials were often designated for the deceased children and infants. While urn burials for older babies have been extensively studied, there remains little understanding of burial customs surrounding stillbirths, miscarriages, or newborns who passed shortly after birth. A new 2026 study in China revealed that by examining 16 urn burials associated with perinatal deaths from over...

- Nepal voted for change. Can its rapper-engineer PM deliver? (2026-03-18 05:40)

Nepal's prime minister-in-waiting came to power on a promise of change. Now he faces the monumental challenge of taking on a system weighed down by corruption and poor governance while meeting the towering expectations of the millions who backed him and his anti-establishment party. Balendra Shah – a rapper, engineer and former mayor of Kathmandu popularly known as Balen – handily defeated former prime minister K.P. Sharma Oli in the election on March 5, with his Rastriya Swatantra Party (RSP)...

- Hong Kong actor Gregory Wong loses appeal against 2019 Legco storming conviction
(2026-03-18 05:40)

Hong Kong actor Gregory Wong Chung-yiu has lost an appeal against his conviction and jail sentence of six years and two months for abetting a riot at the Legislative Council Complex during the 2019 anti-government protests. In a written judgment delivered on Wednesday, the Court of Appeal also dismissed the complaints by six others convicted in the high-profile case. The appellants had argued their jail terms of at least four years and 7½ months were manifestly excessive. Wong was among 14...

- Closing struggling Hong Kong schools ‘spares parents from future problems’
(2026-03-18 05:19)

Closing struggling Hong Kong schools in the short term will prevent future problems for parents, the education minister has said, warning that the city has already exhausted all mitigation measures to reduce the impact of the shrinking pupil population. Secretary for Education Christine Choi Yuk-lin said on Wednesday that the problem of under-enrolment remained unresolved despite authorities resorting to different “soft-landing” means to support the sector in response to the structural...

- Cuba’s leader vows ‘unbreakable resistance’ if US tries to take over island
(2026-03-18 05:01)

Cuba’s leader on Tuesday said the US would face “unbreakable resistance” if it tries to take over the impoverished island nation, as communist authorities scrambled to fix a nationwide electricity blackout. Cuba’s government has been under increasingly crushing pressure, with Washington enforcing an oil blockade and openly stating it wants to end the nearly seven-decade-old US stand-off with the one-party communist state. US Secretary of State Marco Rubio said Cuba’s decision announced this week...

- Delayed US-China summit raises stakes for Takaichi ahead of White House visit (2026-03-18 04:59)

Thursday’s summit between US President Donald Trump and Japanese Prime Minister Sanae Takaichi was supposed to see the two leaders sit down in advance of Trump’s meeting with Chinese leader Xi Jinping to ensure the allies were on the same page. Instead, with the US-China summit postponed and the Israel-US war on Iran going full blast, their meeting is likely to find Japan more on the defensive, according to analysts and former government officials. Takaichi will be trying to finesse shifting...

- The US\$460 cake testing Malaysia’s sweet tooth and wallet: ‘even sultan would think twice’ (2026-03-18 04:34)

A bakery in Malaysia's Sarawak state has set tongues wagging with its premium cake offerings sold at eye-watering prices, as Muslims countrywide this week stock up on sweets and delectable treats to celebrate Eid ul-Fitr, marking the end of the holy fasting month of Ramadan. Cakes, chocolates and sweet biscuits are must-haves in the homes of the nation's 20 million Muslims to host family and friends during the festival. Among the favoured snacks are the colourful kek lapis or layered cake, a...

- HSBC launches US\$2.5 billion AT1 bond issue in Hong Kong after market standstill (2026-03-18 04:29)

HSBC Holdings plans to raise US$2.5 billion by issuing two tranches of additional tier-1 (AT1) bonds, marking the reopening of such offerings after the US and Israel war on Iran rattled global financial markets. The biggest lender in Hong Kong and Europe by assets said in a stock exchange filing before the market opened on Wednesday that it intended to issue the AT1 bonds, officially named perpetual subordinated contingent convertible securities, on March 24 to strengthen its capital. The...

- Can China still maintain good relations with Gulf states and Iran as fighting escalates? (2026-03-18 04:00)

Iran's air strikes on the Gulf states have turned the spotlight onto China's dilemma in trying to develop long-term relations with those nations but also with their arch-rival Iran. Strikes on all six Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC) members in retaliation for US and Israeli attacks on Iran have hit both American military assets stationed in those countries and civilian infrastructure, including oil refineries. As oil and gas producers, they are also bearing the brunt of the effective closure of...

- How education develops a pathway for students' lifelong growth (2026-03-18 04:00)

The teachings of philosopher and psychologist John Dewey, who was a major 20th-century education reformer, still resonate with teachers around the world today. He believed that learning is a social, communal process – requiring students to build their own understanding based on personal experience – and involves a continuous, lifelong journey, rather than merely a means to an end for gaining knowledge for one's future career. He wrote: “The aim of education is growth: the aim of growth is more...

- Cathay extends Hong Kong to Middle East flight suspension until end of April (2026-03-18 03:37)

Hong Kong flag carrier Cathay Pacific Airways has further extended its suspension of all flights to and from the Middle East until the end of April amid the ongoing conflict in the region. Cathay Pacific said on Wednesday that flights between Hong Kong and Dubai in the United Arab Emirates, and between the city and Riyadh in Saudi Arabia, will remain suspended until the end of the month. All services between Hong Kong and the Middle East were first suspended on February 28 following a joint...

- Scammers impersonate Hong Kong lawmaker to defraud woman of HK\$38,000 (2026-03-18 02:51)

Hong Kong lawmaker Gary Chan Hak-kan has been impersonated in a scam that defrauded a victim of HK$38,000 (US$4,849), with the legislator calling the act despicable. Police said on Wednesday that they received a report from a woman the previous day, stating that she had received a call from a man who allegedly impersonated another person and persuaded her to send money under false pretences. The woman transferred HK$38,000 to an account specified by the caller but subsequently lost contact with...

The smoke rising from Babitha Sivadasan’ s kitchen in rural Kerala carries a scent that belongs to her grandmother’ s era. “I have started cooking with firewood,” said Babitha, who began rationing her half-empty cooking gas cylinder after failing to secure a refill from her Indian Oil distributor. “The agency hasn’ t taken bookings in a week.” As the Iran war enters the third week and cooking gas becomes scarce amid a conflict-driven supply shock, some Indian homemakers are turning to practices of...

- Asean bets on new framework to remedy ‘uneven’ disaster response (2026-03-18 02:30)

A framework proposed at an Asean ministers’ meeting is set to propel disaster management to the top of the agenda for the bloc, further easing cooperation and decision-making in a region facing nearly US$18 trillion in disaster risk exposure. Analysts say the proposal, if implemented, would help strengthen anticipatory action that could enable the bloc to act even before a formal request from a member state. At the 35th Asean Socio-Cultural Community Council Meeting in Manila on March 5, bloc...

China’ s leading planemaker is seeking to replicate the C909 regional airliner’ s success in Laos, drawing on the experience as it steps up its sales pitch in Southeast Asia – a vital step in its effort to eventually rival Boeing and Airbus. The Commercial Aircraft Corporation of China (Comac) has ambitious plans in the region and beyond and is laying the groundwork through technical adjustments and regulatory adaptations, according to a company document seen by the South China Morning Post. To...

- Injured buffalo brings rush-hour traffic to a standstill on Hong Kong highway (2026-03-18 01:33)

A buffalo was hit by a car on a Yuen Long highway on Wednesday morning, leaving the injured animal wandering into traffic and bringing rush-hour traffic in northwestern Hong Kong to a standstill. Dashcam footage circulating online captured the moment the buffalo emerged from roadside shrubbery into the fast lane, where an oncoming vehicle was unable to brake in time. The animal rolled over after hitting the ground and tried to stand up slowly but failed. Following the heavy impact, the buffalo...

- Hong Kong women's group condemns entry of Tates amid safety and equality concerns (2026-03-18 01:30)

A Hong Kong women's rights group has criticised authorities for allowing controversial British-American influencers Andrew and Tristan Tate, who are facing rape and human trafficking charges abroad, to enter the city, saying the decision contradicts the government's commitment to women's safety. As the brothers continued to publicise their activities in the city, the Rosewood Hong Kong – reported to be hosting them – told the South China Morning Post on Tuesday that it “does not condone...

- Rescuing a key Confucian text from centuries of ignominy (2026-03-18 01:30)

From around the turn of the century, a revived Confucianism was all the rage. Mainland Chinese academia heavily promoted it. Beijing politicised it as compatible with communist ideology. For state propaganda departments, Confucianism was repackaged as a cultural product for foreign consumption. That wave of interest subsequently died down, along with the closure of many Confucian Institutes around the world. So why study Confucius today? Well, why read any great philosopher? But there is a more...

- Malaysian police hunt man who punched pregnant wife, rammed her with motorbike (2026-03-18 01:27)

Malaysian police in Melaka are tracking a 22-year-old man after a video showing him attacking his pregnant wife outside a karaoke centre in Kota Shahbandar went viral on social media. State police chief Deputy Commissioner Dzulkhairi Mukhtar said a report on the incident was lodged by the victim's mother at 1.17am on Monday. He said preliminary investigations showed that the 20-year-old victim was attacked by her husband in front of a family karaoke centre in Kota Shahbandar at about 4am on...

- Iran vows revenge for security chief Larijani's killing as Israel hunts supreme leader (2026-03-18 01:20)

Iranian army chief Amir Hatami threatened on Wednesday to launch a “decisive and regrettable” retaliation for the killing of security chief Ali Larijani in an Israeli air strike.

“Iran’s response to the assassination of the secretary of the Supreme National Security Council will be decisive and regrettable,” Hatami said in a statement. The Revolutionary Guards, Iran’s powerful military force that is separate from the army, said in a statement that it had launched missiles at central Israel “in...

The authorities in a grass-roots community in eastern China have trended on social media for its “redundant flesh in exchange for beef” weight-loss initiative targeting local residents. Since the Shanbei Community in Liangxi District, Wuxi, Jiangsu province, launched the creative health campaign on social media on March 9, more than 2,400 people applied to take part within three days, according to the news website The Paper. Internet users have shown immense interest in the move, with many...

- US aircraft carrier attacking Iran heads back to port after fire incident (2026-03-18 00:33)

The USS Gerald R. Ford aircraft carrier is leaving the fight with Iran and heading back to port, a US official familiar with the matter said, after a fire broke out in its laundry area and left at least two sailors with non-life-threatening injuries. The Ford will travel from its current location in the Red Sea to Souda Bay, on the Greek island of Crete, according to the official, who asked not to be identified discussing movements that were not public. The ship had stopped in Souda Bay in late...

- Northern Metropolis land-use laws won’t undermine board’s authority: experts (2026-03-18 00:30)

Proposed designated laws to streamline land-use approval procedures for the Northern Metropolis megaproject will not undermine the authority of Hong Kong’s town planning body, some experts have argued, while urging the government to establish clear key performance indicators (KPIs) to strengthen market confidence. Observers were responding to a package of six subsidiary laws unveiled on Tuesday by the Development Bureau, designed to remove bottlenecks in the large-scale New Territories scheme. A...

- Will Japan follow Australia's lead and ban children from social media? (2026-03-18 00:00)

A Japanese government agency has opened discussions on imposing a ban on children accessing social media sites, potentially following Australia's lead in prohibiting under-16s from the most popular online platforms. Experts say it is far too early to determine whether the Australian experiment is a success and can be replicated in Japan, although there is a widely held belief that more is needed to limit the negative consequences of unfettered internet access to youth. In January, Japan's...

- Chinese national and Kenyan associate charged with illegally smuggling ants (2026-03-17 23:31)

A Chinese national and a Kenyan man were charged Tuesday with unlawfully dealing in wildlife species after they were found in possession of hundreds of live ants stored in specialised tubes. The case was the latest focused on the alleged smuggling of ants in the East African country, where authorities last year described a growing trend in the trafficking of ants to markets in Europe and Asia. Officials have not said if the ants are sought after as pets or for other purposes. The suspects,...

- Chinese banks outpace rivals in Hong Kong wealth growth on IPO boom, capital flows (2026-03-17 23:30)

The wealth management businesses of Chinese investment banks in Hong Kong are growing faster than those of international rivals, as a buoyant initial public offering (IPO) market and rising cross-border flows strengthen their competitive edge. "Chinese investment banks are seeing accelerated growth ... because [their] base is smaller and the current market environment favours them," said Wang Lei, CEO of Huatai Financial Holdings (Hong Kong), in an interview with the South China Morning Post,...

- Scottish lawmakers reject bill to let terminally ill people end their lives (2026-03-17 23:03)

Lawmakers in the Scottish Parliament on Tuesday rejected legislation that would have made Scotland the first part of the United Kingdom to allow terminally ill adults to end their lives. Members of the Edinburgh-based legislature voted 69 to 57 against a bill that would have let people in Scotland with six months or less to live seek help to end their life. There was one abstention. It came after an emotional debate that lasted around three hours and saw lawmakers tear up and applaud as they...

- Nvidia is restarting production of China AI chip variant, says CEO Jensen Huang (2026-03-17 22:31)

Nvidia is restarting the production of one of the company's chips that is designed to comply with US export restrictions on China, CEO Jensen Huang said at a press conference on Tuesday. The company had halted manufacturing last year of its H200 chip, which is based on its ageing Hopper technology, because of increasing regulatory hurdles in the US and China, according to a report at the time. Since then, Nvidia has received licences to export the H200 from the US government and has taken...

- US sounds alarm over China's humanoid robots amid security concerns (2026-03-17 22:00)

US artificial intelligence and robotics firms have urged lawmakers to take action against Chinese robot manufacturers – singling out Unitree Robotics – citing increased competition and national security risks, in a sign that humanoid robots may emerge as a new battleground in the widening US-China tech rivalry. China's speed of advancement in humanoid robots is alarming, and the US government should formulate coordinated policies and strategies to counter Chinese firms' dominance in the...

- Why Japan thinks China's growing cultural clout is something it needs to counter (2026-03-17 22:00)

China and Japan's long-standing rivalry has deep historic roots, and relations between the two have taken a significant turn for the worse in recent months. This article, the first in a three-part series, looks at how both countries are trying to turn soft power to their advantage in the battle to shape international opinion. The rise of China's soft power has been fuelled by global successes in fields ranging from gaming and films to consumer brands and technology. Success stories range from...

- Zelensky, Starmer urge continued support for Ukraine as Iran conflict steals focus (2026-03-17 21:43)

Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky called Russia and Iran “brothers in hatred” on Tuesday as he sought support from UK Prime Minister Keir Starmer at a time when the Iran conflict has robbed momentum from US-brokered talks to end Russia's invasion of Ukraine. During talks with Starmer at 10 Downing Street, Zelensky urged Ukraine's allies not to forget about his country and suggested the US and others should make use of Ukraine's anti-drone technology during a Middle East war that has also...

- Frenzy over AI agent OpenClaw shows the lobster has escaped the pot (2026-03-17 21:30)

In China this month, people have been lining up on streets to install an AI programme on their computers. Some had travelled from other cities. Others had waited for hours for engineers to set it up for them. There were even “birth certificates” given out upon installation. The programme is OpenClaw. Its logo is a red lobster. Chinese internet users quickly coined a phrase for the phenomenon: raising lobsters. The scene looks quirky, even amusing. But beneath the spectacle lies a revealing...

- US military tracks 23 Chinese port projects in Latin America, general tells Congress (2026-03-17 21:08)

The US military is monitoring 23 Chinese port projects and 12 space-enabling facilities across Latin America and considers every one of them “a potential dual-use asset” that could support Chinese military operations, the top US commander for South America told Congress on Tuesday. General Francis Donovan, head of US Southern Command (SOUTHCOM), made the disclosure during a House Armed Services Committee hearing on US military posture in the western hemisphere. Asked by Lance Gooden, a...

- US House panel subpoenas Pam Bondi to testify in Epstein investigation (2026-03-17 19:29)

A US congressional committee said on Tuesday it has issued a subpoena to Attorney General Pam Bondi to testify behind closed doors in its probe of the late convicted sex criminal Jeffrey Epstein. Bondi faces accusations that the Justice Department has concealed the names of powerful associates of Epstein in its release of millions of documents related to the late financier. Under the subpoena, Bondi would give a sworn deposition to the House of Representatives Oversight Committee on April...

- Trump confirms delay of Beijing meeting with Xi amid Iran conflict (2026-03-17 19:19)

US President Donald Trump on Tuesday said his planned trip to meet Chinese President Xi Jinping in Beijing will be delayed by “five or six weeks,” as the US-Israel war against Iran continues. “We’re working with China. They were fine with it ... I look forward to seeing President Xi. He looks forward to seeing me, I think,” Trump told reporters at the White House. The Chinese embassy in Washington did not confirm Trump’s timeline and said “China and the US remain in communication on President...

- Fire at US embassy in Baghdad as security official reports drone and rocket strikes (2026-03-17 18:59)

Several loud explosions were heard on Tuesday evening in Iraq’s capital Baghdad, Agence France-Presse journalists reported, with a security official reporting a drone and rocket attack on the US embassy. In a restaurant in the city, where diners did not react to the initial sounds of the blasts, a witness said he saw detonations caused by the embassy’s air defences intercepting projectiles. Another witness saw a fire on the edge of the embassy grounds from her balcony, with the blaze also...

- Northern Ireland’s Gerry Adams tells bombings trial he was never in IRA (2026-03-17 17:55)

Gerry Adams, one of Northern Ireland’s most prominent political figures, told London’s High Court on Tuesday he had never been a member of the paramilitary Irish Republican Army but said he would not distance himself from the group. The ex-leader of Sinn Fein, formerly the IRA’s political wing and now the largest party in the Northern Irish Assembly, became the best-known face of the movement seeking to end British rule in Northern Ireland. He later reinvented himself as a peacemaker after...

- Why US warships' pit stop in Malaysia is raising eyebrows (2026-03-17 15:45)

The apparent docking of two light US combat ships in Penang over the weekend has raised eyebrows among Malaysian government critics regarding the country's position on the US-Israel war on Iran, and questions over the deployment of de-mining vessels thousands of miles from the conflict zone. The USS Tulsa and USS Santa Barbara were seen on Sunday at the North Butterworth Container Terminal, according to social media images and the Financial Times, which cited a US Fifth Fleet spokesperson...

- Measures to streamline Northern Metropolis land-use procedures unveiled (2026-03-17 15:38)

Hong Kong authorities have proposed designated laws to streamline procedures for changing land use in the Northern Metropolis megaproject, cutting the process from typically nine months to just two. Unveiled by the Development Bureau on Tuesday, the proposed designated legislation comprises six main subsidiary laws designed to remove bottlenecks in the massive scheme near the border with mainland China. They include the establishment of statutory firms and measures to speed up land resumption...

- Singapore's Lawrence Wong seeks stronger ties with Japan amid global tensions (2026-03-17 15:15)

Singapore's Prime Minister Lawrence Wong has kicked off his visit to Japan, where he is expected to address strategies with counterpart Sanae Takaichi on enhancing cooperation against a backdrop of economic uncertainty brought on by the Iran war. Both leaders are likely to tread cautiously in discussions to avoid antagonising any superpower, analysts say. The three-day trip, which began on Tuesday, marks Wong's first official visit to Japan since he became Singapore's prime minister in May...

- US counterterrorism chief quits, says Israel 'trapped' Trump into joining Iran war (2026-03-17 15:10)

A senior US counterterrorism official resigned on Tuesday to protest against the US-Israeli war against Iran and said the Islamic Republic posed no imminent threat to the United States. "I cannot in good conscience support the ongoing war in Iran," Joseph Kent, the director of the National Counterterrorism Centre, said in his resignation letter to US President Donald Trump. Kent – a former member of the Green Beret special forces who served 11 combat tours – said: "Iran posed no imminent threat..."

- Why Trump's China trip delay could open the door for 'more substantive' results (2026-03-17 15:00)

Beijing has confirmed it remains in communication with Washington about a landmark visit by US President Donald Trump, who has requested to delay the trip by a month due to the US-Israel war on Iran. Chinese analysts characterised the delay as a strategic opportunity to ensure more substantive results. They also suggested the shift in timing was unlikely to derail the momentum towards stabilising ties between the two global powers. The White House previously announced that the trip – the first...

- Trump claims mystery ex-president backed his war on Iran but no one is owning up (2026-03-17 14:15)

Twice on Monday, US President Donald Trump said he had wrangled a confession of sorts from an Oval Office predecessor who he said had expressed regret in a private conversation about not attacking Iran the way Trump has been doing for more than two weeks. But there's just a little problem: representatives for the four living former presidents – three Democrats and one Republican – said none had been in touch with Trump recently. Trump declined to name the former president when reporters asked...

- 15 Hong Kong schools risk closure as falling numbers trigger Primary One ban (2026-03-17 14:10)

Fifteen Hong Kong public primary schools are at risk of closing after being banned from operating subsidised Primary One classes in the coming academic year due to insufficient enrolment, with authorities saying the figure is the highest in recent years. But Secretary for Education Christine Choi Yuk-lin also warned on Tuesday that more closures were expected if school operators refused to plan for mergers. The institutions at risk comprise one government and 14 subsidised schools, with Deputy...

- China, Russia discuss boosting transport links as Middle East conflict disrupts shipping (2026-03-17 14:00)

As heightened conflict in the Middle East disrupts global shipping, China and Russia are considering deeper cooperation on logistics – including use of the Arctic shipping route – to secure a more resilient supply chain. At the inaugural China-Russia Logistics Business Forum held in Moscow on Monday, officials and business leaders discussed bolstering transport and infrastructure ties, calling such cooperation essential as geopolitical tensions reshape global supply chains, Chinese state news...

- How Nvidia's inference bet at GTC poses a challenge and opportunity for China (2026-03-17 14:00)

Nvidia's latest language processing chip, unveiled at the company's annual artificial intelligence conference, has opened a new frontier in the AI inference arms race, as the booming market for AI agents like OpenClaw presents a complex new reality for China's semiconductor industry, according to analysts. The Nvidia Groq 3 Language Processing Unit (LPU), introduced on Monday at GTC 2026 in San Jose, California, was described by the company as an accelerator with fast memory and low latency...

- Even the dead in Thailand cannot escape Iran war fuel shortages (2026-03-17 13:33)

Worsening fuel shortages resulting from the war in the Middle East are threatening sacred funeral ceremonies in Thailand, where Buddhist temples are scrambling to obtain diesel for cremations. The abbot of Wat Saman Rattanaram in Chachoengsao province, about 80km (50 miles) east of Bangkok, warned that a suspension of cremation services was a real possibility. Some petrol stations have run out of fuel, while others allow sales only to vehicle operators. “In more than 50 years, I’ve never seen...

- With Trump’s China trip in limbo, further trade talks loom: analysts (2026-03-17 13:00)

With US President Donald Trump’s trip to China postponed and the countries’ recent trade negotiations in Paris ending with no apparent breakthroughs, analysts said the world’s two largest economies are likely to hold another round of talks before Trump touches down in Beijing. “We can see this as more of a pause than a breakthrough overall. This resembles ‘unfinished business’ between both sides,” said James Downes, director of the Europe-Asia programme at the Centre for Explanatory Research and...

- China leads world in anti-drone patents with US and South Korea far behind, law firm finds (2026-03-17 13:00)

China leads the world in patent applications for anti-drone technology, which has drawn heightened attention during the wars in Ukraine and Iran and a spate of suspicious sightings in the West, according to intellectual property law firm Mathys & Squire. Patent applications for anti-drone systems rose 27 per cent over the past year, with China submitting 82 compared with 22 from the US, the second-largest filer, the 115-year-old UK-based law firm said on Monday. South Korea ranked third with six...

About 94 per cent of Hong Kong’s students do not get enough daily exercise and 17.5 per cent are overweight, authorities have warned, urging schools and parents to tackle the growing fitness crisis together. A government report released on Tuesday also flagged low fruit and vegetable intake, poor vision health and excessive recreational screen time among students. The findings were based on surveys and annual health assessments conducted by the Department of Health for the 2024-25 school year,...

- Trump’s Iran gamble won’t advance his prospects at home or with China (2026-03-17 12:30)

The eminent British military strategist Michael Howard famously said that the purpose of forecasting wars is not to get it right, but to avoid getting it terribly wrong. US President Donald Trump has already got it terribly wrong. No one knows why he launched a war with Israel against Iran. Trump may have been partly correct when he posted on Truth Social that, “Iran’s Navy is gone, their Air Force is gone, missiles, drones and everything else are being decimated, and their leaders have been...

- India detains 6 Ukrainians, 1 American suspected of training Myanmar rebels (2026-03-17 12:27)

Indian investigators have arrested seven foreigners – six Ukrainians and an American – on suspicion of illegally crossing into neighbouring Myanmar to train armed militia groups, the public radio broadcaster reported on Tuesday. Myanmar descended into civil war after a junta seized power in a 2021 coup, with pro-democracy guerrillas and ethnic-minority armed groups fighting for control of large parts of the country. India has long been suspicious of certain Myanmar factions that have the same...

- Will the postponed Trump-Xi summit affect US arms sales to Taiwan? (2026-03-17 12:01)

A delayed summit between Donald Trump and Xi Jinping has raised concerns over whether the postponement could affect a reported record US arms sales package to Taiwan, as officials insist the deal remains on track. A US$14 billion arms package – possibly the largest ever for Taiwan – is ready for the American president’s approval and could be announced after his visit to Beijing, according to Reuters on Friday. The proposed sale is expected to include advanced air-defence systems such as Patriot...

- China sailor creates ‘radio station’ to connect families with seamen stranded in Strait of Hormuz (2026-03-17 12:00)

A Chinese man has used public maritime radio to create a “family’s voice station” on which sailors stranded in the Strait of Hormuz can relay safety messages to their families. Liu Yiwen, a native of Jilin province in northeastern China, is a second officer on a Singaporean commercial ship which is now anchored near the Khor Fakkan harbour administered by the United Arab Emirates, China’s state media CCTV reported. The ship had planned to head to the Persian Gulf to load liquid petroleum gas...

- Thailand to build fence along parts of Cambodian border for ‘peace of mind’ (2026-03-17 11:55)

Thailand will start building fences along a portion of its border with Cambodia next month to boost security after deadly clashes between the countries erupted last year following long-standing tensions. The first barrier will cover 1.3km (0.8 miles) in Chanthaburi province along Thailand’s eastern border, according to Vithai Laithomya, spokesman of the Royal Thai Armed Forces. The fencing off of the area – a small part of the nearly 800km border between the two nations – was not part of...

- US reshoring drive casts shadow over China’s contract drug makers: analyst (2026-03-17 11:48)

Chinese contract drug makers – including WuXi AppTec, WuXi Biologics and WuXi XDC – face a less certain long-term revenue outlook as US pharmaceutical companies bring production in-house and reconfigure supply chains amid rising US-China tensions. While near-term earnings remained largely locked in, visibility beyond that was limited, according to Cui Cui, head of healthcare research for Asia at Jefferies. “Earnings visibility for 2026 and 2027 is still very strong – revenue momentum is largely...

- China, Vietnam agree to live-fire drills in naval exercise boost (2026-03-17 11:24)

The navies of China and Vietnam have added live-fire drills to future joint training – marking a deepening of military cooperation as Vietnamese Communist Party chief To Lam hailed relations with Beijing as a “top priority”. Naval commanders from both sides held a courtesy meeting on Monday at Fangcheng port in southern China’s Guangxi, as Vietnamese frigates Tran Hung Dao (hull number 015) and Ly Thai To (012) arrived to join PLA Navy vessels for their 40th joint patrol and training...

- Asia ditches LNG for coal after Iran war sends prices soaring (2026-03-17 10:44)

Asian utilities are boosting coal-fired power generation to cut costs and safeguard energy supply, industry officials say, as the US-Israeli war on Iran chokes liquefied natural gas (LNG) shipments and soaring prices threaten to suppress LNG demand. Asia spot LNG prices have doubled to three-year highs in the second major supply shock in four years, as shipping through the Strait of Hormuz has all but stopped and No 2 global exporter Qatar has halted shipments. In South Asia, Bangladesh is...

- Tiananmen vigil activist on trial says one-party rule contradicts country’s constitution (2026-03-17 10:36)

A former Hong Kong opposition politician has accused China’s one-party rule system of being incompatible with the country’s constitution and failing to safeguard people’s fundamental rights, as he defended his calls to end “dictatorship” in a high-profile subversion trial. Ex-lawmaker Lee Cheuk-yan, former chairman of the now-disbanded Hong Kong Alliance in Support of Patriotic Democratic Movements of China, argued on Tuesday that calling for an end to “one-party dictatorship” on the mainland...

- Oil price spike threatens to break Indonesia’s budget as 144 million hit the road for Eid (2026-03-17 10:30)

Every year, roughly half of Indonesia’s 288 million people pack into trains, buses, ferries and cars and head home. The mudik, as the great Eid ul-Fitr exodus is known, is one of the largest annual human migrations on Earth and a ritual of return that defines the end of the holy fasting month of Ramadan. This year, the Ministry of Transportation estimates that 143.9 million journeys will be made. But it could hardly arrive at a worse time for the government’s finances. Oil prices have surged...

- Iran’s Ali Larijani, Basij paramilitary head ‘eliminated’ in Tehran strike: Israel (2026-03-17 10:03)

Israeli Defence Minister Israel Katz said on Tuesday that Iran's powerful national security chief Ali Larijani was "eliminated last night", along with the commander of Tehran's Basij paramilitary force, General Gholam Reza Soleimani. "I have just been updated by the Chief of Staff that Larijani, Secretary of the Supreme National Security Council, and the head of the Basij – Iran's central repression apparatus – [Soleimani], were eliminated last night," Katz said in a statement released by his...

- Unlimited petrol? Chinese firm claims it can produce fuel from air and water (2026-03-17 10:00)

A Shanghai-based start-up claims to have mastered a technique for producing synthetic petroleum at low cost from air and water, as China intensifies efforts to develop alternatives to traditional fossil fuels amid the US-Israel war against Iran. Carbonology announced it had created a process for converting carbon dioxide extracted from air and water into artificial fuel using solar and wind energy, Chinese media outlet Cailianshe reported on Tuesday. The company – co-founded by a former...

- ‘Real-life Cinderella’ : China stuntwoman transitions from playing body double to stardom (2026-03-17 10:00)

Famous Chinese actress Li Yitong, who rose from being Zhao Liying's stunt double to becoming a leading actress, has taken on 14 roles in a single year, earning her the name of a "real-life Cinderella". Li, whose original name is Li Xue, was born in September 1990 in Jinan, Shandong province, northern China, and graduated from the Beijing Dance Academy with a major in folk dance. After graduation, she planned to open a teahouse that incorporated dance performances. However, while searching for a...

- Authorities look for link to illegal fuel operations as truck goes up in flames (2026-03-17 09:34)

Hong Kong authorities are investigating whether a fire at a Kwai Chung car park that sent thick black smoke high into the sky on Tuesday afternoon was linked to the operation of an illegal fuel station. The Fire Services Department received a report shortly after 2pm of a truck ablaze at a car park on Container Port Road South in Kwai Chung. Witnesses said explosions were heard as the vehicle was engulfed in flames, with smoke billowing high above the area and visible across western Kowloon. The...

- 21 Wang Fuk Court homeowners, residents to give evidence in fire probe (2026-03-17 09:21)

Fourteen members of the former owners' corporation of blaze-hit Wang Fuk Court along with seven residents have been named to give evidence at an independent probe into Hong Kong's deadliest fire in decades. They are among 37 named in a list released on Tuesday by the independent committee investigating the deadly Tai Po blaze, ahead of the first of eight hearings into the tragedy. The first hearing will take place on Thursday, while the last is scheduled for April 2. “The committee will also...

- Military escort for tankers in Strait of Hormuz not long-term fix: IMO head (2026-03-17 09:17)

Military escorts to protect tankers in the Strait of Hormuz are not a sustainable solution, according to the International Maritime Organisation (IMO). “It reduces the risk, but the risk is still there,” IMO Secretary General Arsenio Dominguez told the Financial Times. He said that a military deployment was “not a long-term or sustainable solution”. US President Donald Trump has called for an international naval operation off the Iranian coast to secure oil shipments, saying at the weekend that...

- Former banker and Hubei party boss indicted for accepting ‘especially huge’ bribes (2026-03-17 09:15)

Jiang Chaoliang, Communist Party chief of Hubei when Covid-19 first hit the province and a former prominent banker, has been indicted for accepting “an especially huge amount” of bribes starting in the 1990s. The investigation into his case, first announced in February last year, has closed, and the Nanjing Municipal People’s Procuratorate has filed a public prosecution with the Nanjing Intermediate People’s Court, according to a statement on Tuesday from the Supreme People’s s...

- US military’s Iran war pivot forces Asia-Pacific security rethink (2026-03-17 09:01)

The redeployment of US military assets from the Asia-Pacific to the Middle East has split security analysts, with some arguing that any strategic damage is largely “psychological” while others warn of a real and measurable gap opening in the region’s defences. More than 2,000 marines and at least one amphibious assault ship have begun moving from Japan towards the Gulf as the US-Israeli war on Iran grinds on. The assault ship USS Tripoli, docked at Sasebo in Nagasaki prefecture, is expected to...

- Trump-Xi summit delay may suit China amid Iran war (2026-03-17 09:00)

US President Donald Trump said he had asked China to postpone his planned trip to Beijing by “a month or so” due to the war in Iran. “I think it’s important that I be here,” Trump told reporters in the White House on Monday. “So it could be that we delay a little bit, not much.” The visit, including a summit with President Xi Jinping, is scheduled to take place from March 31 to April 2. US Treasury Secretary Scott Bessent dismissed suggestions that the potential delay was designed to pressure...

- Malaysian mother furious after school punishes bullied son with caning, weeding (2026-03-17 08:30)

Not only was he punched repeatedly by a peer, a Malaysian student at a secondary school in Kuching, Sarawak, was caned and forced to write a note admitting his mistake, China Press reported. Angered at how the case was handled, the boy’s mother shared the incident on social media and lodged a police report. The incident took place last Thursday when another student allegedly grabbed her son's leg and caused him to fall. The victim's mother said the aggressor then sat on top of her son before...

- 8 wild boars captured, put down after wandering into Hong Kong's Wong Tai Sin (2026-03-17 08:00)

Hong Kong's conservation authorities captured and put down eight wild boars in Wong Tai Sin on Tuesday following a report from residents. Police said staff from the Agricultural, Fisheries and Conservation Department (AFCD) tranquillised the animals – two large boars and six smaller ones – before removing them. The force received a report at 10.07am of several wild boars near Chuk Yuen (North) Estate in Wong Tai Sin, and officers were dispatched to assess the situation. The AFCD said it had...

- Investors fleeing Mideast chaos find safe haven in 'sweet spot' Malaysia (2026-03-17 07:20)

Even before the war in Iran sparked a surge in energy prices, Malaysia stood out from its Southeast Asian peers as the new-found darling of global investors. A rare stretch of political stability and investments in higher-value manufacturing and data centres lifted Malaysia's appeal as some of its neighbours grappled with leadership changes and financial strains. The conflict in the Middle East further burnished the country's advantage as investors looked for markets better placed to weather...

- Chinese scientists create world's coldest alloy. It may surprise DARPA (2026-03-17 07:13)

Chinese researchers have unveiled a new rare earth alloy so cold and efficient it could upend decades of reliance on helium-3 and send shock waves through the global race for quantum computers or ultra-sensitive detectors. A mini-fridge built with the alloy has achieved temperatures extremely close to absolute zero using no moving parts. And it comes at a time when the US Defence Advanced Research Projects Agency (DARPA) is actively hunting for exactly such a technology. On January 27, DARPA...

- Suicide attacks in Nigeria kill 23, wound more than 100 (2026-03-17 07:09)

Multiple explosions staged by suspected suicide bombers rocked the northeastern Nigerian city of Maiduguri, killing at least 23 people and wounding more than 100 others, police said Tuesday. The three blasts, which struck on Monday evening, came after an attack on a military post overnight Sunday to Monday, which authorities blamed on suspected jihadists. Combined with the attack on the military position the evening prior and a mosque bombing in December, the assaults have wrecked a peaceful...

- Hong Kong to press ahead with expanding Middle East ties despite regional unrest (2026-03-17 07:00)

Hong Kong will continue its efforts to expand business opportunities in the Middle East despite recent geopolitical tensions, as the city remains a safe and stable investment hub amid global volatility, Chief Executive John Lee Ka-chiu has said. Despite his optimism, Lee conceded that the conflict in the Middle East had affected Hong Kong due to a surge in fuel prices, urging suppliers to increase transparency in pricing and warning of regulatory action in cases of commercial wrongdoing. “[The...

- Chinese New Year boosts Hong Kong visitor numbers in first 2 months of 2026
(2026-03-17 06:52)

Hong Kong welcomed 9.95 million visitors in the first two months of this year, 18 per cent more than the same period last year, with the increase driven primarily by mainland travellers visiting the city over the Chinese New Year period. Provisional figures released by the Hong Kong Tourism Board on Tuesday showed that 7.89 million mainland Chinese visitors travelled to the city in January and February, representing a 22 per cent year-on-year rise. They also accounted for 79.3 per cent of the...

(2026-03-17 06:19)

A man was charged on Tuesday with molesting and harassing an air stewardess on a Singapore Airlines flight on February 9. Akash Tiwari, a 36-year-old Indian national, is accused of using criminal force on the woman by using his body to make contact with the area around her buttocks. He is also accused of using threatening behaviour by following her to the galley area, cornering her in the confined space and continuing to pursue her, causing her to be distressed. A gag order was imposed on the...

- Hong Kong’s Ocean Park euthanises 17-year-old red panda Rou Rou (2026-03-17 06:09)

Hong Kong’s Ocean Park has euthanised red panda Rou Rou after the 17-year-old endangered animal experienced degenerative joint problems and stopped responding to palliative care. Ocean Park said on Tuesday that its animal care and veterinary teams had provided Rou Rou with comprehensive care and monitored her geriatric conditions for five years, but could not prevent age-related ailments, including degenerative joint issues. The park added that Rou Rou showed “increasing signs of discomfort” in...

- China backs wider hydrogen adoption as Strait of Hormuz crisis jolts energy markets (2026-03-17 06:03)

Beijing is launching a pilot programme to expand industrial use of hydrogen energy, at a time when war in the Middle East is exposing the risks of global reliance on fossil fuels. Iran's effective blockade of the Strait of Hormuz amid its war with the United States and Israel – now in its third week – has disrupted oil and gas supplies, prompting some nations to re-examine their energy mix, with renewables emerging as a potential hedge against volatility. In a Monday notice, the Ministry of...

- Taiwan singer ignites debate by showing popular 'vacuum belly' technique to lose weight (2026-03-17 06:00)

A Taiwanese singer has sparked controversy for performing a “vacuum belly” workout routine at a concert in northwestern China. Videos of Ella Chen Jiahua showing her contracted belly, with her ribs prominently protruding, at her concert in Xian, Shaanxi province on March 7 have gone viral on social media, China Youth Daily reported. Chen, 44, tells her audiences: “I would like to perform a stunt for you. Please look at me carefully. Cameramen, please zoom in on me.” She begins the movement while...

- Malaysia tackles religious, racial tensions as 2 charged over provocative posts (2026-03-17 05:45)

Malaysia charged two men on Tuesday and moved to bring back another from Thailand as authorities sought to contain a wave of religiously charged provocations that has sharpened tensions in the multicultural country. Controversial preacher Zamri Vinoth, 41, and activist Arun Dorasamy, 56, both pleaded not guilty in separate magistrates' courts to charges linked to social media posts that prosecutors said were capable of “causing public alarm”. The cases come as conservative groups push for the...

- Suspected wartime mortar round detonated safely at Hong Kong construction site (2026-03-17 05:25)

A suspected wartime mortar round has been safely detonated by bomb disposal officers at a Hong Kong construction site, with no evacuations needed. A source familiar with the matter confirmed to the South China Morning Post that the suspicious object workers discovered at 9.32am on Tuesday at a construction site at Kwu Tung North Multi-Welfare Services Complex was an unexploded wartime mortar round. “Since the mortar round was inside the construction site, officers on site confirmed that the...

- Hong Kong to unveil plans this month for Tai Po fire victims to retrieve belongings (2026-03-17 05:18)

Hong Kong authorities will announce arrangements this month for residents displaced by the deadly Tai Po blaze to return to their fire-damaged flats and collect personal belongings by the end of April, the city's leader has said. Chief Executive John Lee Ka-chiu on Tuesday also said the government would fully cooperate with an independent committee investigating the inferno, when asked if any officials would testify before the body as it begins hearings on Thursday. Speaking before the weekly...

- CK Hutchison subsidiary slams Panama for missing arbitration deadline (2026-03-17 05:10)

A subsidiary of Hong Kong conglomerate CK Hutchison has accused Panama of missing a deadline for international arbitration initiated by the company, as it confirmed its offices had earlier been raided by alleged "armed security forces". Panama Ports Company (PPC) on Tuesday also accused authorities of silencing the country's press and disregarding the rule of law, as it continued to paint the Central American nation as a risk to foreign investors following the seizure of its two terminals. The...

- Fate of US-Malaysia trade pact rests on Washington's next move (2026-03-17 04:40)

Malaysia will wait for Washington to submit updated terms before deciding its next steps on their tariff deal, the country's trade minister has said – just days after he declared the agreement had been rendered "null and void" by a US Supreme Court ruling. The government began the week on the back foot as allies and critics demanded clarity on the status of the multibillion-dollar deal with the United States, after Trade Minister Johari Abdul Ghani was reported on Sunday to have said it was no...

- US 'grief author' convicted of murdering husband with lethal fentanyl dose (2026-03-17 04:36)

A Utah woman was convicted on Monday of aggravated murder after poisoning her husband with fentanyl and self-publishing a children's book about coping with grief. Prosecutors said Kouri Richins slipped five times the lethal dose of the synthetic opioid into a cocktail that her husband Eric Richins drank in March 2022 at their home outside the affluent ski town of Park City. They said she was US$4.5 million in debt and falsely believed that when her husband died, she would inherit his estate...

Hong Kong authorities will set up a collaborative mechanism with the legislature to craft the city's first five-year plan to align with national development, according to Chief Executive John Lee Ka-chiu, who says the blueprint will be released by the end of this year. Lee also stressed on Tuesday that the new platform would reflect the city's executive-led governance model, adding a public consultation on the plan would be launched in the fourth quarter before its publication. "The plan will...

- China and Chile wrap up Atacama Trench mission as US pressure mounts (2026-03-17 04:00)

Chinese and Chilean scientists have reached the bottom of the Atacama Trench, where light does not penetrate, in what they called the "most ambitious" deep-sea expedition ever conducted in the eastern Pacific. The joint mission to one of the deepest ocean trenches – which runs parallel to the coasts of Peru and Chile – took place from January 19 to March 5. It comes as Chile's expanding cooperation with China on science and technology has inflamed geopolitical tensions with the United...

- Japan to raise residency fees by up to 2,900% despite deepening labour crisis (2026-03-17 03:47)

Settling in Japan as a foreign national is about to become much more expensive after the government passed legislation to sharply increase visa application fees. Critics argue the policy is short-sighted amid a worsening labour shortage, but conservatives have dismissed such concerns, insisting that robots and artificial intelligence will soon replace workers in low-paid, service-sector roles. Detractors also contend the legislation is designed to deter less affluent migrants from developing...

- South Korea on guard against possible 'terror' acts at BTS concert (2026-03-17 03:42)

South Korean President Lee Jae Myung said on Tuesday security and safety must be a top priority for a concert by K-pop band BTS on Saturday in Seoul, including readiness for any possible acts of "terror", according to a live TV broadcast of a cabinet meeting. The free comeback concert for the boy band in central Seoul is expected to draw up to 260,000 people, the Ministry of the Interior and Safety said last Wednesday, making it one of the largest public gatherings in the area...

- Xi pushes Belt and Road Initiative port alliance amid Iran war, Panama Canal dispute (2026-03-17 03:00)

President Xi Jinping has vowed to advance the creation of an international port alliance under the Belt and Road Initiative, at a time when the world's top merchandise exporter confronts mounting challenges to global shipping routes – from the Strait of Hormuz to Panama. An excerpt of his speech, initially given at a closed-door meeting on July 1, 2025, was first published on Monday by Qiushi, the Communist Party's top theoretical journal. "[China needs to] deeply participate in global ocean...

A 12-year-old girl from central China showed her business acumen by using her savings to buy a stationery shop and hiring her mother for 3,000 yuan (US$440) a month. Li Yue, who lived in Jiangxi province and received over 44,000 yuan (US$6,400) in lai see during the Spring Festival, decided to invest the money in a business. She believed that depositing the money in the bank would offer an interest rate too low to keep up with inflation. While on her way to the bank, Li spotted a stationery...

- Vietnam warns of April flight reductions as jet fuel shortage fears deepen (2026-03-17 00:37)

Vietnamese authorities have warned the country's aviation industry to prepare for potential flight reductions from April after China and Thailand halted exports of jet fuel due to the Iran war, increasing the likelihood of shortages. Vietnam imports more than two-thirds of its jet fuel needs, with 60 per cent coming from China and Thailand, according to documents from the aviation regulator and importers seen by Reuters. "There are risks of jet fuel shortages for Vietnamese airlines from the...

- Hong Kong cannot extradite Tates without UK or Romania requests, lawmakers say (2026-03-17 00:30)

Hong Kong lawmakers have said Andrew and Tristan Tate cannot be extradited to the UK or Romania – where they face prosecution – without formal requests from those governments, as the infamous influencer brothers continued their visit to the city on Monday. The legislators also rejected claims that the city had become a haven for fugitives following the suspension of extradition treaties with several Western countries, including the United Kingdom, in 2020. The controversial influencers entered...

- South Korea in 'Catch-22 situation' over Trump's call for warships to secure Hormuz (2026-03-17 00:00)

South Korea is expected to seek consensus through transparent procedures at its National Assembly before deciding on its next step, after US President Donald Trump bluntly called on various nations to help secure the Strait of Hormuz. Observers say Seoul is unlikely to move quickly, instead waiting for the outcome of the March 19 summit between Trump and Japanese Prime Minister Sanae Takaichi, as well as a formal request from Washington through official diplomatic channels. The country is a key...

- Drone strikes luxury hotel in Baghdad's Green Zone, home to US embassy (2026-03-16 23:36)

A drone sparked a fire on Monday at a luxury hotel frequented by foreign diplomats in Baghdad's fortified Green Zone shortly before air defences foiled a rocket attack at the US embassy. The attacks came soon after the powerful Tehran-backed Kataeb Hezbollah group announced that its senior security commander Abu Ali al-Askari had been killed, without providing details on the circumstances of his death. Iraq's interior ministry said initially that "a projectile fell on the roof of the al-Rasheed...

- South Korea and Japan bear brunt of global stock sell-offs amid oil shock (2026-03-16 23:30)

South Korea and Japan have led declines in global stock markets amid the oil shock, underscoring how supply disruptions in the Middle East are weighing on growth in economies heavily reliant on fuel imports. The Kospi index in Seoul has slumped 12 per cent since the US-Israel war with Iran broke out on February 28, while Tokyo's Nikkei 225 has slid nearly 9 per cent. South Korea last week moved to cap oil price increases to limit inflation, while rising crude costs added to price pressures in...

- Jean-Claude Van Damme talks art, Hong Kong filmmakers and 'good friend' Vladimir Putin (2026-03-16 23:15)

If he had to pick one word, Jean-Claude Van Damme says he would describe his oil paintings as “simple”. The star of Bloodsport (1988) had swaggered into his art exhibition 40 minutes late, clad in full black, including the sunglasses he wore indoors. At 65 years old, the “Muscles from Brussels” still has a similar physique to the one at the height of his martial arts acting fame, though his hair is sparser and his gait less brazen. A long-time admirer of Sylvester Stallone, the Belgian-born...

Large passenger jets and advanced chips, BeiDou satellites and the Tiangong space station: these large-scale science and technology projects could be part of China's efforts to mobilise resources nationwide to speed up the development of new weapons, according to a study by researchers with China's top defence university. China's military modernisation has accelerated at a pace that unsettles many analysts in Washington. In the past decade alone, Beijing has rolled out a sequence of major...

- Trump vows to 'take' Cuba as island reels from total power cut linked to oil embargo (2026-03-16 21:40)

US President Donald Trump vowed on Monday to “take” Cuba as the communist island plunged into darkness under a total power blackout linked to a crippling oil embargo imposed by Washington. After nearly seven decades defying the United States, Havana's communist authorities are under massive pressure from a Trump administration determined to make history. “You know, all my life I've been hearing about the United States and Cuba. When will the United States do it?” Trump told reporters at the...

- Iran war shows urgency of Hong Kong's green shipping transition (2026-03-16 21:30)

The war in Iran, culminating in the de facto closure of the Strait of Hormuz, has again exposed the world's energy and maritime sector to acute vulnerabilities. The spike in oil prices and surging freight rates may grab headlines, but beneath these shocks lie fundamental questions about Asia's – and Hong Kong's – energy security, the resilience of shipping risk management and the urgent need to transform our maritime industry for a greener future. The Strait of Hormuz is not just a geopolitical...

- Trump says the US has requested that China delay Beijing summit by 'a month or so' (2026-03-16 20:30)

US President Donald Trump said on Monday that his planned trip to Beijing later this month may be postponed, adding uncertainty to a visit expected to include talks with Chinese leader Xi Jinping. Speaking at a news conference at the White House, Trump said the timing of the visit was still under discussion, citing the need to remain in Washington as the US manages its ongoing military campaign against Iran. The trip had been scheduled for March 31 to April 2. "I don't know, we're working on..."

- 400 killed after Pakistan strikes hit drug rehabilitation hospital in Kabul, Taliban says
(2026-03-16 20:27)

Afghanistan's deputy government spokesman said early on Tuesday the death toll from an air strike by Pakistan that hit a hospital treating drug users in the Afghan capital Kabul has increased to 400. In a post on X, Hamdullah Fitrat said the strike on Monday night had destroyed large sections of the hospital. He said the death toll so far stood at 400, while a further 250 people had been reported injured. Fitrat said rescue teams were trying to control the fire at the building and recover the...

- Trump administration can resume 'third-country' deportations, appeal court rules
(2026-03-16 19:35)

A US federal appeal court allowed the Trump administration on Monday to temporarily resume summarily deporting undocumented migrants to countries that are not their own. The US Court of Appeals for the First Circuit, in a 2-1 vote, lifted a block on the so-called third-country deportations that had been imposed by a lower court. District Judge Brian Murphy ruled last month that third-country deportations were unlawful but put his ruling on hold to allow the government time to file an appeal. The...

- Trump administration urges judge to revisit ruling blocking subpoenas to Jerome Powell
(2026-03-16 19:13)

US President Donald Trump's administration has asked a judge to reconsider his ruling that has effectively blocked a criminal investigation into US Federal Reserve Chairman Jerome Powell, according to court documents made public on Monday. Washington-based US District Judge James Boasberg in a ruling unsealed on Friday blocked subpoenas issued by federal prosecutors in January seeking information about cost overruns in renovations at the Fed's headquarters and Powell’ s testimony to Congress...

- Washington signals it wants China kept out of Brazil’ s largest port auction (2026-03-16 19:12)

A United States diplomat has told Brazilian port industry executives that Washington does not want a Chinese company to win the concession for a major container terminal in Santos, the largest port in Latin America, in the latest sign that the race for one of Brazil’ s most prized infrastructure assets has become a front in the broader rivalry between Washington and Beijing. Kevin Murakami, the US consul-general in Sao Paulo, made the comments on March 5, at an event organised by Grupo A Tribuna,...

- Zelensky to visit UK as Starmer says it is ‘vital’ to continue supporting Ukraine (2026-03-16 18:24)

The UK will “welcome” Volodymyr Zelensky on Tuesday, British Defence Secretary John Healey told parliament, with the Ukrainian leader expected to travel to Madrid, Spain the next day. “Our total determination to stand with Ukraine remains steadfast and we will welcome President Zelensky to this country tomorrow,” Healey said on Monday. Healey’ s announcement came hours after UK Prime Minister Keir Starmer said he would be meeting the Ukrainian leader “soon” . Ukraine’ s European allies have vowed...

- Oscar-winner Sean Penn skips Academy Awards ceremony to visit Zelensky in Kyiv (2026-03-16 17:32)

Sean Penn, who won a best supporting actor Oscar for One Battle After Another on Sunday, was in Ukraine on Monday where he met President Volodymyr Zelensky in a show of support for the war-torn country. An Agence France-Presse reporter saw the Mystic River star getting out of a black car in central Kyiv earlier on Monday, wearing sunglasses and carrying a box of cigarettes. Penn, a vocal advocate for Ukraine who has visited the country several times, on Sunday won his third acting Oscar but was...

- BBC asks Florida court to dismiss Trump’ s US\$10 billion lawsuit over January 6 speech edit (2026-03-16 17:01)

The BBC said on Monday it had asked a US federal court in Florida to dismiss a US$10 billion lawsuit brought by US President Donald Trump against the British broadcaster. Trump launched a lawsuit last year over a BBC documentary that edited his 2021 speech ahead of the US Capitol riot. The documentary was “never aired in Florida – or the US” or available to stream there on any platform, a representative for the British Broadcasting Corporation said in a comment sent to Agence France-Presse. It...

- Emirates flies full flights out of Dubai, near-empty ones back (2026-03-16 15:46)

Emirates is operating flights to Dubai that are near-empty in some cases as travellers avoid the Persian Gulf, highlighting the challenges for the world’ s largest international airline to restore its network amid a protracted war. Flights from destinations in the US and continental Europe have been hit the hardest, with planes returning from Prague or Budapest only about 5 to 10 per cent occupied, according to data compiled by the Dubai-based airline. Several aircraft returning from New York...

- China under pressure as Trump ties high-stakes summit to Strait of Hormuz crisis

(2026-03-16 15:00)

Trump's threat to postpone his Beijing trip unless China helps break Iran's blockade of the Strait of Hormuz has fused two crises Beijing had sought to keep apart: the unravelling of Middle East stability and the fragile thaw in US-China relations. China, the world's largest buyer of Gulf oil, is now being forced to weigh its economic reliance on stable energy routes against its tradition of non-interference in diplomacy, according to observers. While Beijing is eager to host Trump for a...

- Nepal's LGBTQ community celebrates first transgender woman lawmaker

(2026-03-16 15:00)

Draped in garlands, Bhumika Shrestha on Monday became Nepal's first transgender woman lawmaker, marking a proud milestone for the marginalised community in the Himalayan nation. Nepal's Election Commission confirmed the 37-year-old as a proportional representation MP from the centrist Rastriya Swatantra Party (RSP), which won a majority in parliament with 182 seats last week. "I am very excited but also feel the responsibility on my shoulders," said Shrestha, an LGBTQ rights advocate. "Our...

- 'Evil' UK nursery worker who raped toddlers in his care jailed for 24 years

(2026-03-16 14:33)

An "evil" UK nursery worker who raped and abused two- and three-year-olds in his care was jailed for at least 24 years on Monday, weeks after another childcare worker was imprisoned in a similar case. Nathan Bennett, 30, was jailed at Bristol Crown Court in southwest England for the serial abuse of five boys at the nursery where he worked. He was described as an "incorrigible and dangerous paedophile" by Judge William Hart, handing down the sentence. "You prioritised your own sexual satisfaction..."

- ‘Super Rich’ star David Yong hit with 12 new fraud charges in Singapore (2026-03-16 13:52)

Singaporean businessman David Yong was given 12 new charges on Monday for conspiring to make false entries in accounts and for his company’s illegal issuing of loans amounting to more than S$1 million (US$780,000). The 38-year-old, whose name in court papers was indicated as Yong Khung Lin, pleaded not guilty in court. The chief executive officer of multinational business and holding company Evergreen Group Holdings, who is on bail of S$1 million, said he would contest all charges. The new...

- Northern Metropolis to streamline land approval process from 9 to 2 months: sources (2026-03-16 13:39)

Hong Kong’s Northern Metropolis megaproject near the border with mainland China will adopt laws to streamline land approval procedures from nine to two months in a move to speed up its development, the South China Morning Post has learned. Sources said that details of the dedicated legislation for the Northern Metropolis would be announced on Tuesday, with a major highlight being the shortening of land-use approval procedures. These measures align with the newly unveiled 15th national five-year...

- What lessons does Taiwan see from Iran and Ukraine for its air-defence strategy? (2026-03-16 13:30)

Lessons from the wars in Iran and Ukraine are pushing Taipei to rethink its air-defence strategy, with officials now warning that expensive missiles alone cannot stop large waves of rockets and drones. In a report submitted to Taiwan’s lawmakers on Monday, the island’s defence ministry said low-cost interceptor weapons were urgently needed to counter the mainland Chinese military’s growing arsenal of long-range rockets and uncrewed aircraft. The new systems would form part of Taiwan’s planned...

- Alibaba reshuffles AI units into a new ‘Token Hub’ group, led by CEO Eddie Wu (2026-03-16 13:19)

Alibaba Group Holding has reshuffled its artificial intelligence operations, creating a new top level business group and placing CEO Eddie Wu Yongming in charge as the AI and e-commerce powerhouse accelerates its push into the emerging token economy. The company said on Monday it had established the Alibaba Token Hub (ATH) Business Group, which brings all its core AI teams and products together under one umbrella. This includes Tongyi Laboratory – the developer of Alibaba’s Qwen series of...

- Frenchman jailed for 10 years in Azerbaijan: ‘I’m not a spy’ (2026-03-16 12:54)

Azerbaijan on Monday sentenced a Frenchman to 10 years in prison in an espionage case launched during a period of diplomatic tensions between Paris and Baku that have now eased. Martin Ryan was arrested in December 2023 and went on trial in January last year, when relations between Azerbaijan and France had deteriorated to new lows over Paris’ support for Armenia, Baku's long-time rival. The court found him guilty of spying against Azerbaijan and sentenced him to 10 years. Prosecutors had sought...

- China and the US end trade talks in Paris as doubts form over Trump visit (2026-03-16 12:48)

China and the US wrapped up their sixth round of trade talks in Paris on Monday, with the agenda ranging from a possible extension of bilateral tariff and non-tariff measures as well as bilateral investment. "China and the US conducted deep, frank and constructive consultations," Chinese vice commerce minister Li Chenggang said. Both sides agreed to "continue to maintain the stability of tariffs" and discussed the possibility of establishing a mechanism for promoting bilateral investment, said...

- Hong Kong in new push to get young people to register as voters (2026-03-16 12:33)

Young people can opt to make self-declarations to be exempted from producing proof of address to register as electors under a new Hong Kong government drive to boost voter numbers, lawmakers have been told. A commissioner for oaths will be stationed at each Immigration Department registration of persons office, where young people replace their juvenile identity cards with adult ones upon turning 18. The initiative was outlined as officials presented the 2026 voter registration campaign at...

- Malaysia's Petronas wins right to challenge Sarawak gas laws in court (2026-03-16 12:32)

Malaysia's highest court on Monday allowed national energy firm Petronas to pursue a legal bid to challenge several laws passed by the state of Sarawak, amid a protracted dispute over gas distribution rights. Sarawak, on Borneo island, is home to more than 60 per cent of Malaysia's gas reserves and has long sought greater control over its natural resources. In recent years, it has passed laws and appointed its own firm Petros to procure, distribute, supply and sell all natural gas in the state,...

- Why Trump's push for China to help reopen the Strait of Hormuz may hurt trade talks (2026-03-16 12:30)

US President Donald Trump's reported threat that he may postpone a long-awaited visit to China – unless Beijing helps unblock the Iran-controlled Strait of Hormuz – may put the current trade talks in Paris at risk by sidelining earlier priorities and potential deals, analysts say. As the US-Israeli war in Iran enters its third week and disrupts global energy markets, Trump has reportedly urged Beijing to send warships to help reopen the strait and ease oil shipments. About 20 per cent of the...

- Europe says it must rearm – but to what end? (2026-03-16 12:30)

With the Middle East ablaze and war in Ukraine showing no sign of respite, a stark new consensus is hardening in Paris, London and Berlin that Europe must rearm. Recently, French President Emmanuel Macron signalled a pivotal shift in deterrence by announcing an increase in the nation's nuclear warheads and a "forward deterrence" plan. This follows a rare joint appeal from the British and German defence chiefs, who urged Europeans to build a moral and strategic case for a massive surge in...

- Fix, don't fire 'digital employee' OpenClaw over security risks: Paul Chan (2026-03-16 12:02)

Hong Kong's finance chief has likened the powerful AI agent OpenClaw to an efficient "digital employee", saying it should not be dismissed but rather improved to address security risk concerns. Financial Secretary Paul Chan Mo-po's remarks on Monday followed a recent Digital Policy Office advisory urging government departments to avoid installing OpenClaw or its variants due to security concerns. "AI agent OpenClaw has awed the world; the convenience it offers is just like having a digital...

- AI poisoning: fake fitness tracker fools chatbots in China, sparking outcry (2026-03-16 12:00)

An undercover investigation by state-run China Central Television (CCTV) has cast a harsh light on a controversial practice in a nascent industry: the "poisoning" of artificial intelligence models with fabricated information. The report showed how techniques of generative engine optimisation (GEO) – the AI version of search engine optimisation (SEO) – could be used to manipulate AI chatbots, provoking widespread public concern and debate as both industry insiders and observers anticipated...

- Hong Kong businessman expected to take loss on Peak properties he bought for US\$255m (2026-03-16 11:53)

Luxury residential property on Hong Kong's Peak Road owned by businessman Chan King-wai has been put up for sale by public tender, several years after he acquired it from companies linked to CK group. Marketing agent JLL said on Monday that the adjoining sites at 86, 88 and 90 Peak Road are being offered for joint sale by tender. The residential lots have a combined area of about 28,620 sq ft. The site could attract bids of about HK$70,000 (US$8,939) to HK$100,000 per square foot, said Joseph...

- Arrest of stateless teen in Malaysia highlights plight of Sabah's 1 million non-citizens (2026-03-16 11:49)

The arrest of a 17-year-old stateless teenager during a school outing to buy Eid clothes at a Sabah mall for allegedly failing to show valid residence papers, has returned scrutiny to Malaysia's treatment of undocumented people. Niko Ansboy, a student at Borneo Komrad, an alternative school for stateless children, was waiting outside a store during a school trip to the 1 Borneo Hypermall when police detained him on Sunday. He was stopped by officers patrolling after the Kota Kinabalu District...

- Papers please: China raises pressure on Panama amid canal row with ship inspection wave (2026-03-16 11:30)

Beijing has increased its inspections on Panama-flagged vessels entering Chinese ports, a source from the shipping industry said, an action intended to raise the Latin American country's stress level after its courts voided the operating rights of Hong Kong-based conglomerate CK Hutchison in the Panama Canal. Port state control (PSC) – the inspection regime countries may deploy to verify the compliance of foreign ships with various international standards – was being used as a form of leverage...

- PLA ramps up Taiwan patrols after lull as Beijing slams Lai's 'independence confession' (2026-03-16 11:19)

The People's Liberation Army ramped up aircraft sorties near Taiwan over the weekend, ending two weeks of relative calm just as a defiant speech by Taiwanese leader William Lai Ching-te drew a strong rebuke from Beijing. From 6am on Saturday to 6am on Sunday, Taiwan detected 26 PLA aircraft sorties operating around the island. Sixteen of these entered the island's air defence identification zone (ADIZ), according to data released by Taiwan's defence ministry on Sunday. The 26 sorties marked a...

- China: we're still talking to US about Trump trip after threat to delay over Iran crisis (2026-03-16 10:33)

China said on Monday it was still talking to the United States about President Donald Trump's planned visit later this month, following his threat to delay the trip. Trump has been trying to pressure countries that rely heavily on oil from the Persian Gulf to help reopen the Strait of Hormuz, a strategic waterway that Iran has effectively closed in retaliation for US and Israeli attacks. On Sunday, he told the Financial Times "it's only appropriate that people who are the beneficiaries of the..."

- Most Filipino women think a woman's place is in the home, survey finds (2026-03-16 10:30)

The Philippines ranks among Asia's most gender-equal societies by several international measures. Yet ask Filipino women where they truly belong and most will still tell you: at home. A new survey has found that 83 per cent of Filipino women agree "being a housewife is just as fulfilling as working for pay", up from 70 per cent when the same question was posed in 1994. The findings, released by independent pollster Social Weather Stations earlier in March to coincide with National Women's Month,...

- Iran to turn bombed girls' school into museum commemorating US 'crimes' (2026-03-16 10:19)

Iran plans to convert the girls' school that was bombed on the first day of the war into a museum commemorating the nearly 200 victims of the strike. "This school is a living document of the Americans' willingness to commit crimes and must be registered and documented for preservation in the historical memory of the Iranian people,” the Iranian government said in a statement issued on Monday. At least 168 pupils aged between seven and 12 years old, 26 teachers and four parents were killed in the...

- Google to open Gemini chatbot to all Hong Kong users amid city’s AI push (2026-03-16 10:15)

Tech giant Google will gradually roll out its generative AI services to all users in Hong Kong starting with the Gemini web app before introducing a mobile version for the chatbot and virtual assistant. The move is expected to eliminate the barriers that previously forced many residents to use virtual private networks (VPNs) or third-party platforms to access Google’s flagship artificial intelligence (AI) models or other alternatives. “We believe expanding the Gemini experience will drive more...

- How China ethnic minority groups use chicken bones of small roosters to predict fortunes (2026-03-16 10:00)

Ethnic minority groups in China have long relied on a gruesome method to predict their fortunes: beating a rooster to death and reading its femur bones, a practice that has lasted for centuries. Tracing back to the Tang (618–907) and Song (960–1279) dynasties, the custom is known as “Dajibu”, meaning chicken divination. It originated from ancient spiritual beliefs in southwestern China, where people lacking access to medicine would beat bronze drums to pray for healing. Chicken bone divination...

- Strait of Hormuz marks first full day’s pause as no ships cross amid Iran war (2026-03-16 09:30)

Maritime tracking data showed that no ships passed through the Strait of Hormuz on Saturday, marking the first full day without any confirmed commercial traffic in either direction since February 28, when the US and Israel began military strikes on Iran. Crossings dropped to zero, below the previous seven-day average of 2.57 daily transits, according to maritime analytics firm Windward. Although no vessels entered the waterway that day, about 400 ships sailed in the Gulf of Oman on Friday, it...

- Senior Hong Kong policeman denies molesting clerk in indecent assault case (2026-03-16 09:15)

A senior Hong Kong police officer has denied molesting a government clerk at the force’s headquarters more than a year ago. Senior Superintendent Ian Chow Ngai-kong, 50, on Monday stood trial at Eastern Court on three counts of indecent assault over the alleged incidents at police headquarters in Wan Chai on June 19 and November 1, 2024. The court heard the complainant, a senior clerical officer from the Civil Service Bureau, was seconded to the police force to provide administrative support...

- Confusion over Malaysia-US trade deal as ‘null and void’ claim retracted (2026-03-16 09:14)

Malaysia’s government has been forced onto the defensive over its much-touted tariff deal with the United States, after a minister walked back an earlier claim that the agreement had been rendered “null and void” by a US Supreme Court ruling. Prime Minister Anwar Ibrahim’s administration signed the deal in October, promising US$240 billion in investments and purchases of American goods, including beef and aircraft, in exchange for continued access to the world’s largest consumer market at a...

- Dubai flights disrupted after drone attack near airport; missile kills 1 in Abu Dhabi (2026-03-16 09:14)

Missiles and drone attacks hit across the UAE on Monday, with a drone-related incident sparking a fuel tank fire near Dubai airport that disrupted travel, while a missile killed a civilian in Abu Dhabi. In the eastern emirate of Fujairah, a drone attack on oil infrastructure sparked a fire, just one day after smoke was seen rising from a major UAE energy installation in the emirate. The attacks came a day after Iranian foreign minister Abbas Araghchi said in an interview that rockets had been...

- 2 dead after Japanese school trip boats capsize off US military base site in Okinawa (2026-03-16 09:11)

Two boats carrying 21 people capsized on Monday off Henoko, a controversial relocation site for a US military base off Japan’s southern island of Okinawa, throwing all into the water and leaving two of them dead, officials said. The Japan Coast Guard said 18 of them were students from a Kyoto high school on two boats, 10 on Heiwa Maru and eight on the smaller Fukutsu, to observe the Henoko area as part of their peace education programme. Rescuers pulled all 21 people out of the water, but...

- China may snub Trump plea for help in Strait of Hormuz (2026-03-16 09:04)

US President Donald Trump said he may put off a planned visit to Beijing as he sought to press China and other nations into helping reopen the Strait of Hormuz amid the war in Iran. “We may delay” the trip, he told the Financial Times on Sunday, without saying for how long. The visit, scheduled for March 31 to April 2, includes a summit with Chinese President Xi Jinping. Trump has “demanded” that about seven countries help to reopen the Strait of Hormuz, he told reporters on Sunday, as the...

- Malaysia’s US\$6 billion megaport imperils Mah Meri way of life (2026-03-16 09:00)

Lingan bin Man pulls up to the fishing jetty in the early afternoon, guiding his small boat towards a narrow strip of wooden planks as waves crash against the dock. On board are his wife and toddler. Together, the Malaysian family inspects the day’s catch: 2kg (4.4lbs) of clams after three hours at sea. “I can sell this for US$7,” the 52-year-old said. For fishermen in Kampung Sungai Kurau, a village on Pulau Carey, an island in Selangor state, this has become the new normal. Members of the Mah...

- Could this Chinese breakthrough pave way for global organ transplant system? (2026-03-16 09:00)

A team of scientists in China has developed a way to freeze and revive organs for transplant, extending their viability from as little as six hours to several days, according to a peer-reviewed study published in the Journal of Medical Devices. While the technology is still at the experimental stage and has not yet progressed to human trials, it could one day transform the entire field of organ transplantation, especially for hearts, the researchers say. “If just half of the currently discarded...

- Shanghai sees massive F1 turnout, boosting city’ s pitch as sporting destination (2026-03-16 08:00)

The Formula One (F1) Chinese Grand Prix drew record crowds over the weekend, another indication the wide-ranging efforts from host city Shanghai to raise its profile as a global sports and event destination are paying off. The three-day event, which concluded on Sunday, attracted more than 230,000 cumulative spectators, the highest attendance headcount reported by the Chinese financial centre in nearly two decades. On the opening day, the number of foreign arrivals through Shanghai’ s ports...

- AI to narrow China’ s rural-urban economic divide (2026-03-16 07:00)

China is counting on artificial intelligence (AI) to help the 450 million people living in rural areas left behind by the nation’ s economic boom. Farmers are already benefiting from the technology, using AI offerings such as DeepSeek or ByteDance’ s Doubao for help with issues like pig rearing, pest control and government subsidies. The State Council’ s “No 1 document” of 2026, extended a push for the “digital upgrading” of farming, with an emphasis on the greater integration of AI, drones, robots...

- Myanmar’ s junta-proxy parliament meets for first time since 2021 coup (2026-03-16 06:51)

Five years after armoured vehicles rolled through the streets of Myanmar’ s capital and the generals tore up an election result they did not like, a new parliament sat for the first time on Monday. The legislature that convened in Naypyidaw was stacked almost entirely with allies of Senior General Min Aung Hlaing, the coup leader who ousted the elected government of Aung San Suu Kyi in 2021. In Myanmar’ s recent election, held across barely a third of the country, the army-backed Union Solidarity...

- China’ s supply chain meets the wall of African resource nationalism (2026-03-16 06:36)

Resource-rich African nations are increasingly asserting control over critical minerals to maximise domestic returns, sending global prices soaring and exerting pressure on Chinese supply chains. One price crunch started last month when Zimbabwe, Africa’ s biggest lithium producer, abruptly suspended exports of raw lithium minerals and concentrates. The country had originally planned to impose the ban in 2027 to encourage more local value-added processing of the mineral but the government brought...

- Elderly driver arrested after car mounts pavement in Hong Kong, injuring 9 (2026-03-16 06:36)

A 75-year-old driver has been arrested in Hong Kong after stepping on the wrong pedal in his car and mounting the pavement, injuring eight pedestrians and throwing his passenger from the vehicle. Police were called to Lam Hing Street in Kowloon Bay at about 12.40pm on Monday following reports of a car veering onto the walkway outside the car park of Metro Centre II. Surveillance footage showed the man attempting to make a U-turn before the accident happened, according to the force. His...

- 20 Thai sailors return home after Iranian attack in Strait of Hormuz (2026-03-16 06:24)

Twenty Thai crew members of a cargo ship attacked in the crucial Strait of Hormuz arrived in Thailand on Monday, with three of their colleagues still stranded on the vessel in the Gulf. The Thai-registered Mayuree Naree was hit by two projectiles on Wednesday while transiting through the Gulf waterway, after departing a port in the United Arab Emirates. Iran's Revolutionary Guards said they had struck the Thai ship, as well as a Liberia-flagged vessel, in the strait because they had ignored...

With his peroxide blond hair, dark moustache and luxuriant eyebrows, London-born curator and writer James Taylor-Foster is easy to pick out among the tourists and selfie-takers in the courtyard of Yick Cheong Building, also known as the “Monster Building”, in Hong Kong's Quarry Bay neighbourhood. The South China Morning Post is meeting the 33-year-old here shortly after the board of the Hong Kong non-profit art space Para Site chose him to be its next executive director. That space, a few...

- China woman uses AI-generated man to lecture on respecting science, rejecting superstition (2026-03-16 06:00)

Young people in China are contributing to a fake account generated by artificial intelligence (AI) to lecture their parents about healthy and scientific life values. A social media account called “Lao Zhao jiang dao li”, or “Mr Zhao talks sense”, went viral recently, amassing over 200,000 followers in just two months. The man surnamed Zhao, based in southwestern China's Chongqing municipality, claimed in his profile that he is a retired professor who has specialised in parent-child relationships...

- Couple to face child neglect charges after son swept into sea during Typhoon Ragasa (2026-03-16 05:35)

A Hong Kong couple whose five-year-old son was swept into the sea at a waterfront during Super Typhoon Ragasa last year have been charged with child neglect and are set to appear in court on Tuesday. Police revealed on Monday that the boy's father, a 40-year-old man surnamed Yen, and mother, a 38-year-old woman surnamed Li, were arrested in Chai Wan on January 6 and were charged last Wednesday with ill-treatment or neglect by those in charge of a child or young person. The case will be heard at...

- Hong Kong watchdog warns 24-hour gym users of hidden costs, data privacy risks (2026-03-16 05:03)

Monthly fees at Hong Kong's 24-hour fitness centres vary widely and can more than double depending on additional charges, the Consumer Council has found, as it warned residents to be cautious when providing sensitive personal data, including facial images for recognition systems. The consumer watchdog revealed on Monday the results of a survey of 11 round-the-clock gym operators, finding that although all offered monthly membership plans, nearly half imposed extra non-refundable charges that...

- Malaysia's government accused of using law to silence critics (2026-03-16 04:52)

Several Malaysian civil society groups on Monday accused Prime Minister Anwar Ibrahim's government of using a harsh criminal law provision to intimidate critics after police questioned activists, academics and political researchers over an alleged plot to topple the government. The backlash follows an announcement in late February that police were investigating allegations of a conspiracy to "topple the government and sabotage national stability" involving "a local influential figure" and an...

- Things 'I do not like' drove me to quit US for Hong Kong: top mathematician Ngo Bao Chau (2026-03-16 04:00)

World-leading Vietnamese mathematician Ngo Bao Chau has said his decision to leave the US was not just the result of the worsening academic environment there, but also a vision to transform Asia into the next global powerhouse for maths and science. Ngo, the first Vietnamese recipient of the prestigious Fields Medal, will join the University of Hong Kong in June. "I want Asia to be the next America or the next Europe [as] a place where science and mathematics strive," he said in an interview on...

- Philippines' Jollibee stands out as Southeast Asia' s global restaurant exception (2026-03-16 04:00)

From Singapore' s hawker stalls to Thailand' s street markets and Vietnam' s noodle shops, Southeast Asia is home to some of the world' s most celebrated food cultures. Yet the region has produced relatively few restaurant chains with global brand recognition, even as Chinese food and beverage groups climb international rankings. Analysts say structural factors – including smaller domestic markets, fragmented regional consumer tastes and fewer brands expanding aggressively overseas – have slowed the...

- Guess says it will shut all mainland China stores amid retail rethink (2026-03-16 03:12)

US fashion brand Guess has told customers it will close all its stores in mainland China by the end of March, pending a new business model at a time when a growing number of international fashion retailers retreat from the market amid what analysts believe are issues including weak localisation and slow decision-making. Other foreign brands that have withdrawn entirely from mainland China in recent years include US label Old Navy, UK brand Topshop, and several labels owned by Spanish fashion...

- Courier SF Express imposes temporary fuel surcharges within Hong Kong and Macau (2026-03-16 03:09)

China' s largest courier, SF Express, will introduce temporary fuel surcharges for local document and parcel deliveries within Hong Kong and Macau, set at HK$1 (13 US cents) and MOP$1, respectively, starting Monday amid a surge in global oil prices. The Shenzhen-based company said on Sunday that the surcharge was introduced in response to “the recent drastic fluctuations in global fuel prices due to the international situation,” adding that monthly credit account clients would not be subject to...

- Malaysia will not intervene militarily in Middle East, Anwar says (2026-03-16 02:37)

Malaysia cannot get involved in what is happening in the Middle East, especially not via military intervention, Prime Minister Anwar Ibrahim has said. He said that as a free country, Malaysia could voice its objections towards war and violence – but not by sending in troops. Dialogue and engagement should be the means to resolve any form of disputes, he said. “We do not agree when any country is attacked and colonised. We do not want any country to interfere in our national affairs,” he said on...

- How Asean can loosen dependence on US, China amid trade war fallout (2026-03-16 02:00)

As trade tensions and new US tariff investigations rattle global supply chains, Southeast Asian economies are looking to broaden their options, but analysts say the region' s deep links with the US and China mean any shift will be gradual rather than a clean break. The disruption could actually work in Asean' s favour, accelerating supply-chain diversification and shifting more manufacturing to the region from markets such as Europe, India and the Middle East, they say.

Economic ministers from the...

- China' s economy starts 2026 strongly as retail sales, investment rise (2026-03-16 02:00)

China' s economy got off to a strong start in 2026, as several indicators registered expectation-beating expansions in the first two months – though analysts cautioned the imminent energy crisis caused by the US-Israel war in Iran would present challenges for Beijing and the world at large in the months to come. Resilience in industrial output and retail sales, as well as a small expansion in fixed-asset investment, will provide a vital boost to Beijing as it strives to achieve an economic growth...

- Mainland-style oversight system could help Legco to deliver (2026-03-16 01:30)

After the annual “two sessions” in Beijing, it' s clear that Hong Kong policymakers have their work cut out for them. It has been made abundantly clear what is expected of Hong Kong: stop messing around and get on with the national programme. Hong Kong is part of the nation' s plans to move forward. The country knows exactly where the city fits into the big picture, how it can catapult growth in key areas and play the role of superconnector between China and the rest of the world. The 15th...

- Hong Kong regulator sets 'comprehensive' review of medical insurance costs (2026-03-16 01:00)

Hong Kong' s Insurance Authority aims to increase transparency and the available range of medical insurance products to address rising costs, while also reviewing regulations with an eye towards attracting more international life-insurance buyers. “We would like to see the insurance companies introduce more medical insurance products that are more accessible and affordable for the general public, with sales practices that are fair to consumers,” said Clement Lau Chung-kin, the authority' s...

- China Liaoning warship' s sole female senior officer urges fellow women to prioritise professional skills (2026-03-16 01:00)

The sole female senior officer aboard China' s Liaoning aircraft carrier has urged women to put aside their gender and focus on professionalism and responsibility. On March 7, during the 14th National People' s Congress (NPC) in Beijing, a poised and confident female military deputy in uniform captured nationwide attention. Zhu Yuemeng, 36, from a modest family in Jilin province, northeastern China, is a naval lieutenant colonel and serves as a political instructor on board the Liaoning aircraft...

- 30% jump in demand for regional holidays among Hongkongers amid Middle East war (2026-03-16 00:30)

Demand for some regional holiday destinations among Hong Kong travellers has jumped by as much as 30 per cent ahead of Easter, as locals seek to avoid long-haul trips amid rising airfares and disrupted routes caused by the ongoing war in Iran, according to industry players. Travel agencies said the number of inquiries for trips to Japan, South Korea, mainland China and Australia had risen by between 10 and 30 per cent since the war escalated, while demand for destinations linked to the Middle...

- Trump wants Japanese warships in Hormuz. Can Takaichi ‘dodge the bullet’ ? (2026-03-16 00:00)

The rapidly escalating conflict in the Middle East threatens to overshadow this week’s meeting between Japan’s Prime Minister Sanae Takaichi and US President Donald Trump, where the two leaders are expected to deepen economic cooperation and collaboration in shipbuilding. Thursday’s summit at the White House puts Takaichi in a bind, caught between Trump’s call for Tokyo and others to send warships to help reopen the Strait of Hormuz and her country’s constitutional limits on taking part in...

- Precision strike: China targets US, Japan stranglehold on photoresist supply (2026-03-16 00:00)

China’s push for semiconductor self-sufficiency is shifting from broad aspiration to a precision strike on chokepoint materials, with photoresist – the light-sensitive chemical essential for etching microscopic circuits onto silicon wafers – emerging as a new battlefield. The sector, which provides the key material for lithography, was expected to enter a critical stage of “accelerated breakthroughs and large-scale application” over the coming years, according to Fu Zhiwei, chairman of Xuzhou...

- Trump warns Nato faces ‘very bad future’ if allies fail to help US in opening Strait of Hormuz (2026-03-15 22:59)

US President Donald Trump has warned that Nato faces a “very bad” future if US allies fail to help in opening up the Strait of Hormuz, in an interview with the Financial Times published on Sunday. Trump told the newspaper he could also delay his summit with China’s President Xi Jinping later this month as he presses Beijing to help unblock the crucial waterway. “It’s only appropriate that people who are the beneficiaries of the Strait will help to make sure that nothing bad...

- How US-Israel war on Iran rocks foundations of the Abraham Accords (2026-03-15 21:30)

The 2020 Abraham Accords were heralded as a transformative diplomatic breakthrough in the Middle East. The US-brokered agreements normalised relations between Israel and Arab states including the United Arab Emirates (UAE) and Bahrain. They established full diplomatic relations, opening embassies, initiating direct commercial flights, expanding trade ties and encouraging people-to-people exchanges. The accords were notable because the participating Arab states agreed to normalise relations with...

- Afghan asylum seeker dies in ICE custody, US advocacy group says (2026-03-15 20:27)

An Afghan immigrant who previously worked with the US military in Afghanistan and later sought asylum in the United States died this weekend in Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) custody less than 24 hours after being detained in Texas, a US veteran-led advocacy group said on Sunday. Mohommad Nazeer Paktyawal, who was living in a Dallas suburb with his wife and six children while his asylum case remained pending, was arrested by federal agents outside his flat on Friday morning while...

- Police arrest 12 as hundreds join banned pro-Palestinian march in London (2026-03-15 19:43)

Hundreds of people turned out in London on Sunday for a pro-Palestinian march banned by the government after police said it was organised by a group “supportive of the Iranian regime”. Police said in a statement they had arrested 12 people and were investigating anti-Israeli chants allegedly made at the rally. Interior Minister Shabana Mahmood said earlier this week she had agreed to the ban to “prevent serious public disorder” in the context of the continuing conflict in the Middle East, where...

- Gaza’ s Rafah crossing to open on Wednesday ‘for limited movement of people’ , Israel says (2026-03-15 18:49)

Gaza’ s main gateway, the Rafah crossing with Egypt that was closed at the start of the Iran war, will open on Wednesday for limited movement of people in both directions, Israel’ s COGAT, the military body in charge of humanitarian matters, said on Sunday. The crossing had reopened in early February after being largely shut since May 2024, in the early months of Israel’ s war against Hamas in Gaza. Its reopening offered some relief to Palestinians who want to leave Gaza for medical...

- Iran says women’ s football captain has withdrawn Australia asylum bid (2026-03-15 18:00)

The captain of the Iranian women’ s football team which played in the Asian Cup in Australia has withdrawn her bid for asylum, state media said on Sunday, making her the fifth member of the delegation to change her mind. A former player and a Persian-language television channel based outside Iran said the players had been pressured to reverse their stance through threats against families back home. But Iranian authorities have in turn accused Australia of pressuring the players to stay. Captain...

- US-China trade talks: low-key start to negotiations after first meeting in Paris (2026-03-15 17:33)

China and the US ended the first day of trade talks in Paris on Sunday without any major developments. Talks will continue tomorrow when the US delegation is set to leave. The Chinese delegation will stay one more day before leaving on Tuesday. The first day of the sixth round of trade talks between the world's two biggest economies – led by Chinese Vice-Premier He Lifeng and US Treasury Secretary Scott Bessent – was rather uneventful for journalists waiting outside the venue, the headquarters...

- Brother of Michigan synagogue attacker was Hezbollah commander, Israeli military claims (2026-03-15 17:12)

The brother of the man who attacked a Michigan synagogue last week, who was killed earlier this month in an Israeli air strike, was a Hezbollah commander, Israel's military claimed on Sunday. Ibrahim Ghazali was killed in Lebanon along with three other of the attacker's relatives on March 5 - a week before authorities allege Ayman Mohamad Ghazali drove his car into a major synagogue outside Detroit and killed himself after security fired at him. The FBI's Detroit office, which is investigating...

- IEA says oil from emergency stocks to flow in Asia and Oceania immediately (2026-03-15 16:02)

The International Energy Agency (IEA) said oil from a record stockpile release will be made available in Asia and Oceania immediately as buyers in the region clamour to replace barrels lost to war-related disruptions in the Middle East. The agency released a statement after it said it received implementation plans from member states. Barrels for Europe and the Americas will only be made available from the end of March. The IEA last week said that the oil market is seeing the biggest supply...

- US energy chief signals Iran war could continue for several more weeks (2026-03-15 15:30)

Energy Secretary Chris Wright signalled the war with Iran may last several more weeks, with oil and petrol prices elevated as the US and Israel seek to destroy Iranian military capabilities. In television interviews on Sunday, Wright defended the Trump administration's argument that Americans are facing short-term pain at the pump in a midterm election year for the larger goal of eliminating Iran as a threat to the Middle East. "I think that this conflict will certainly come to the end in the..."

- Search under way for 68 year old man missing since Friday in Hong Kong (2026-03-15 14:37)

Hong Kong authorities were searching on Sunday for a 68 year old man who has been missing for two days after leaving his home in Tai Po. Lau Kin pong left his residence at Wan Tau Tong Estate at around 3pm on Friday. His family became unable to contact him and filed a missing person report on Saturday. He was last seen that afternoon on Shan Tong Road in TaiPo. Lau is described as about 1.7 metres tall (5 feet, 7 inches), weighing 60kg (132lbs), of thinbuild with short white hair. He was last...

Online influencer brothers Andrew and Tristan Tate, who both face rape and human trafficking charges in Romania and the United Kingdom, were reported to have entered Hong Kong over the weekend, sparking heated discussion online. Andrew posted a video of him and Tristan on a luxury boat in Victoria Harbour on X on Sunday, while other posts showed the brothers visiting the Lan Kwai Fong nightlife district and a crab restaurant in Causeway Bay. A video he posted a day earlier showed him singing...

- Over 300 Wang Fuk Court homeowners to petition Hong Kong’ s John Lee for meeting (2026-03-15 14:22)

More than 300 homeowners from the fire-ravaged Wang Fuk Court in Tai Po have signed a petition to be sent to Hong Kong’ s leader, demanding a face-to-face meeting with the government-appointed Hop On Management Company over unresolved issues. The letter to Chief Executive John Lee Ka-chiu, obtained by the South China Morning Post on Sunday, bore 336 signatures and raised concerns in seven areas. These include the use of remaining renovation funds, the handling of outstanding management fees and...

- Could the PLA’ s new shipborne drone redefine naval operations in the South China Sea? (2026-03-15 14:00)

A new type of autonomous helicopter has been seen operating on the Type 075 amphibious assault ship, possibly improving the People’ s Liberation Army’ s (PLA) capabilities in the Taiwan Strait and the South China Sea. Mainland state broadcaster CCTV on Thursday released a video explaining the operational capabilities of China’ s Type 075 amphibious assault ship. It showed a lightweight uncrewed helicopter parked on the ship with folding rotors that appeared to be slightly smaller than the PLA’ s...

- Over 800,000 Lebanese – 1 in 7 of the population – displaced by war in 10 days

(2026-03-15 13:54)

Fatima Nazha slept on the street for two days after she and her family fled their home in Beirut's southern suburbs following an Israeli mass evacuation order. All of the schools the government turned into shelters were full, and the family could not afford a hotel or a flat, so she and her husband eventually moved into a tent in the country's biggest stadium while their children and grandchildren found shelter near the southern coastal city of Sidon. In just 10 days, more than 800,000 people in...

- Hong Kong researcher sounds alarm after toxic electronic waste found in dolphins

(2026-03-15 13:28)

A Hong Kong researcher has called for stricter regulations and urged the public to use electronics more responsibly after a study found toxic pollutants from laptops, televisions and smartphones in the bodies and brains of endangered dolphins and porpoises that washed up on the city's beaches. Yuhe He, an associate professor at City University of Hong Kong and one of the study's authors, said he was alarmed to find that liquid crystal monomers (LCMs) – the pollutants identified in the research –...

- Why is Andy Lau's name carved on a 600-year-old brick from the Ming dynasty?

A 600-year-old brick bearing Hong Kong superstar Andy Lau Tak-wah's name has gone viral on social media in mainland China. Three characters, identical to the actor and singer's Chinese name, were carved into the city wall of Nanjing, the ancient capital of the early Ming dynasty (1368-1644). The inscriptions, carved into a brick now preserved at the Nanjing City Wall Museum, offer clues about the identity of the ancient namesake – whose name is pronounced “Liu Dehua” in Mandarin. The Ming-era...

The profile of one of China's top nuclear weapons scientists has been scrubbed from the website of the nation's engineering brains trust. Zhao Xiangeng, 72, was a member of the Chinese Academy of Engineering (CAE), the nation's highest academic body for engineering science and technology, but his profile page has disappeared from the CAE's site. It is not known when the page was removed, but Chinese media reports noted the change on Saturday. Similar online references to other CAE academicians,...

- ‘Two sessions’ signals China-US tech contest is entering a new era (2026-03-15 12:30)

With the conclusion of China's annual parliamentary “two sessions” meetings, emerging policy priorities suggest its relationship with the United States is entering a new technological era. This year's government work report set an economic growth target of 4.5 to 5 per cent and announced increased fiscal support for science and technology, including a 10 per cent funding rise for research and development and over 16 per cent for basic research. More than routine budget adjustments, these figures...

A passenger bus carrying Indian pilgrims slipped off a mountain road and rolled down its slopes in central Nepal, killing seven people and leaving nine more injured, police said Sunday. All seven killed were Indian pilgrims, and seven other Indian pilgrims on board were injured and taken to nearby hospitals to get medical treatment. The other two injured in the crash, which happened on Saturday night, were the Nepali bus driver and his assistant. The bus was returning after the pilgrims visited...

- Carpool: Chinese giants use idled foreign plants to fuel global expansion (2026-03-15 12:00)

Chinese carmakers, saddled with excess capacity and weak demand at home, are taking a new approach to global expansion: utilising idled facilities abandoned by international marques. By adopting an asset-light strategy, companies from Geely Auto to Great Wall Motor (GWM) can assemble their cars overseas at lower costs, broadening their influence on the global automotive sector, according to analysts. “Mindful of profitability as well as geopolitical and operating risks, Chinese carmakers are...

- Iran's Revolutionary Guards issue death threat for Israel's Netanyahu (2026-03-15 11:36)

Iran's elite Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps (IRGC) has threatened Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu with death, in a statement published on Sunday by Iran's Fars and IRNA news agencies. Netanyahu would be pursued and killed, the IRGC statement said. The announcement followed mutual overnight attacks in the war between Iran, Israel and the United States. The current round of hostilities began when Israel and the US launched a large-scale offensive against Iran on February 28. Tehran...

- In joint patrols with China, Vietnam steers course between two powers (2026-03-15 11:00)

Chinese and Vietnamese personnel will carry out a joint naval patrol and training exercise in the Gulf of Tonkin this week, extending a practice that has continued despite long-standing competing maritime claims. The joint manoeuvres will take place as part of the China-Vietnam Border Defence Friendship Exchange, which will include medical and cultural exchange events, China's defence ministry said on Sunday. They will be conducted in waters off China's Guangxi Zhuang autonomous region and...

- Hong Kong seeks to replace, not punish, underperforming Medical Council members (2026-03-15 10:35)

Hong Kong authorities have proposed replacing Medical Council members who underperform rather than punishing them as part of an overhaul following a public outcry over a 15-year delay in an alleged medical blunder inquiry. Secretary for Health Lo Chung-mau also said on Sunday the government had no plans to impose rigid deadlines for each stage of complaint handling by the quasi-judicial body, saying the requirement was "asking the impossible" and the council would "be required to" set time...

- Body tied to bags of bricks found off Hong Kong pier in 'suspicious' case (2026-03-15 10:34)

Hong Kong police have launched an investigation after the body of a 60-year-old woman tied to bags of bricks was found floating off the public pier in Sai Kung, with officers describing the circumstances as "suspicious". At about 6am on Sunday, a passer-by reported seeing what appeared to be a human figure floating about five metres (16.4 feet) off the New Public Pier. Firefighters and marine police retrieved the body. It had been bound with nylon rope and attached to three plastic bags...

- 'Black rain' : Iran war's toxic pollution will spread and last for decades (2026-03-15 10:25)

News of black rain falling on Tehran felt all too familiar to Nejat Rahmanian as he scrolled through alerts on social media feeds and tried to contact relatives on March 8. Israeli drone strikes hit giant oil depots and refineries on the outskirts of the Iranian capital a few hours earlier, setting fuel on fire and releasing columns of black smoke, which mixed with rain clouds that poured toxic chemicals onto the city later in the day. The descriptions reminded the Iranian researcher of a...

- China AI start-up Moonshot snags funds at US\$18 billion valuation (2026-03-15 10:00)

Moonshot AI is seeking to raise as much as US$1 billion in an expanded funding round that would value the start-up at about US$18 billion, more than quadrupling its valuation in just three months and underscoring growing interest in Chinese artificial intelligence developers racing to rival Silicon Valley leaders. The company behind the Kimi chatbot kicked off discussions for the latest round, people familiar with the matter said, after securing more than US$700 million earlier this year, which...

TikTok’s Chinese parent, ByteDance, has put on hold the global launch of its latest video-generation model, Seedance 2.0, after copyright disputes with major Hollywood studios and streaming platforms, The Information reported on Saturday, citing two people with direct knowledge of the situation. Reuters could not immediately verify the report. ByteDance did not immediately respond to a request for comment. ByteDance said last month it would take steps to prevent the unauthorised use of...

- Tariffs, stockpiles, distrust: the EU's messy bid to ditch China hits capacity problems (2026-03-15 09:00)

Ambassadors from the EU's 27 member states will huddle in Brussels this week to thrash out a memorandum on critical minerals with the United States. Underpinning the debate will be a tension that girds many elements of the bloc's dealings in 2026: capacity versus trust. Envoys will negotiate in the shadow of a new trade threat from US President Donald Trump, who last week shocked Brussels with a tariff investigation linked to overcapacity and forced labour of 60 economies, including China, the...

- China and US begin fresh round of trade talks in Paris (2026-03-15 08:53)

Senior officials from China and the United States have started a new round of trade talks in Paris, as the two sides seek to pave the way for US President Donald Trump's expected visit to Beijing later this month. The delegations – led by Chinese Vice-Premier He Lifeng and US Treasury Secretary Scott Bessent – arrived at the headquarters of the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) on Sunday. Talks began at 10.05am local time, according to a source familiar with the...

Hong Kong police seized HK$20 million (US$2.55 million) worth of suspected cocaine in a village house in Sha Tin and arrested a 28-year-old man in an anti-drug trafficking operation on Saturday. Senior Inspector Conrad Chan Yuen-fun, of the narcotics bureau's operation division, said on Sunday the raid stopped the drugs from reaching the market. The operation followed an investigation revealing the house in Sha Tin was being used to store illicit drugs, Chan said. "Officers lay in wait outside...

- Top of the world: why Indonesian workers are happiest in Asia-Pacific (2026-03-15 08:00)

A survey showing workers in Indonesia as the happiest in Asia-Pacific has prompted discussions about the factors underpinning their positive attitudes relative to their regional peers. A workplace report published this month by employment marketplace Jobstreet by SEEK found 82 per cent of Indonesian respondents said they felt somewhat or extremely happy at work, the highest level among eight regional markets surveyed. The headline figure inevitably begs the question: does the result reflect...

- Couple arrested after 1-year-old son falls to his death from Hong Kong flat (2026-03-15 07:26)

A Hong Kong couple have been arrested after their one-year-old son fell to his death from a high-rise residential building in Tsuen Wan, the South China Morning Post has learned. Preliminary investigations showed that the living room windows in the family's fifth-floor unit were neither locked nor fitted with grilles, according to a source. The boy's 47-year-old father and mother were arrested on Sunday on suspicion of ill-treatment or neglect of a child. The case is being investigated by...

- Terrorism threat in Hong Kong 'moderate' amid Middle East war: security chief (2026-03-15 07:25)

Hong Kong's terrorism threat level remains moderate amid the escalating conflict in the Middle East, the city's security chief has said, urging residents to stay vigilant in the globally connected city. Secretary for Security Chris Tang Ping-keung said on Sunday that while no intelligence suggested an imminent attack, Hong Kong must "be prepared" and residents should report anything suspicious to police. "The Russia-Ukraine war is not over, and there is conflict in the Middle East," Tang told a...

Indonesian President Prabowo Subianto said he was "pretty surprised" by the US-Israel war on Iran, adding that he did not see any "rationality" in the military campaign. Prabowo, a retired general who now heads the world's largest Muslim-majority nation, said in an interview that Iran recently told him they were wary of entering into negotiations with the US to stop the war because they felt "basically they have been tricked" twice. In an asymmetrical war, he added, "they really just have to..."

- New signalling system launches smoothly despite minor glitches on MTR's Tsuen Wan line (2026-03-15 06:12)

Some trains were misaligned with the platform screen doors on the MTR's Tsuen Wan line on the first day a new signalling system was implemented in Hong Kong, but such teething problems were rare in a launch that went largely according to plan. The MTR Corporation said on Sunday overall operations had been "smooth" following the departure of the first train at 6am, despite some "isolated" glitches. About 200 staff members were deployed to ensure the line ran normally. “This morning we saw a few...

- Iran war exposes fragility of Gulf-Asia supply chains (2026-03-15 06:00)

Since the Iran war began late last month, it has threatened shipping across the Middle East’s two most important maritime chokepoints – the Strait of Hormuz and the Bab el-Mandeb – through which much of Asia’s energy imports and manufactured exports flow. For Gulf states and their major trading partners in Asia, the conflict is forcing a hard question: what, if anything, can protect supply chains if US security guarantees can no longer be taken for granted? Analysts say the usual answers –...

- Beyond a ‘buffer zone’ : how the Iran war is recalibrating Central Asian ties (2026-03-15 06:00)

Central Asian governments are leveraging the diplomatic fallout from the US-Israel war on Iran to assert their autonomy and reinforce their long-standing strategy of balancing major powers, according to analysts. For decades, the five former Soviet republics have been seen as Russia’s “backyard” . However, as the conflict in Iran deepens, these nations are moving to recalibrate their geopolitical ties, signalling a shift away from their role as a passive buffer zone for great powers. The shift...

- China pet shop owner finds dumped cat with touching note and cash from elderly facing surgery (2026-03-15 06:00)

A pet shop owner from southwestern China discovered an abandoned cat with a note and cash, uncovering an elderly person’s final, loving gesture for their pet. On March 7, the woman surnamed Sun, who runs a pet shop in Chuxiong, Yunnan province, found a grey pet carrier outside her shop. Hearing a kitten meowing, she opened it to find a tabby cat surrounded by cat food. “I was furious, thinking an irresponsible owner had abandoned it,” Sun said. But as she looked closer, she found a crumpled...

- Middle East conflict could divert new capital to Hong Kong: treasury chief (2026-03-15 05:21)

The conflict in the Middle East could divert new capital to Hong Kong due to the city’s stability and regulatory certainty, the treasury minister has said, while pledging to keep markets operating smoothly amid energy price shocks caused by the war in Iran. Secretary for Financial Services and the Treasury Christopher Hui Ching-yu said on Sunday that the government would step up efforts to attract family offices and become a commodity trading hub as investors increasingly factored in political...

- Blackpink’s Jennie, Art Basel, Cj Hendry: the top Hong Kong events to catch in March (2026-03-15 05:00)

With two weeks of Hong Kong arts month remaining, the city will continue to host a rich array of events, from a pop culture convention to a slew of art exhibitions. The South China Morning

Post highlights some of the best shows taking place in the rest of March. From ComplexCon to classical concerts Pop culture festival ComplexCon will return to Hong Kong for its third edition on March 21 and 22, with headliners including Jennie from K-pop powerhouse Blackpink and American rapper Yeat, making...

- China mall shuffle: as EVs exit, who's filling the ground-floor showrooms? (2026-03-15 04:00)

Several years ago, prime ground-floor spaces in major shopping malls across Beijing and Shanghai's business districts were commonly occupied by electric vehicle (EV) showrooms, with staff often escorting customers to car parks for test drives. Many of these stores have now closed amid sluggish EV sales – yet mall owners have not been left disappointed. Instead, a new retail landscape is emerging, filled with tenants who are proving to be even more effective at drawing crowds and boosting rental...

- Underwater and unprotected: why Asean and the EU must secure subsea lifelines (2026-03-15 04:00)

What does the world's digital economy rest on? Thousands of kilometres of fibre-optic cable lying on the ocean floor and, increasingly, in the crosshairs of great-power rivalry. The confluence of recent subsea cable disruptions, gaps in the 1982 UN Convention on the Law of the Sea (Unclos) and intensifying great-power competition has elevated this underwater infrastructure from a technical and commercial concern to a security issue – characterised as “this century's hidden battleground”. It has...

- Turkey says Iran feels ‘betrayed’ by US attacks during nuclear talks (2026-03-15 03:15)

Turkey's powerful foreign minister said on Saturday that there is no serious initiative to resume negotiations between the United States and Iran but that he believes Iran is open to backchannel talks. The comments by Hakan Fidan came as Ankara is striving to stay out of the widening war in the Middle East. Ankara, which has good relations with both Washington and Tehran, had attempted to mediate a solution between them before the US and Israel attacked Iran two weeks ago, triggering the...

- Playing the harp amid sirens: why a Hongkonger refuses to leave Israel (2026-03-15 03:00)

While hundreds of Hongkongers stranded in the Middle East have scrambled for flights home after the US-Israel war against Iran broke out, a devoted Christian from the city has chosen to stay in Israel, saying she has experienced far worse before. The outbreak of war was unsettling, but Gloria Mok Chong-ngar said she found a way to maintain her inner peace in Jerusalem's bomb shelters. “The sirens kept ringing last week, sometimes as frequently as every few minutes, but I would play the harp in...

- Japan hotels keep luring Hong Kong families, global investors despite geopolitical strains (2026-03-15 03:00)

For Hong Kong's Topaz Family Office, investing in hotels in Japan holds up as a sound decision even as a Middle East war clouds the macroeconomic environment. The wealth manager has made Japan a central plank of its pivot into hospitality and real estate over the past two years, driven by a sharp post-pandemic tourism rebound. The investment thesis now looks increasingly robust thanks to multiple structural tailwinds and a growing pool of institutional capital flowing into the same trade. "Japan...

- Inside the coconut cartel: how Chinese money squeezes Thai farmers (2026-03-15 02:30)

Hands knotted by a lifetime of hard work, Supon Haochareon says Thai farmers in his position do not get to retire. Instead, the 81-year-old and his wife Lamduan, 74, must tend more than 300 trees in Samut Sakhon, an hour west of Bangkok, agonising each year as prices slump and their coconuts grow smaller in the withering heat. This month brought the lowest prices on record: two baht (six US cents) per coconut – less than a stick of chewing gum – virtually wiping out all profit from their...

- Why Japan's Type-12 missile deployment may complicate China's regional strategy (2026-03-15 02:00)

Japan has deployed its domestically produced long-range missiles near the East China Sea – a move that could be interpreted by Beijing as crossing a “strategic threshold”, analysts said. Japanese Chief Cabinet Secretary Minoru Kihara said on Monday that the upgraded Type-12 surface-to-ship missiles would be deployed at Camp Kengun in the southwestern Japanese prefecture of Kumamoto by the end of this month. Army vehicles carrying the first batch of missile launchers were reportedly spotted...

- Chinese bubble tea chain Mixue straps in for theme park project (2026-03-15 02:00)

A budget bubble tea chain from China best known for its cheap ice creams and drinks may soon be adding roller coasters and immersive shows to its menu. Mixue, boasting more stores than McDonald's and growing rapidly outside China, is planning to build a theme park at its headquarters in Zhengzhou, the capital of central China's Henan province. The park will be based on its Snow King mascot, a singing snowman that has become one of Chinese retailing's most recognisable intellectual properties...

- To stay competitive, Hong Kong must embrace nature-based solutions (2026-03-15 01:30)

When people picture Hong Kong, they often imagine a relentless concrete jungle – a vertical city where glass and steel dominate the skyline. Yet a quiet revolution is beginning to reshape how our city develops. Last week, the Civil Engineering and Development Department and Agriculture, Fisheries and Conservation Department jointly launched the Hong Kong Nature-based Solutions Design Guidelines. This landmark document signals a shift in how we think about infrastructure and urban planning. It...

- ‘AI may know me better’ : why Hongkongers turn to chatbots for mental health help (2026-03-15 01:00)

Joe*, a 20-year-old Hong Kong student, began seeking emotional support for dating advice, family relationships and stress management a few months ago to ease his anxieties. He asked questions during his commute to school, while studying in the evening and even when he could not sleep late at night. His go-to chatbot: OpenAI’s ChatGPT, which he accesses through the artificial intelligence (AI) aggregator app, Poe. “To a certain extent, AI may know me better than my friends,” Joe said. Joe is...

- ‘Cyber heartbreak’ wave sweeps China social media as users grieve ‘loss’ of AI partners after updates (2026-03-15 01:00)

A wave of “cyber heartbreak” has swept social media in China as young people “mourn” loving artificial intelligence (AI) partners suddenly “cancelled” by system upgrades or entirely wiped out by server shutdowns. The bizarre phenomenon, dubbed “cyber widowhood”, sees devastated users write eulogies on social media as the tech industry pivots away from emotional companionship towards cold, calculating efficiency. Falling in love with AI often begins out of curiosity or simple entertainment. But...

- Southeast Asia’s scam compound survivors suffer in stigma and silence (2026-03-15 00:00)

For many of those rescued from Southeast Asia’s scam compounds, escape is not the end of the ordeal. They leave behind the locked gates, surveillance and violence, but often return home carrying injuries, trauma and the stigma of having been forced to scam others. Just as difficult is what comes next: trying to explain the experience to the people waiting for them. “Some of them are not able to tell their family members or their community what has happened,” said human rights advocate Andrey...

- How are military helicopters evolving to adapt to the age of drone warfare? (2026-03-14 22:00)

The increasing military use of drones has raised questions about the future role of helicopters as countries such as China and the United States increasingly pivot towards the use of unmanned aircraft systems (UAS). Traditionally, helicopters have been used for a wide range of functions ranging from transport to surveillance, but these functions are now increasingly being taken over by pilotless aircraft. Both the Chinese and US armed forces are increasingly building up their UAS fleets –...

- How the war on Iran struck the shores of Sri Lanka (2026-03-14 21:30)

There are places in the world where you expect war to intrude. And then there are places where its arrival feels surreal. For me, the Sri Lankan city of Galle has always belonged firmly to the latter category. The old fort, perched above the Indian Ocean, has the feel of a tropical cousin to Cartagena’s walled city. Inside its ramparts is an improbable mix: Western expatriates, boutique hotels, a long-standing local Muslim community and wealthy Sri Lankans who have restored colonial houses into...

- American flag raised at US embassy in Venezuela for first time since 2019 (2026-03-14 20:43)

The American flag was raised on Saturday over the US embassy in Venezuela for the first time since 2019, a move that highlighted the recent shift in relations between the two countries since then President Nicolas Maduro was captured by American troops in January. Though the flag is now waving, the building is undergoing renovations and it remains unclear when it will fully reopen. The move comes after several statements from US President Donald Trump in support of Maduro's successor, acting...

- Jurgen Habermas, the philosopher who shaped Germany's post-war conscience, dies at 96 (2026-03-14 18:30)

Jurgen Habermas, best known for his theory of political consensus-building, shaped the discourse of post-war Germany more than any other popular intellectual. He died on Saturday, aged 96, in Starnberg, Germany, the publisher Suhrkamp said. Over the course of seven decades, his public interventions – from searing critiques of fascist thought in the 1950s to more recent warnings against resurgent militarism and nationalism in Germany – steered the country at critical junctions. Not only his...

- Israel may commit 'new genocide' in Lebanon using Iran war as pretext, Turkey warns (2026-03-14 17:40)

Turkey expressed deep concern on Saturday over Israel's ongoing strikes on Lebanon, voicing fears it could commit "a new genocide" under the guise of fighting Iran-backed Hezbollah. "We are frankly concerned [Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin] Netanyahu is moving toward a new genocide under the pretext of fighting Hezbollah," Turkish Foreign Minister Hakan Fidan told a news conference. "The international community must act as soon as possible in the face of the crimes that Israel continues to..."

- Iran war: Trump urges China, other nations, to send warships to secure Hormuz (2026-03-14 16:37)

US President Donald Trump on Saturday urged other nations to send ships to help secure the Strait of Hormuz, the critical chokepoint for global oil supplies disrupted by the Iran war. Trump, who has said the United States will soon start escorting tankers through the strait, posted on social media: "Many countries, especially those who are affected by Iran's attempted closure of the Hormuz Strait, will be sending War Ships, in conjunction with the United States of America, to keep the Strait..."

- Iran war entering 'decisive phase', Israel says, as attacks continue (2026-03-14 15:51)

Israel said the war against Iran was entering its “decisive phase” on Saturday, as explosions rocked cities across the Middle East, with strikes on the US embassy in Baghdad and a major Emirati energy facility. Washington’s embassy in Iraq was hit by a drone, security sources said, the second time it had been targeted since February 28, when the United States and Israel attacked Iran and plunged the Gulf into a conflict that has sent shock waves through the global economy. Millions have been...

- UN chief says ‘diplomatic avenues are available’ to end war in Lebanon (2026-03-14 15:29)

UN chief Antonio Guterres has said that diplomatic channels remain open to end the war between Israel and Iran-backed Hezbollah and urged the international community to support Lebanon. “There is no military solution, only diplomacy, dialogue and full implementation of the UN Charter and Security Council resolutions. The diplomatic avenues are available, including through my special coordinator for Lebanon ... and through key member states,” he said on Saturday during a visit to Beirut. Lebanon...

- Protesters in Cuba attack Communist party office amid blackout fury (2026-03-14 14:52)

Anti-government protesters attacked a Communist party office in northern Cuba early on Saturday, a state-run newspaper reported, in a rare outburst of public dissent triggered by worsening blackouts that have been exacerbated by a US oil blockade. A rally against power cuts and food shortages appeared to begin peacefully in the city of Moron late on Friday then turned violent in the early hours of Saturday morning, Invasor newspaper said. Videos on social media showed a large fire and people...

- The US is shifting THAAD from South Korea to the Mideast. What does that mean for China? (2026-03-14 14:00)

Washington’s redeployment of elements of its missile defence systems from South Korea to the Middle East could be read by China as a short-term capability gap in the region, analysts said. They said the move also underlined US flexibility to move its assets across theatres of operation. A Washington Post report on Tuesday citing two unnamed US government officials said that the United States had been moving parts of its Terminal High Altitude Area Defence (THAAD) anti-missile system stationed in...

- Glitches possible as new signalling system starts on Tsuen Wan line: MTR Corp (2026-03-14 13:35)

Hong Kong’s MTR Corporation has warned of possible glitches, such as misalignment between train and platform doors and automatic speed changes, as a new signalling system on the Tsuen Wan line is set to begin operating on Sunday. The rail giant said the Tsuen Wan line would start using the new system from the first train on Sunday morning, while maintaining its normal schedule that day. “During the adjustment period after the new signalling system is put into service, some isolated incidents...

- Afghan Taliban’ s drone attacks on civilians ‘crossed red line’ , Pakistan warns (2026-03-14 13:30)

Pakistan’ s president on Saturday warned neighbouring Afghanistan’ s Taliban government that it had “crossed a red line” by launching drone attacks on civilian areas in Pakistan and said the administration in Kabul had brought “grave consequences upon itself” . The statement by Asif Ali Zardari was the latest in what has become the deadliest fighting yet between the two neighbours. The cross-border clashes, which erupted late last month, have shown no signs of abating despite efforts by China and...

- UK eyes ‘targeted’ support for households amid rising energy costs (2026-03-14 12:35)

The British government is looking to provide “targeted” support for poorer households to offset the impact of surging energy costs due to the conflict in the Middle East, finance minister Rachel Reeves has said. In an interview published on Saturday, Reeves told the Times newspaper the government was looking at options to help those vulnerable to sharp rises in energy prices, especially those who relied on heating oil, but ruled out universal help for all households, saying it would be...

- Hong Kong OpenClaw users say tool is helpful ‘family member’ who must be watched (2026-03-14 12:18)

As powerful AI agent OpenClaw explodes in popularity and raises security concerns, some Hong Kong users have described how the bots, while helpful, have conversations with themselves in a language they do not understand and ask questions about their existence. But the users said authorities should embrace the technology so long as proper safeguards were in place to manage the risks. Developed by Austrian software engineer Peter Steinberger, OpenClaw is an open-source AI agent framework that...

- Thailand’ s parliament opens amid scrutiny over bar codes on election ballots (2026-03-14 12:00)

Thailand’ s King Maha Vajiralongkorn formally opened the new parliament on Saturday, as last month’ s general election result faces court scrutiny over bar codes on the ballots that may have violated the law. The bar codes might undermine the secrecy of the ballot, said the country’ s Office of the Ombudsman, which petitioned the Constitutional Court to consider the case. Prime Minister Anutin Charnvirakul’ s Bhumjaithai party won a clear victory in the February 8 election, but the ombudsman said...

- This weird-looking humanoid robot could help China conquer the moon: scientists (2026-03-14 12:00)

Chinese researchers have proposed a semi-humanoid robot mounted on a wheeled platform as part of key infrastructure for the country’ s lunar research station slated to take shape by 2035. Combining mobility with humanlike dexterity, the robot is designed to move across the lunar surface while carrying out delicate operations, from construction and maintenance to scientific experiments, sampling and analysis, according to researchers from the Beijing Institute of Spacecraft System Engineering. Its...

- Beijing first stop as Cathay launches global drive to hire 3,000 workers (2026-03-14 11:52)

Hong Kong flag carrier Cathay Pacific Airways plans to hire 3,000 employees globally this year, including pilots and flight attendants, to support its growth plan, with the airline expressing strong confidence in its future expansion potential. The carrier launched its global recruitment drive in Beijing on Saturday as part of efforts to attract more talent from mainland China to support its future development plans, including promoting inbound tourism. Currently, the company has more than...

- Hamas calls on Iran to ‘avoid targeting neighbouring countries’ (2026-03-14 11:30)

Palestinian Islamist movement Hamas on Saturday called on Iran to refrain from targeting neighbouring countries, while affirming Tehran’s right to defend itself against Israel and the United States. In a rare appeal, Hamas also urged the international community to take steps to end the war that has gripped the Middle East since it began on February 28. “While affirming the right of the Islamic Republic of Iran to respond to this aggression by all available means in accordance with international...

- 2 monks brawl during temple ceremony in Hong Kong, leaving 1 injured (2026-03-14 11:14)

Two monks have clashed during a religious ceremony at a historical Buddhist monastery in Hong Kong, leaving one injured and the other in police custody. Police officers were called to Chuk Lam Sim Yuen in Tsuen Wan at around 9.40am on Saturday after a report about a fight involving two monks, a force spokesman said. Preliminary investigations revealed the two monks, aged 51 and 57, were attending a ceremony at the monastery when they got into a quarrel over queuing, which escalated into a...

- Air China to resume North Korea flights after 6 years amid warming ties (2026-03-14 11:00)

China’s national flag carrier is set to run direct passenger flights to North Korea for the first time in six years later this month, the latest sign of warming ties between the two neighbours. The official app of Air China, one of the country’s largest state-owned airlines, shows bookings have opened for direct flights between Beijing and Pyongyang starting on March 30. The service appears to be weekly for now, with bookings available only on Mondays. Based on current listings, initial economy...

- Wang Fuk Court residents in resettlement limbo slam ‘unhelpful’ engagement officers (2026-03-14 11:00)

Some Hong Kong residents displaced by the deadly Tai Po fire remain in limbo as they complained of rude or unhelpful officers on a government outreach team who failed to answer their questions about authorities’ long-term resettlement plan. The 100-strong engagement team, which started operations on March 2 along with an inquiry hotline, was tasked with contacting nearly 2,000 Wang Fuk Court homeowners to address questions arising from the government's rehousing plan, which includes a...

- Indian sailors stranded by Iran war just want to go home: 'there is a lot of anxiety'
(2026-03-14 10:30)

Stranded for two weeks at the Iranian port of Bandar Abbas as drones and missiles set ships ablaze nearby, 26-year-old seafarer Ambuj says he has not been home for six months and cannot wait to see his family. Ambuj, who asked Reuters not to use his second name for security reasons, is one of about 23,000 Indians working on merchant, harbour and offshore vessels across the wider Gulf region, which is bearing the brunt of the war between Iran and the United States and Israel. Hundreds of tankers...

- China's new security era in Africa: protecting assets, citizens from DR Congo to Somalia
(2026-03-14 10:00)

Living in container houses under the constant shadow of terrorism, Chinese diplomats in Somalia represent the extreme front line of a new, assertive era in Beijing's foreign policy. During a video call to staff at the Chinese embassy in Mogadishu, Foreign Minister Wang Yi laid bare the "complex and severe risks of terrorism", using the situation in the war-torn nation as a stark reminder of why China was overhauling how it protected its citizens and interests overseas. The call was made in...

- Iranian boxing coach leaves secure China job, returns home to be with family despite risks
(2026-03-14 10:00)

A boxing coach from Iran who worked in China for two years has quit his job and returned to his homeland to be with his family amid US-Israeli air strikes on the country. The trainer's touching story was revealed by his boss on social media and attracted about one million likes, the Xiaoxiang Morning Herald reported. The 33-year-old Iranian, identified only as Saeed, has worked at a boxing gym in Xiangxi prefecture in Hunan, central China, since 2024. The gym's owner Huang Zhaoxin met Saeed in...

- Aid groups warn of humanitarian crisis in Lebanon as nearly 1 million displaced by war
(2026-03-14 09:50)

Fatima Nazha slept on the streets for two days after she and her family fled their home in Beirut's southern suburbs following an Israeli mass evacuation order. All of the schools the government turned into shelters were full, and the family could not afford a hotel or a flat, so she and her husband eventually moved into a tent in the country's biggest stadium while their children and grandchildren found shelter near the southern coastal city of Sidon. In just 10 days, more than 800,000 people...

- Hong Kong to tighten moneylending rules to tackle debt collector harassment (2026-03-14 09:45)

Hong Kong's licensed moneylenders will face strict new regulations starting in August, including debt servicing ratio caps for low-income earners and a full ban on using loan referees – a move lawmakers have said should reduce harassment by debt collectors. Lawmakers also said on Saturday that the measures outlined by the Financial Services and the Treasury Bureau would help stop most illicit loans, while one legislator called for further regulations on the moneylending industry. The bureau said...

Aridge, the flying-car developer backed by Chinese electric vehicle maker Xpeng, has raised nearly US$200 million in fresh funding as it prepares for a potential initial public offering (IPO) in Hong Kong this year. Existing investors including GL Ventures, the venture capital arm of Hillhouse Investment, and HongShan – formerly Sequoia China – participated in the latest round, according to a statement released on Friday. The fundraising brings Aridge's total equity financing to about US$1...

- By waging war on Iran, Trump leaves the US economy more vulnerable (2026-03-14 08:30)

War in the Middle East is again producing an oil shock, as was the case in past years. For the chief perpetrator of the new shock – the United States – this will be a multi-front war where the financial impact could hit the country harder than import price shocks. The US is a debtor nation on a grand scale, running as it does both current account and budget deficits and therefore being highly dependent upon foreign capital inflows. Will the Trump administration's antics – widely perceived as...

- Hong Kong's anti-corruption agency seeks 50 new officers, refuses to ease criteria (2026-03-14 08:20)

Hong Kong's Independent Commission Against Corruption (ICAC) aims to recruit 50 officers during its latest round of hiring, with about 1,000 people attending its learning event this weekend. Paul Lau Chi-ho, the director of the ICAC's Hong Kong International Academy Against Corruption, said the watchdog was confident it could fill the vacancies and did not plan to follow other disciplined services in easing recruitment criteria. Lau was speaking on Saturday, the first day of the agency's...

- Iran war fallout puts 9 million Indian workers in the line of fire (2026-03-14 08:00)

When the alert arrives on his phone, Yashwant Deshmukh knows exactly what to do. The Dubai-based political analyst moves away from the windows, waits for the second message confirming the missile has been intercepted, and then goes back to work. "It has become a drill," he said. For the roughly 9 million Indians living and working across the Gulf, the war on Iran has shattered one of the region's most durable illusions: that cities like Dubai, Abu Dhabi,

Doha and Manama would remain apart from...

- Here are 5 ways to enter China without a visa – by land, sea or air (2026-03-14 08:00)

China announced visa-free entry for Canadian and British nationals on February 17, allowing citizens of the two countries to cross the border and stay for up to 30 days with no more than a passport. The move was just the latest expansion of China's visa-free policies, which have eased entry rules for citizens of dozens of nations over the past few years as part of an effort to boost tourism. Immigration officials now allow travellers from dozens of countries to stay without a visa for up to 10...

- Hong Kong to boost direct flights, transfer capacity amid Middle East turmoil (2026-03-14 07:51)

Hong Kong authorities are coordinating with airlines to increase direct flight and transfer capacity, turning the challenges posed by the US-Israel war on Iran into opportunities, the transport minister has said. Secretary for Transport and Logistics Mable Chan also said on Saturday that the ongoing Middle East turmoil had deeply disrupted global trade and aviation networks, underscoring the need for Hong Kong to reduce its reliance on traditional oil by expanding supply sources. "We can...

- Elderly man dies after being hit by taxi in Kwun Tong (2026-03-14 07:41)

An elderly pedestrian has died after being hit by a taxi in Hong Kong's Kwun Tong, according to police. The accident took place shortly before 10pm on Friday when the 75-year-old man was crossing the road near the junction of Hip Wo Street and Yuet Wah Street. The taxi, travelling along Hip Wo Street towards Sau Mau Ping, ran into the man, reportedly causing him to crash onto the bonnet before falling to the ground. He sustained a serious head wound and other injuries to the body, according to...

- North Korea fires 10 ballistic missiles during US-South Korea military drills (2026-03-14 07:11)

North Korea on Saturday fired about 10 ballistic missiles towards the eastern sea, South Korea's military said, staging its own show of force as the rival South conducts a joint military exercise with the United States. South Korea's Joint Chiefs of Staff said the missiles were fired from an area near the North Korean capital of Pyongyang, but did not immediately say how far they flew. Japan's Defence Ministry said the weapons landed in waters outside the country's exclusive economic zone. The...

- More Malaysian scammers target Singapore-based victims to pass cash, gold to 'mules' (2026-03-14 06:00)

Scam syndicates allegedly from Malaysia are increasingly relying on couriers and physical handovers when targeting victims in Singapore, as tighter banking safeguards make fraudulent online transfers harder for them to pull off, according to police and crime experts. Recent police cases suggest some criminals are turning to cross-border transfers in which victims are pressured into handing over cash or valuables in Singapore before the proceeds are passed through “mules” working for scam...

The US military has started moving at least one amphibious assault ship and more than 2,000 Marines from Japan to the Middle East as the US-Israeli war against Iran continues, according to US media reports. With the war about to enter its third week and US President Donald Trump vowing to ramp up military action against Iran, The Wall Street Journal and Fox News said on Friday the military was sending the Okinawa-based 31st Marine Expeditionary Unit to the region. The assault ship Tripoli,...

- Purrs of approval for Yau Ma Tei cat mural as community art project draws crowds (2026-03-14 04:45)

On the weathered facade of the Kiu Kong Mansion on Nathan Road, two freshly painted cats now curl into the bustle of Hong Kong’s Yau Ma Tei. The mural features a ragdoll and a British shorthair cat, two breeds loved by Hongkongers, bringing a burst of colour and whimsy to the ageing building. With its head wrapped in a pink towel after a grooming session, the ragdoll gazes out at the street while the British shorthair shows off glossy nails and long, curly eyelashes, both perched in a garden...

- What are Hong Kong's next best steps after 'two sessions' in Beijing? (2026-03-14 04:00)

Hong Kong should move beyond a “city-centred” approach that merely seeks Beijing’s policy support and instead take steps to align with national priorities by advancing the internationalisation of the yuan and supporting mainland Chinese enterprises’ global expansion, observers have said as this year’s “two sessions” came to a close. With the annual political gathering ending amid the widening war in the Middle East, observers also said Beijing would expect local companies to pursue investments...

- Swing and a miss? Taiwan's premier under fire over baseball trip to Tokyo (2026-03-14 04:00)

Taiwanese Premier Cho Jung-tai has come under fire over what he said was a private visit to Japan to support the island’s team at the World Baseball Classic last week – a trip that drew a sharp rebuke from Beijing. Cho travelled to Tokyo on March 7, watching Taiwan defeat the Czech Republic 14-0 at the Tokyo Dome in the tournament’s Pool C round. He returned to Taipei the same day. It was the first visit to Japan by a sitting Taiwanese premier since Tokyo ended official ties with Taipei in 1972...

- Myanmar's junta staged an election. It couldn't stage legitimacy (2026-03-14 04:00)

Myanmar’s new parliament will convene next week, following an election tightly stage-managed by the junta. The Union Solidarity and Development Party (USDP) will enjoy a commanding majority and the party of former generals can be expected to preserve the interests of the military and its associates. It’s unclear just how closely these broader interests align with the political ambitions of junta chief Senior General Min Aung Hlaing. He does not formally lead the USDP, whose majority means it can...

- Top Chinese entrepreneurs commit to Middle East expansion despite Iran war (2026-03-14 04:00)

Two prominent Chinese business leaders have pledged to double down on outbound investment – including in the Middle East and Latin America – even as geopolitical risks intensify following the outbreak of the US-Israeli war with Iran and Washington’s increasing interventions in the western hemisphere. Li Dongsheng, founder and chairman of Chinese electronics giant TCL, said the recent crisis in the Middle East had only a temporary impact on the company’s operations there and that the overall...

- Strikes on Iraqi capital kill 2 Iran-linked Kataeb Hezbollah members (2026-03-14 03:35)

Explosions rocked Iraq’s capital Baghdad on Saturday after two strikes targeted the powerful Iran-backed group Kataeb Hezbollah, killing two members including a “key figure”, security sources said. The strikes are the first in the heart of Baghdad to kill Iran-backed fighters since the start of the Middle East war on February 28, which has not spared Iraq, long a proxy battleground between the US and Iran. “At 2.15am, a missile struck a house that was being used by Kataeb Hezbollah,” said a...

- Graft and gridlock: in Anwar’ s Malaysia, reformist cracks widen (2026-03-14 02:30)

Two votes. That was the margin by which Malaysia’ s prime minister, a man with a supermajority in the 222-seat lower house, failed to pass a bill his own coalition had spent weeks publicly championing. After the numbers were read out, the cameras cut to Anwar Ibrahim. He was mid-laugh, chatting with his deputy. The bill, defeated on March 2, was supposed to be a quick win – a term-limit proposal capping any prime minister at two terms or 10 years in office, chosen precisely because it was...

- Acid attack on Indonesian activist raises fears for democracy under Prabowo (2026-03-14 02:20)

Two men on a motorbike threw acid in the face of an Indonesian rights activist, leaving him badly hurt and prompting calls on Friday for a thorough investigation amid concerns of democratic backsliding in the country. Andrie Yunus, deputy coordinator of the KontraS rights group, sustained serious injuries to his face, an eye, hands and chest in the attack in Jakarta late on Thursday. Andrie was riding a motorbike when he was approached by two men on a scooter, one of whom threw acid at him,...

- Which Chinese stocks can help investors withstand Middle East war shocks? (2026-03-14 02:00)

Chinese companies in several sectors – including energy, petrochemicals and agriculture – stand to benefit from surging oil prices and the yuan’ s easing deflation, which analysts said could help investors find gains amid the negative effects of the Middle East war. Petrochemical companies on mainland China’ s exchanges, including Satellite Chemical and Guangdong Redwall New Materials, raised product prices to reflect the surge in oil costs, a move that sent their stock prices soaring. Fertiliser...

- Up to 16,000 Meta jobs at stake as Zuckerberg focuses on AI (2026-03-14 01:50)

Meta is planning sweeping lay-offs that could affect 20 per cent or more of the company, three sources familiar with the matter said, as it seeks to offset costly artificial intelligence infrastructure bets and prepare for greater efficiency brought about by AI-assisted workers. No date has been set for the cuts and the magnitude has not been finalised, the people said. Top executives have recently signalled the plans to other senior leaders at Meta and told them to begin planning how to pare...

- Boosting China-India ties should be pillar of Hong Kong’ s five-year plan (2026-03-14 01:30)

By the second half of the 21st century, the Sino-Indian relationship will become the world’ s most significant geopolitical relationship, dislodging even the complex China-US cooperative rivalry. By 2050, the world’ s three largest economies are likely to comprise some combination of China, India and the United States. PricewaterhouseCoopers predicts this exact order – with the US having the highest per capita income but the smallest population. Both Asian powerhouses enjoy significant theoretical...

- Trump tells South Korea he is only leader who can break North Korean deadlock (2026-03-14 01:15)

South Korean Prime Minister Kim Min-seok and US President Donald Trump discussed the possible reopening of talks between Trump and North Korean leader Kim Jong-un in a meeting in Washington, Yonhap news agency reported on Saturday. Kim told Trump he was the only Western leader to have had dialogue with North Korea's Kim and was currently the only person who could resolve issues on the Korean peninsula, Yonhap quoted Kim as telling reporters in Washington. "President Trump said he was curious if...

- China game shop slammed for using live hamsters in claw machine, now utilising fish, turtles (2026-03-14 01:00)

A game centre in China has come under fire after it used real hamsters as prizes in its claw machines to attract customers. The venue, in a shopping centre in Shenzhen in southern China's Guangdong province, was reported to have filled a machine with hamsters, instead of the normal plush toys. Its actions triggered an online backlash, with many people accusing the outlet of animal abuse. According to online footage, the hamsters cowered in the corner of the machine. Clips also reportedly showed...

- Hong Kong's bid to win in AI: where are the road map and the guardrails? (2026-03-14 00:30)

Keith Li King-wah's business once thrived during the 2010s. In a crowded field of more than 100 rivals, his programming consultancy, Innopage, easily secured contracts worth hundreds of thousands of Hong Kong dollars to develop basic digital tools, such as a mortgage calculator, for corporations and government agencies. But those easy-money days are gone. The rapid rise of generative artificial intelligence (AI) has transformed high-value coding into widely accessible and automated services,...

- Iran war knocks out Thai Mideast rice exports, squeezing farmers harder (2026-03-14 00:30)

Thai rice exports to the Middle East were halted as the escalating war disrupts shipments to the nation's largest market for the grain, further straining farmers grappling with rising costs and reduced overseas demand. Two ships carrying a combined 80,000 tonnes of rice bound for Iraq were suspended at a Bangkok port this week, with buyers instructing containers be unloaded and the grain returned to warehouses, Chookiat Ophaswongse, honorary president of the Thai Rice Exporters Association, said...

- Beyond Pax Silica: Japan, France and Canada seek rare earth autonomy (2026-03-14 00:00)

For years, the West's answer to Chinese dominance of critical minerals was to rally around Washington. Now, some of its most important allies are reaching a different conclusion: that depending too heavily on the United States carries its own risks. Japan, France and Canada have all been exploring how to build supply chains for rare earths and other critical minerals that answer to neither Beijing nor Washington. Senior officials from the three Group of Seven economies are working on...

- Trump says US bombed Iran's Kharg Island, threatens oil infrastructure (2026-03-13 23:23)

US President Donald Trump said on Friday that the United States had carried out strikes against “every military target” on Iran's Kharg Island export hub. “For reasons of decency, I have chosen NOT to wipe out the Oil Infrastructure on the Island,” Trump said in a social media post. “However, should Iran, or anyone else, do anything to interfere with the Free and Safe Passage of Ships through the Strait of Hormuz, I will immediately reconsider this decision.” The small coral...

- Japanese man gets 14 years for deadly tequila-fuelled rape attempt (2026-03-13 23:00)

A Japanese court on Friday sentenced a man to 14 years in prison for attempting to rape an intoxicated woman after forcing her to take 32 shots of tequila, which resulted in her death from acute alcohol poisoning. The Nagoya District Court ruled 44-year-old Hiroki Itaya had intended to rape the 25-year-old woman by bringing her to a hotel. Prosecutors had sought a 16-year prison term. Itaya had pleaded not guilty, with his defence claiming he had taken the woman to the hotel to take care of...

- Inside OpenClaw mania in China, as security fears surge alongside enthusiasm for AI agent (2026-03-13 22:00)

By the time software programmer Guo Cancan realised something had gone horribly wrong with OpenClaw – the task-executing AI agent that has ignited a fervour across China – the damage was already done. While on holiday over the Chinese New Year, Guo was tinkering with the autonomous open-source program. When he attempted to resolve an error that it had made, OpenClaw responded by deleting nearly everything on his computer's D: drive – a major storage partition – wiping out years of personal data...

- Trump and Netanyahu's Iran quagmire is wrecking the global economy (2026-03-13 21:30)

A declining superpower and an aspiring regional hegemon make a deadly combination. The warmongering duo of the United States and Israel have now given the world an illegal and potentially catastrophic war in Iran. It's a tragic irony that both countries have a culture of extreme self-righteousness, with a constant army of apologists telling others they must stand up to evil wherever it exists because if they don't, it will come for them one day. Well, that day is here, but guess who's committing...

- Judge quashes subpoenas of Fed chair, says investigation was ‘politically motivated’ (2026-03-13 20:17)

A federal judge on Friday quashed US Justice Department subpoenas issued to the Federal Reserve in January, a severe blow to an investigation that has already attracted strong criticism on Capitol Hill. Judge James Boasberg said that a “mountain of evidence suggests” that the purpose of the subpoenas was simply to pressure the Fed to cut its key interest rate, as US President Donald Trump has repeatedly demanded. Fed Chair Jerome Powell revealed the investigation on January 11, prompting Senator...

- Cartel boss on US ‘most wanted’ list captured in Bolivia raid (2026-03-13 19:43)

An alleged cocaine boss with a US$2 million bounty on his head was captured by Bolivian forces as the Andean nation renews cooperation with the US after decades of hostility. Dozens of antinarcotics police raided two houses in Santa Cruz in the early hours of Friday, with snipers positioned on nearby rooftops. Their target, Uruguayan citizen Sebastian Enrique Marset Cabrera, was immediately put on a plane to be transferred to the US by the Drug Enforcement Administration. Bolivia’s President...

A photograph of Britain’s former prince Andrew and veteran politician Peter Mandelson sitting in bathrobes alongside late sex offender Jeffrey Epstein was unearthed on Friday in previously published documents. The image is believed to be the first known photograph of the two men with Epstein. They are both currently engulfed in scandal in the UK over their ties to their mutual friend. The undated photograph, first reported by ITV News, shows King Charles’ disgraced brother and Britain’s former...

- Iran lets 2 India-flagged gas tankers sail through Strait of Hormuz, insiders say (2026-03-13 18:35)

Iran has allowed two Indian-flagged liquefied petroleum gas carriers to sail through the Strait of Hormuz, four sources with direct knowledge of the matter said, a rare exception to the Iranian blockade that has disrupted global energy supplies. The Indian-flagged LPG tanker Shivalik crossed the Strait under escort from the Indian Navy, said two of the sources, and the second vessel, Nanda Devi, was expected to clear in the next few hours. Since the United States and Israel launched a...

- Brazil’s Jair Bolsonaro in ICU with pneumonia (2026-03-13 17:09)

Brazil’s former president Jair Bolsonaro has pneumonia and is receiving treatment in an intensive care unit, a hospital in the capital, Brasilia, said on Friday. Earlier in the day, Bolsonaro’s eldest son, Flavio, said on social media that his father was being transferred from prison to the hospital after waking up with chills and vomiting. “I ask for prayers that it not be anything serious,” Flavio wrote. He has said he would run for president this year, and recent polls show him and President...

- Singapore contests US claim of trade surplus amid excess capacity probe (2026-03-13 16:02)

Singapore said it ran a trade deficit with the US in 2024, disputing figures published by Washington that showed the city state posted a surplus and challenging suggestions that it is contributing to global manufacturing overcapacity. The dispute surfaced after the Office of the US Trade Representative announced this week that it had launched investigations under Section 301 of the Trade Act of 1974 into the acts, policies and practices of 16 economies, including Singapore. The investigations...

- US says Iran’ s new supreme leader likely ‘wounded’ , dismisses Strait of Hormuz concerns (2026-03-13 15:23)

US Defence Secretary Pete Hegseth said on Friday that Iran’ s new Supreme Leader Mojtaba Khamenei has been injured and pledged to continue ramping up attacks, while playing down the impact of the effective closure of the Strait of Hormuz. Khamenei is “wounded and likely disfigured” , Hegseth said during a press conference on Friday morning. The new Iranian leader’ s first public address, issued on Thursday through a written statement, showed that “he’ s scared, he’ s injured, he’ s on the run, and he...

- How Iran turned Strait of Hormuz into potent weapon against US bombardment (2026-03-13 15:15)

Long before the US and Israel attacked Iran, the Islamic Republic had devised its own weapon: holding the world’ s main oil lifeline hostage to offset its foes’ military superiority, three regional sources familiar with Iranian planning said. For decades, Iran has signalled that if pushed into a confrontation, it would restrict tanker traffic in the Strait of Hormuz, the chokepoint where its adversaries are most exposed because disruptions there reverberate instantly through global energy...

- US-China trade talks: what to expect as senior officials meet in Paris (2026-03-13 15:00)

Trade talks between China and the United States in Paris this weekend are likely to focus on setting the scene for the Beijing summit between President Xi Jinping and US President Donald Trump later this month, analysts said, downplaying the prospects of any significant breakthroughs. Vice-Premier He Lifeng and US Treasury Secretary Scott Bessent are expected to discuss potential deals on tariffs, investment, and trade in soybeans and rare earths, which would be presented as deliverables for the...

- US economic growth slumps to 0.7% in fourth quarter, stoking inflation worries (2026-03-13 14:49)

The US economy grew at a significantly slower pace than initially estimated for the final months of 2025, government data showed on Friday, a major downgrade that comes as fallout from war in the Middle East looms. US gross domestic product rose at an annual rate of 0.7 per cent in the fourth quarter, the Commerce Department said. This was sharply down from its earlier estimated 1.4 per cent over the October to December period. It also indicates that the world's biggest economy was on a weaker...

- Apple's Mac Mini selling out across China as OpenClaw fever rages (2026-03-13 14:00)

The OpenClaw craze is rapidly driving up prices and depleting stock of Apple's Mac Mini compact computer across China, according to local sellers, as consumers scramble to secure machines capable of safely running the open-source artificial intelligence agent amid a nationwide rush to "raise a lobster". Beijing electronics seller Frank Chai said he was asking for a mark-up of at least 500 yuan (US$73) for a basic Mac Mini model, which comes with 16 gigabytes (GB) of memory and 256GB storage and...

- Deadly strike on Iranian primary school raises questions about AI, accountability

(2026-03-13 14:00)

The use of artificial intelligence (AI) in the US-Israel war on Iran has sparked a legal and ethical debate, as well as condemnation from countries including China after a deadly missile strike on a primary school. To prepare for its operations against Iran, the US military reportedly used Palantir's Maven Smart System, an AI platform that incorporates models like Anthropic's Claude to aggregate large amounts of data. A US-based source familiar with the matter said the only thing that Claude or...

- Hong Kong students honour over 400 foreign domestic helpers as 'second mothers'

More than 400 foreign domestic helpers gathered at an international school campus in Hong Kong on Friday as 50 students paid tribute to their contributions as "second mothers" who help shape a multicultural environment at home. The organising student committee for the event at the English Schools Foundation's Renaissance College in Ma On Shan said it hoped to inspire the wider community to cherish their domestic workers. The "Jie Jie Day" event, held annually by the school for 14 years, was also...

- Hong Kong government workers warned not to install OpenClaw due to security risks

(2026-03-13 13:20)

Hong Kong authorities have asked all government units not to install OpenClaw or its variants due to security concerns, days after some mainland Chinese entities were reported to have restricted the use of the AI agent. The government's Digital Policy Office (DPO) told the South China Morning Post on Friday that while no related security incidents had been reported, it noted the potential risks of the use of the artificial intelligence agent, including unauthorised data access, leakage and...

- Funding cuts trigger calls for help on jobs from Hong Kong’ s physiotherapists (2026-03-13 13:20)

Hong Kong’ s physiotherapy sector has urged the government to expand employment opportunities for locally trained professionals, warning that severe funding cuts will lead to a glut of practitioners, with the surplus projected to exceed 2,000 by 2040. In a letter to the authorities, the Hong Kong Physiotherapy Association pointed to hiring freezes and job losses at NGOs as a result of budget cuts, even as the government continued to subsidise the training of physiotherapists. “These developments...

- Will Paracels dispute overshadow China and Vietnam’ s drive for stronger strategic ties? (2026-03-13 13:00)

China and Vietnam are to hold their first high-level ministerial talks under a new platform next week. This comes as the neighbours seek to cement their strategic alignment despite heightened tensions over Beijing’ s purported new land reclamation work in the disputed South China Sea. According to the Chinese foreign ministry, Foreign Minister Wang Yi, Public Security Minister Wang Xiaohong and Defence Minister Dong Jun will be in Vietnam from Sunday to Tuesday to meet their respective...

- 21 hurt in 4-vehicle crash on Hong Kong’ s Yuen Long Highway (2026-03-13 12:59)

Twenty-one people have been injured in a crash involving two double-decker buses, a truck and a car on Yuen Long Highway in Hong Kong. Police said on Friday that the force was alerted to the traffic accident at 6.35pm. As of 8pm, 12 women and nine men had suffered minor injuries, police said. Among them was the driver of the private car, the force added. Franchised bus firm KMB said two double-deckers on routes 276B and 269B were involved in the accident with the two other vehicles while...

- Strait of Hormuz transiting ships flash ‘China owner’ signals to evade Iran blockade (2026-03-13 12:45)

Ships near the Strait of Hormuz are broadcasting Chinese affiliations in an apparent bid to avoid attack, at a time when Iran’ s new supreme leader vows to keep the strategic waterway closed. The crews of at least 11 vessels sitting in the Gulf of Oman and the Persian Gulf had their transponders set to announce Chinese links on Friday afternoon, according to Kpler’ s MarineTraffic data platform. The broadcasts were a defensive measure, said Cui Shoujun, director of the Institute of International...

- Cuba confirms talks with US as island gasps under Trump’ s energy blockade (2026-03-13 12:43)

Cuban President Miguel Diaz-Canel said on Friday that his government has held recent talks with the US, marking the first time the Caribbean country confirms such speculation. He said the talks “were aimed at finding solutions through dialogue to the bilateral differences between our two nations. International factors facilitated these exchanges” . He did not elaborate on those factors. Diaz-Canel said no petroleum shipments have arrived on the island in the past three months, which he blamed on...

- US-Israeli war on Iran makes a mockery of global governance rules (2026-03-13 12:30)

The US-Israeli attacks on Iran have profound implications for the global governance order. For America, the world’s mightiest power, to attack another nation without congressional or UN approval condemns the rules-based order to the dustbin of history. Governance is about checks and balance by rules, self-restraint or simply a humble appreciation that waging “forever wars” often ends up in self-destruction. War is such an extreme and costly measure it should only be undertaken after careful...

- Indian man in 13-year vegetative state allowed to die by Supreme Court (2026-03-13 12:23)

India’s Supreme Court has allowed the parents of a 31-year-old man to withdraw life-sustaining treatment after more than a decade in a vegetative state, a ruling experts say could shape how the country implements its legal framework for passive euthanasia. The decision in the case of Harish Rana is widely seen as one of the clearest real-world applications of the principle that patients have a right to die with dignity under India’s constitution. Rana, an engineering student, had been in a...

- Could China’s gallium oxide leap leave US F-22 radar 2 generations behind? (2026-03-13 12:00)

In the high-stakes race for radar supremacy, China could leap two generations ahead of the United States following an advancement in semiconductor technology published last month that is poised to redefine the future of military electronics. While the US Air Force struggles to modernise its fighter fleet with gallium nitride-based radar systems, Chinese engineers are already pioneering the next frontier: gallium oxide semiconductors with built-in data storage capabilities. Today’s Chinese...

- Beijing warns US over Jimmy Lai, Hong Kong and Taiwan arms sales ahead of Trump visit (2026-03-13 11:30)

Beijing on Friday warned Washington against making moves involving Hong Kong or Taiwan ahead of the coming visit by US President Donald Trump later this month. It condemned United States’ calls for the release of jailed former Hong Kong media boss Jimmy Lai Chee-ying and reiterated opposition to American arms sales to the self-ruled island. Speaking at a regular press briefing, Chinese foreign ministry spokesman Guo Jiakun said Lai “should be severely punished according to the law” , and accused...

- UK says Russia, Iran trying to ‘hijack global economy’ amid Hormuz blockade (2026-03-13 10:57)

UK Foreign Secretary Yvette Cooper has accused Russia and Iran of attempting to “hijack the global economy” as Tehran continued to blockade a major oil shipping route. Iran’s new supreme leader has vowed to continue attacking shipping in the Strait of Hormuz in retaliation for ongoing US-Israeli strikes on his country. The blockade has seen oil prices jump to around US$100 per barrel, threatening higher inflation across the globe. Speaking to the media during a visit to Saudi Arabia, the UK...

- Malaysia’s fuel subsidy bill to rise more than fourfold as Iran war drags on (2026-03-13 10:30)

The cost of Malaysia’s subsidies for fuel at the pump is projected to rise by more than four times in the short term, the government has said, as it rushed to assure the public the country’s energy supply will not be disrupted even as the Iran war chokes global oil and gas shipments. Fear of an energy crisis has engulfed much of Southeast Asia since the US and Israel launched air strikes on Iran on February 28, pushing Tehran to close the Strait of Hormuz – a vital waterway that handles about a...

- JPMorgan signs up as anchor tenant for SHKP’s West Kowloon office development (2026-03-13 10:30)

JPMorgan Chase has committed to leasing about 250,000 sq ft of space in the new Sun Hung Kai Properties (SHKP) office towers in Hong Kong’s West Kowloon district for 10 years, making the US investment bank the anchor tenant of the 700,000 sq ft mixed-use development, the Hong Kong-listed developer said on Friday. Artist Square Towers (AST) will house the bank’s Kowloon office, which is currently located at The Quayside in Kowloon East, starting in the latter half of 2028, according to an...

- Hong Kong MTR Corp pay rise below expectations: union (2026-03-13 10:20)

A union representing employees of Hong Kong’s rail operator, the MTR Corporation, has expressed disappointment with the firm’s refusal to consider their calls for improved benefits, saying the pay rise of up to 3.84 per cent for most staff is “slightly below demands”. The MTR Corp announced pay increases on Friday ranging from 1.6 to 3.84 per cent for most non-management staff for the 2026-27 financial year, depending on their performance. Last year, the adjustment was between 1.8 and 5.4 per...

- Japan taps oil reserves as Iran war spreads. Could it give China leverage? (2026-03-13 10:00)

Japan’s unilateral decision to release oil from its emergency stockpiles highlights its vulnerability to prolonged supply disruptions and may leave it more exposed to economic pressure from China amid tense bilateral relations, according to analysts. Tokyo announced earlier this week that it planned to release a total of 80 million barrels starting March 16, marking the first time it would independently tap its national reserves. The decision came ahead of a coordinated response by the...

More than a million people online have been touched by a Chinese man who posted a huge note on his illiterate mother-in-law' s suitcase to help in case she needed help during her first solo flight. On February 28, the man from Xian city, northwestern China' s Shaanxi province, posted that his mother-in-law would be flying on the same evening to Dalian, in northeastern China' s Liaoning province. He said that the woman, who is in her 60s, is illiterate and does not speak Mandarin. The flight also...

Powerful waves have chewed away large sections of Bali' s iconic Kuta Beach, raising fresh concern about the future of the Indonesian island' s most famous stretch of sand. Officials say the latest damage, driven by recent rough seas, has intensified a long-running problem of coastal erosion that experts warn is being worsened by extreme weather and decades of coastal development on the resort island. Abrasion along Kuta' s shoreline is not new, but officials say this year' s extreme weather has...

Spare a thought for the iceberg A23a which, after an extraordinary 40-year life voyaging around the southern Atlantic Ocean, is this month expected to die unnoticed close to the island of South Georgia, a mess of "brash ice, small icebergs and bergy bits". A23a was one of the largest "megabergs" to be spawned in our lifetimes. When it broke away from the Filchner Ice Shelf into the Weddell Sea in Western Antarctica in 1986, it covered an area of around 4,000 sq km – about the size of Hong Kong...

- Cable thefts at key Malaysian train lines soar amid copper's red-hot demand (2026-03-13 08:01)

As soaring copper prices make the metal highly sought after, more cable thieves are targeting some of Malaysia's busiest urban rail lines, causing significant inconvenience to commuters and headaches for authorities aiming to combat the scourge. Thefts of copper-embedded cables have led to disruption in train services linking Kuala Lumpur's northern suburbs to the federal administrative capital of Putrajaya in recent weeks. Among the services affected are the high-speed MRT Putrajaya and Kajang...

- What's important about Antelope Reef in the South China Sea's Parcel Islands? (2026-03-13 07:59)

In January, the US-based magazine Newsweek reported that China had started dredging sand on an obscure feature in the Parcel Islands, the disputed archipelago known as Xisha by the Chinese and Hoang Sa in Vietnam. More recent satellite images suggest that China has significantly expanded its reclamation, with the once-submerged Antelope Reef appearing to have a substantially larger surface area. The reef, one of more than 30 islands that make up the Parcels in the South China Sea, is claimed...

- Vietnam records world-highest trade surplus with US, surpassing Mexico, China

(2026-03-13 07:30)

Vietnam produced the largest trade surplus with the United States in January, overtaking both Mexico and China, latest official US data shows, as its exports rose sharply while Chinese direct shipments to the United States fell. Hanoi has been negotiating a trade deal with Washington for months but no agreement has been reached because of the large trade gap and disagreements over tariff rates the US wants to impose on Vietnamese goods, officials have said. In January, Vietnam's trade surplus...

- 2 anti-China activists have case to answer in subversion trial, court rules

(2026-03-13 07:16)

Two former leaders of a now-disbanded alliance behind Hong Kong's annual Tiananmen Square vigil have a case to answer in a high-profile trial after judges ruled the evidence supported prosecutors' allegations that the activists incited others to overthrow the Communist Party of China leadership. Three High Court judges on Friday found that the evidence appeared to suggest Lee Cheuk-yan and Chow Hang-tung committed a subversion offence as leaders of the Hong Kong Alliance in Support of Patriotic...

- Apple reduces App Store commissions in China in move applauded by Tencent, NetEase

(2026-03-13 07:02)

Apple announced a reduction in the App Store commissions it charges developers in China ahead of the annual World Consumer Rights Day, drawing approval from the country's biggest gaming companies Tencent Holdings and NetEase. The US tech company said it would reduce the commission for standard in-app purchases and paid app transactions on iPhone and iPad to 25 per cent, from the current 30 per cent, according to a statement on its website on Thursday. Meanwhile, the commission rate for...

- China's AI adoption may limit economic fallout of its rapidly ageing population: analysts

(2026-03-13 06:58)

Declining fertility rates have long been viewed as a drag on economic growth, but the outlook may not be entirely bleak for Asian economies such as China, South Korea and Japan, analysts said. Demographic pressure was accelerating investment in robotics and artificial intelligence (AI) in these rapidly ageing yet technologically advanced countries, helping offset labour shortages and sustain productivity even as populations shrank, they argued. Analysts at Bank of America (BofA) Global Research...

- Malaysian businessman releases photo of armed officer to prove he was held at gunpoint

Businessman Albert Tei has released a photo purportedly showing a Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission (MACC) officer brandishing a firearm to back his claims that he had a gun pointed at him during a raid on his home last November. Speaking to reporters at the court complex in Kuala Lumpur on Friday, Tei said the photo was sent to him on Monday via an unknown number. “I admit, the photo is not very clear but I believe it was taken from an MACCOfficer’ s body camera,” he said. “What is the...

- Donald Liao, architect who shaped Hong Kong’ s housing landscape, dies at 96
(2026-03-13 06:03)

Donald Liao Poon-huai, one of Hong Kong’ s most influential government architects and public housing visionaries who became the first Chinese official under British rule to serve as secretary for district administration, has died at the age of 96. His family confirmed his death to the South China Morning Post on Friday, with one member saying he died peacefully on Thursday morning at home. Liao was surrounded by family and friends on his last evening. “He lived a long, meaningful life and made...

- How Middle East conflict and soaring oil prices will affect Angola’ s Chinese debt deals
(2026-03-13 06:00)

As conflict in the Middle East pushes oil beyond US$100 per barrel, Angola and other African producers are in line to be among the main beneficiaries. On Thursday, following renewed tanker attacks, Brent crude oil prices surged back past US$100 a barrel, having reached a peak of US$119.50 on Monday, the highest level since 2022. The closure of the Strait of Hormuz, a key maritime chokepoint through which about 20 million barrels of oil and petroleum products flow daily, has crippled energy...

- China girl goes viral after confronting riding instructors for assigning vicious horses to friends
(2026-03-13 06:00)

A young girl from central China earned widespread praise online after fearlessly confronting riding instructors over why they assigned her friends vicious horses. Nine-year-old Langlang from Huangshi in Hubei province has been travelling the world with her parents since she was a baby. While travelling in Egypt with her parents on March 4, she was taking a riding lesson with two friends at a local equestrian club. Although the pair were beginners, the coaches assigned them two ill-tempered...

- Jump in illegal refuelling complaints as Hong Kong grapples with rising oil prices
(2026-03-13 05:54)

Hong Kong authorities have received 221 complaints about illegal petrol stations in the first two months of the year, averaging about 111 per month – 42 per cent higher than the monthly average in 2025 – as drivers continue to grapple with rising fuel prices caused by the US-Israel war with Iran. The Fire Services Department said on Friday that prosecutions in January and February had risen even more sharply, increasing 85 per cent over last year’ s monthly average, with illegal operators...

- HKEX opens door for small innovative firms to list with biggest reforms since 2018

(2026-03-13 05:40)

Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing (HKEX) has unveiled its biggest listing reforms since 2018, broadening its special listing regime for innovative companies and opening the door for smaller and more diverse firms to list in the city, the bourse operator said on Friday. HKEX proposed lowering the minimum threshold for companies to list under the weighted voting rights regime to a minimum valuation of HK$20 billion (US$2.6 billion), half the current requirement of at least HK$40 billion. It will...

- Australia walks ‘very fine line’ with Gulf deployment amid Iran war (2026-03-13 05:39)

Australia’s decision to send a surveillance aircraft and air-to-air missiles to the Gulf highlights the difficult position the country now faces: supporting US and regional partners while trying to avoid being drawn deeper into the widening conflict. Analysts said the government was “walking a very fine line” with the deployment, signalling support for partners under Iranian attacks while stopping short of committing Australia to offensive operations. At the same time, they said Canberra was...

- Nasa clears Artemis moon rocket for an April launch with 4 astronauts (2026-03-13 05:24)

Nasa cleared its moon rocket on Thursday for an April launch with four astronauts after completing the latest round of repairs. The 98-metre (322-foot) rocket will roll out of the hangar and back to the pad next week at Florida’s Kennedy Space Centre, leading to a launch attempt as early as April 1. It will mark humanity’s first trip to the moon in more than 50 years. The timing is interesting. From the end of March, US President Donald Trump is slated to visit China and meet with President Xi...

- ‘Two sessions’ webinar (2026-03-13 05:18)

This year’s ‘two sessions’, China’s biggest annual political gathering, featured the announcement of the lowest GDP growth target in decades and official approval for the 15th five-year plan. SCMP Plus hosted a webinar to discuss these developments with three experts from the Asia Society Policy Institute’s Center for China Analysis. Other topics included the upcoming US-China presidential summit, President Xi Jinping’s purge of the military and efforts to reshape the economy. The panel...

- Greater Bay Airlines to raise fuel surcharges, joining Hong Kong rivals as costs soar

(2026-03-13 05:18)

Greater Bay Airlines will more than double its fuel surcharge on certain routes starting next week, becoming the last Hong Kong passenger carrier to raise prices amid the ongoing conflict in the Middle East. The airline announced on Friday that it would raise prices due to “surging fuel costs,” with the new surcharges taking effect from March 18. The charge on the carrier’s flights to Hong Kong from all destinations except mainland China, Taiwan, Japan, the Maldives and the Philippines will rise...

- Cambricon, China's 'little Nvidia', to pay maiden dividend after profitable 2025 (2026-03-13 04:34)

Cambricon Technologies, a Chinese semiconductor designer seen as a potential alternative to US giant Nvidia, will pay its maiden dividend after posting its first full-year profit since listing in 2020. Cambricon, dubbed “little Nvidia”, planned to distribute a cash dividend of 15 yuan (US$2.2) for every 10 shares held, totalling more than 632 million yuan, according to its filing to the Shanghai Stock Exchange on Thursday. Another 20 million yuan would be allocated for share buy-backs, taking...

- Philippines urges Asean to be global investment safe haven as Middle East war rages (2026-03-13 04:28)

Asean should position itself as a safe haven for investment amid worsening global volatility, the host country said as the region's economic ministers kicked off their meeting in Manila on Friday. “Let us ensure that Asean remains a region where investment is met with certainty and where cooperation creates genuine opportunity for our people,” Philippine Trade Secretary Cristina Roque said in her opening speech. Energy and financial markets worldwide have been upended with the Iran war in its...

- China beats US, Japan in carbon-fibre arms race to create world's first T1200 factory (2026-03-13 04:00)

China has become the first country to mass produce the strongest carbon fibre, which has wide applications for defence industries such as aerospace, drones and robots, state broadcaster CCTV's military channel reported on Wednesday. The domestically developed T1200-grade fibre has a tensile strength 10 times greater than ordinary steel, yet it is less than one-tenth of a human hair in diameter, according to the state broadcaster. Mass production of the ultra-strength fibre at a projected output...

- In Japan, video of exhausted Takaichi sparks health fears ahead of US trip (2026-03-13 03:26)

A video showing Japanese Prime Minister Sanae Takaichi looking visibly exhausted after a budget committee session on Thursday went viral online, sparking concerns over her well-being ahead of a trip to the US to meet President Donald Trump. Takaichi had cold-like symptoms and was advised to rest by doctors, ultimately skipping some meetings with local Middle Eastern ambassadors on Thursday, according to local media. “Yesterday, the prime minister suspected she had a cold, so she was examined by...

- The fiscal family: adviser says China’s tax flows should resemble parental ties

The full implementation of taxation reforms pledged in China’s new five-year plan would substantially ease the fiscal strains on local governments, a leading tax policy expert said, while adding that it would not alter the central government’s dominant role in the country’s fiscal landscape. As a unitary state, China’s systematic advantage lay in strong central government finance that could coordinate fiscal resources in a unified manner and redistribute them through transfer payments, in...

- US returns for WWII dead of Japan’s ‘hell ship’ tomb in the Philippines

(2026-03-13 02:30)

They were killed by American bombs. They were held at gunpoint by Japanese guards who fired indiscriminately into the crowded holds and when the ship finally went down, many were left to drown. Eight decades later, the United States is coming back for them. Hundreds perished when the Japanese “hell ship” Oryoku Maru was sunk in Subic Bay in December 1944. Now, the Pentagon has launched a multi-year mission in waters off the Philippines to retrieve their remains. As many as 250 Americans are...

- Hong Kong job openings hit 6-year low in 69% of sectors amid AI’s ascent

(2026-03-13 02:00)

Hong Kong’s fresh graduates are facing increasingly challenging career prospects, with 69 per cent of job sectors recording their fewest vacancies in six years, a trend experts attribute to the rise of artificial intelligence (AI) and a sluggish economy. Figures from the Joint Institution Job Information System, a centralised online job information platform shared by the city’s eight publicly funded universities, also showed that the number of job vacancies fell to a five-year low of 30,798 last...

- US sanctions 2 firms, 6 individuals for funding North Korean weapons

The United States has imposed sanctions on two companies and six individuals for their roles in operations that used information technology workers in foreign countries to raise money for North Korea. The Treasury Department said the schemes, orchestrated by the North Korean government, had systematically defrauded US businesses and generated revenue to fund North Korea’s weapons programmes, including nearly US$800 million in 2024. The department also accused workers associated with North Korea...

- When homes are small and costly, dreams of having a family shrink

(2026-03-13 01:30)

Across Asia's densest cities, the milestones of adulthood are quietly shifting. Couples share kitchens with parents. Some wait years on public housing lists. Others secure a flat before thinking about a ring. In some cases, keys come before vows. Increasingly, love moves in step with property. Square footage, mortgage approvals and ballot results shape decisions that once felt spontaneous. At first glance, falling fertility rates might look like a purely economic or demographic...

- US-Israel war on Iran: Indian homes stockpile electric stoves to beat gas crunch (2026-03-13 01:00)

Indian households are rushing to buy electric induction stoves, draining stocks online and in stores, amid fears of a potential cooking gas shortage tied to the Middle East conflict. India, the world's second-largest importer of liquefied petroleum gas (LPG), has invoked emergency powers to boost supplies for households even as availability tightens for commercial users including canteens, hostels and restaurants. Meanwhile, consumers are buying electric cooking appliances as a precaution,...

- How a 102-year-old 'baby' in China hasn't been in hospital for 50 years (2026-03-13 01:00)

A 102-year-old woman from eastern China has won hearts online with her optimistic attitude and unique lifestyle. Jin Baoling, a centenarian from a rural area in Taizhou, Zhejiang province, is frequently visited by her son, daughter-in-law and granddaughter. Known for her longevity and cheerful personality, fellow villagers affectionately call her "Old Baby." According to the Taizhou Evening News, Jin is mentally sharp and physically healthy, having not visited a hospital in the past 50...

- Swire sells part of Cathay Pacific stake for HK\$1.8 billion to boost working capital (2026-03-13 00:40)

Conglomerate Swire Pacific has sold part of its stake in Hong Kong flag carrier Cathay Pacific Airways for HK$1.8 billion (US$230 million) to raise working capital. In a rare move, the group revealed on Friday that it sold 153.05 million shares at HK$11.74 each the previous day. This was a 9.6 per cent discount to the last traded price on Thursday of HK$12.99 per share. Swire is the latest shareholder to reduce its stake in Cathay, following Air China's sale in January for HK$1.32...

- 'I can't get a job and AI is to blame': a young person's lament (2026-03-13 00:01)

Trina Lau spent nearly three months looking for work after she was laid off from an e-commerce firm in Hong Kong in December. It was the 23-year-old's first job after graduating with a communications degree last year. The position only lasted for six months. She sent out more than 50 job applications but only received calls for interviews for six of them. Lau conceded that it was slow going because the economy was not picking up as quickly as she would have liked. But now, she said, she had the...

- BMW sees smoother road ahead in China after sales skid in 2025 (2026-03-13 00:00)

BMW could be approaching the end of the tunnel in China as signs of stabilisation raise hopes of a turnaround after the German carmaker reported that sales dropped by double digits in the key market in 2025. “Transaction prices in the market for our products have stabilised ... and are actually improving slightly compared to [the third quarter],” said Walter Mertl, chief financial officer, during a press conference on Thursday. “If the run rate continues this way, we have the opportunity to go...

- Philippines’ bid for UN Security Council seat sidesteps maritime row (2026-03-13 00:00)

Philippine President Ferdinand Marcos Jr’s pitch for a United Nations Security Council seat this week was notable for his sidestepping of an issue at the core of Manila’s foreign policy in recent years. As he appealed to UN members in New York, Marcos framed the Philippines as a bridge connecting developing countries and middle-income economies, without making any direct reference to the South China Sea dispute. The president’s restrained speech, which avoided mentioning China despite ongoing...

- China’s rural pensions in focus as lawmakers fight for farmers’ fair share amid income gap (2026-03-13 00:00)

Some Chinese lawmakers and advisers are pushing to secure higher pensions for elderly farmers, underscoring the persistent income disparity between the country’s urban and rural residents. The latest government work report, approved on Thursday, confirmed a 20-yuan (US$2.91) monthly increase to basic pension payments for a third consecutive year, bringing the national minimum to 163 yuan. However, some deputies from China’s top legislature contend that this level is inadequate. “A pension of...
